MEET YOUR PILOT

Mr. Reynolds — Two Truths & a Lie

Two of these are true. One is a bald-faced lie. Vote with your hands.

1

[write something true about you]

2

[write the lie — make it believable]

3

[write something true about you]

Teacher: fill these three in with your real facts before class.

THE YEAR AHEAD

Don't just learn history. Hack it.

You're the historian.

You'll weigh real primary sources and make your own call — there's no answer key.

1877 → today.

Ten stops, one flight across modern America — every unit builds on the last.

It's about you.

Different experiences, same journey.
Your voice is part of the story.

OUR ONE RULE

RESPECT

We have exactly one rule. Everything else fits under it.

1 min

TURN & TALK

What does respect look like — here?

Yourself

Each other

This room

Our learning

With your partner (60 sec): "Respect looks like _____ and sounds like _____."

YOU MAKE THE CALL

You write the rules — under RESPECT

Every rule we keep has to pass one test: does it show respect? You propose them. We adopt them. They're ours.
