

U.S. HISTORY HACK

Unit 1

The Rise of Industrialization

Westward Expansion · The Gilded Age · Immigration · 1877-1900

Standards US.01 – US.07

US.01

US.02

US.03

US.04

US.05

US.06

US.07

TCAP EOC LECTURE DECK · Tennessee Academic Standards for U.S. History

TroopToTeacher Technologies LLC

UNIT ROADMAP

Where We Are Headed

Unit 1 • The Rise of Industrialization (1877–1900) — Westward Expansion, the Gilded Age & Immigration

In 1865, most Americans lived on farms.
By 1920, most lived in cities.

What forces could move an entire nation off the land and into the factory in just 55 years?

TURN & TALK

With a partner, list three things that might pull people toward cities — and three things that might push them off the farm. Keep your list; we will return to it at the end of the unit.

How This Deck Works — UDL & MTSS

Universal supports built into every standard. One firm learning goal; flexible ways to reach it.

CORE PATH

The essential instruction every student receives.

SUPPORT OPTION

An optional scaffold that keeps the goal, not lowers it.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Vocabulary, pronunciation, and Spanish cognates for access.

RESPONSE CHOICE

Show learning by writing, saying/recording, or diagramming.

PROGRESS CHECK

A quick DOK-2/3 check to guide reteach or extend.

EXTENSION

A deeper challenge once the goal is met.

Options are available by design and support access without lowering the learning goal.

Supports work alongside — never in place of — required IEP or 504 accommodations.

STANDARD

US.01

Homestead Act and Transcontinental Railroad

SOCIAL STUDIES PRACTICES

SSP.01

Collect sources

SSP.02

Examine a source

SSP.05

Historical awareness

SSP.06

Geographic awareness

TN ACADEMIC STANDARD

Explain how the Homestead Act and the Transcontinental Railroad impacted the settlement of the West.

I CAN

I can explain how the Homestead Act and the Transcontinental Railroad impacted the settlement of the West, including their effects on American Indians, immigrants, and settlers.

Do You Remember?

Before we start, retrieve what we have already learned. Answer from memory first — no notes.

1

Unit Hook Name one PUSH factor and one PULL factor that moved Americans from farms to cities.

2

Prior What major war had just ended in 1865, and what region was being rebuilt?

Warm-Up — Quick Recall

DOK 1

LOW STAKES

Everyone can answer this. Thumbs / whiteboards — no notes.

TRUE or FALSE: The Homestead Act offered free public land to settlers who farmed it.

✓ ANSWER

TRUE — 160 acres after five years of living on and improving the claim.

COMMIT FIRST: have everyone answer before the reveal — this is the DOK 1 floor; the graded check later in this lesson moves up to DOK 2–3.

Think About It

160 acres of land — free — to almost anyone willing to farm it for five years.

DISCUSS

TIMING: Turn & Talk 60 sec → cold-call 2 pairs

If the government offered you free land out West in 1862, would you go? What would you have to give up — and who already lived there?

Sequence the expansion of the United States

- The Homestead Act of 1862 offered 160 acres of free land to settlers who would farm it for five years.
- Combined with the completion of the Transcontinental Railroad in 1869, these policies accelerated westward expansion as part of Manifest Destiny—the belief that Americans were destined to spread across the continent.
- The Union Pacific built westward from Omaha while the Central Pacific built eastward from Sacramento, meeting at Promontory Summit, Utah.

SENTENCE FRAME • LANGUAGE SUPPORT

The Homestead Act and the railroad _____ western settlement because _____.

Andrew J. Russell, 1869 National Archives and Records Administration

TEACHER CUE Chunk → cold-call → confirm before advancing.

Impact on Western Settlement

- The Transcontinental Railroad dramatically reduced travel time from months to days, opening the West to settlement, commerce, and resource extraction.
- Towns sprang up along rail lines, and agricultural products could now reach eastern markets efficiently.
- However, this expansion came at tremendous cost to American Indian nations whose lands were taken and whose way of life was destroyed.

Matthews-Northrup Company, 1890 Library of Congress

Impact on American Indians, Immigrants, and Settlers

- Western expansion devastated American Indian communities through forced relocations, broken treaties, and the near-extinction of buffalo herds they depended upon.
- Immigrants, particularly Chinese workers who built much of the Central Pacific, faced discrimination despite their crucial contributions.
- The "Buffalo Soldiers"—African American cavalry regiments—served on the frontier, including George Jordan of Williamson County, Tennessee, who received the Medal of Honor for his service.

★ TENNESSEE CONNECTION

Buffalo Soldier George Jordan of Williamson County, Tennessee earned the Medal of Honor for his frontier service — a direct Tennessee link to westward expansion.

Homestead Act

Close Reading

U.S. Congress • May 20, 1862 (12 Stat. 392)

Solomon D. Butcher, 1886 Library of Congress

"Any person who is the head of a family, or who has arrived at the age of twenty-one years, and is a citizen of the United States, or who shall have filed his declaration of intention to become such... shall be entitled to enter one quarter section [160 acres] of unappropriated public lands."

CONTEXT

Passed during the Civil War, the Homestead Act offered western land to encourage settlement and strengthen Union-aligned development of the frontier.

ANALYZE

A homesteading family and a Lakota family in 1875 would most likely have described the Homestead Act in very different ways. Which statement best explains why?

SOURCE IT FIRST	WHO made it?	WHEN?	WHY does it matter?
SSP.02 • before you interpret	U.S. Congress (federal statute).	1862, during the Civil War.	A law reveals the government's intent — ask who benefits and who is left out.

Source: National Archives

Word Wall

Homestead Act

say: HOHM-sted

Ley de Homestead

H
A

An 1862 law that provided 160 acres of public land to settlers who agreed to live on and improve the land for five years, encouraging westward expansion.

Westward Expansion

say: WEST-werd ek-SPAN-shun

Expansión hacia el Oeste

W
E

The 19th-century movement of settlers, railroads, and U.S. authority across the continent toward the Pacific, encouraged by free land and new transportation.

Land Grant

say: LAND grant

Concesión de Tierras

L
G

A gift of public land from the government — to railroad companies or settlers — used to fund and accelerate western settlement.

Transcontinental Railroad

say: tranz-kon-tih-NEN-tul RAYL-rohd

Ferrocarril Transcontinental

T
R

A continuous railroad line completed in 1869 that connected the eastern United States with the Pacific coast, revolutionizing transportation and commerce.

Manifest Destiny

say: MAN-ih-fest DES-tih-nee

Destino Manifiesto

M
D

The widely held 1800s belief that the United States was destined to expand across the entire continent, used to justify the displacement of American Indians.

Reservation

say: rez-er-VAY-shun

Reservación

R

An area of land set aside by the federal government for American Indian tribes, frequently far from their ancestral homelands.

"say:" pronunciation guide (stressed syllable in CAPS) and a per-term visual anchor support newcomer English learners. Spanish term + full bilingual Frayer models are in the unit vocabulary set.

Let's Work One Together

Cause → Effect reasoning

MODEL PROMPT: Trace ONE effect of the Transcontinental Railroad on American Indian nations.

WORKED EXAMPLE (teacher models this aloud)

CAUSE: The railroad cut directly through Plains hunting grounds (1869). → EFFECT: Settlers and hunters poured in and the buffalo herds collapsed. → CONSEQUENCE: Plains nations lost the food source their economy depended on and were pushed onto reservations.

THINK ALOUD

Watch how I do it: I start with the policy (the cause), I underline the change it set in motion (the effect), then I push one step further to the human consequence. I do NOT stop at "railroad was built" — I ask "so what happened to people because of it?"

→ Now you try: Now you complete two more cause→effect chains on your own in the activity.

Cause-and-Effect Web: Tying the Nation Together

Pairs

10-12 min

YOUR TASK

Using the railroad map and the Golden Spike photo, list THREE effects of the Transcontinental Railroad on (a) settlers, (b) immigrant labor, and (c) American Indian nations. For each effect, mark whether it was a benefit or a cost — and to whom.

Matthews-Northrup Company, 1890 Library of Congress

DELIVERABLE

Completed cause-effect web with at least 6 labeled effects.

SUPPORT OPTIONS

SUPPORT OPTION: sentence stems provided. EXTENSION: rank the three groups by net impact and defend the order.

Companion printable: Cornell Notes — US.01: Transcontinental Railroad & Industrial Expansion (Teacher Tools › Worksheets › Cornell Notes)

TCAP-Style Question

DOK 3

EOC PRACTICE

A homesteading family and a Lakota family in 1875 would most likely have described the Homestead Act in very different ways. Which statement best explains why?

- A The Homestead Act applied only to settlers and never affected American Indians in any way.
- B The same law that opened “free” land to settlers took that land away from American Indians who already lived on it.
- C Both families received 160 acres each under the law, so their views would have matched.
- D The law was written to benefit American Indians first and settlers second.

ANSWER FIRST: students commit — then click / advance to reveal the correct answer and explanation.

TCAP-Style Question

✓ ANSWER KEY

A homesteading family and a Lakota family in 1875 would most likely have described the Homestead Act in very different ways. Which statement best explains why?

- A The Homestead Act applied only to settlers and never affected American Indians in any way.
- B The same law that opened “free” land to settlers took that land away from American Indians who already lived on it.
- C Both families received 160 acres each under the law, so their views would have matched.
- D The law was written to benefit American Indians first and settlers second.

Correct answer: B. Why: DOK 3: Students must weigh competing perspectives. The Act’s “free” 160-acre grants to settlers came from land that the federal government took from American Indian nations, so the same policy meant opportunity for one group and dispossession for another.

What You Need to Know for TCAP

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Sequence the expansion of the United States
- Impact on Western Settlement
- Impact on American Indians, Immigrants, and Settlers

★ EXTENSION DOK 3 · SSP.04 Argumentation

Argue: was westward expansion mainly “opportunity” or mainly “dispossession”? Defend your claim with TWO specific pieces of evidence.

EXIT TICKET

DOK 2

Explain ONE way the Homestead Act or the railroad helped settlers AND ONE way it harmed American Indians.

TEACHER DECISION BAND PROGRESS CHECK → identify barrier → select support → reteach → recheck → extend
SCAFFOLD FADING Guided → Light → independent as evidence grows; required IEP/504 supports do not fade unless the authorized team changes them.

STANDARD

US.02

Federal Policies Toward American Indians

SOCIAL STUDIES PRACTICES

SSP.01

Collect sources

SSP.02

Examine a source

SSP.03

Synthesize sources

SSP.05

Historical awareness

SSP.06

Geographic awareness

TN ACADEMIC STANDARD

Examine federal policies toward American Indians, including the movement to reservations, assimilation, boarding schools, and the Dawes Act.

I CAN

I can examine federal policies toward American Indians, including the movement to reservations, assimilation, boarding schools, and the Dawes Act.

Do You Remember?

Before we start, retrieve what we have already learned. Answer from memory first — no notes.

1

US.01 How did the Homestead Act and the railroads change WHO lived on western land?

2

US.01 Define “Manifest Destiny” in one sentence.

Warm-Up — Quick Recall

DOK 1

LOW STAKES

Everyone can answer this. Thumbs / whiteboards — no notes.

In one word: what kind of school tried to erase Native languages and culture?

✓ ANSWER

A boarding (assimilation) school — e.g., Carlisle.

COMMIT FIRST: have everyone answer before the reveal — this is the DOK 1 floor; the graded check later in this lesson moves up to DOK 2–3.

Think About It

*"Kill the Indian in him, and save the man."
— Capt. Richard H. Pratt, 1892*

DISCUSS

TIMING: Turn & Talk 60 sec → cold-call 2 pairs

What does it mean for a government to try to erase a culture? As you read today, watch for the difference between what these policies claimed to do and what they actually did — and use the evidence to judge for yourself.

Movement to Reservations

- After the Civil War, the federal government expanded a policy of confining American Indian nations to reservations—designated territories far smaller than their traditional homelands.
- Officials stated two goals: to open western land for white settlement and railroads, and to end armed conflict on the Plains.
- Many treaties were signed under military and economic pressure, and tribes surrendered millions of acres.
- Resistance continued: at the Battle of the Little Bighorn (1876), Lakota and Cheyenne forces under Sitting Bull and Crazy Horse defeated Lt. Col. George Custer—a Native victory that intensified U.S. efforts to break tribal power.

SENTENCE FRAME · LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Federal Indian policy claimed to _____, but in practice it _____.

Assimilation and Boarding Schools

- Alongside removal, the government pursued a policy of assimilation—using schools and law to replace tribal cultures with Euro-American ones.
- At off-reservation boarding schools such as the Carlisle Indian Industrial School (founded 1879), Captain Richard H. Pratt summarized the aim in 1892: “Kill the Indian in him, and save the man.” Children were removed from their families and often forbidden to speak their languages, wear their clothing, or practice their religions.
- Historians today describe this systematic effort to erase Native identity as cultural genocide, and document its lasting, multi-generational harm.

John N. Choate, 1882 and 1885 Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library

The Dawes Act and Its Impact

- The Dawes Severalty Act of 1887 broke up communal tribal lands into individual allotments—160 acres to each head of a family—stating the goal of turning American Indians into independent farmers and U.S. citizens.
- The actual effect was a massive transfer of land: American Indians held about 150 million acres before the Act, and lost roughly two-thirds of their land base—over 90 million acres—by 1934.
- “Surplus” land was sold to white settlers, and additional allotted land was lost through taxation, fraud, and forced sales.
- The Act dismantled the communal landholding central to many tribal cultures.

Dawes General Allotment Act

Close Reading

U.S. Congress • February 8, 1887 (24 Stat. 388)

"In all cases where any tribe or band of Indians has been, or shall hereafter be, located upon any reservation created for their use... the President of the United States be authorized... to allot the lands in said reservation in severalty to any Indian located thereon in quantities as follows: To each head of a family, one-quarter of a section [160 acres]."

CONTEXT

Part of the federal assimilation era. The Dawes Act broke tribal landholdings into individual allotments and opened the remaining "surplus" to non-Native settlement. American Indians lost roughly two-thirds of their land—over 90 million acres—between 1887 and 1934.

ANALYZE

Based on the excerpt, what was the most likely long-term effect of dividing tribal land "in severalty" under the Dawes Act?

SOURCE IT FIRST	WHO made it?	WHEN?	WHY does it matter?
SSP.02 • before you interpret	U.S. Congress (the Dawes/General Allotment Act).	1887.	The law's wording shows the stated goal; compare it to the documented result.

Source: National Archives

Word Wall

Reservation System

Sistema de Reservaciones

R
S

Federal policy that confined Native American tribes to designated areas of land, often far from their ancestral territories, as part of efforts to control indigenous populations and open land for white settlement.

Dawes Act

Ley Dawes

say: DAWZ

D
A

An 1887 law that divided tribal lands into individual allotments for Native American families, aiming to break up reservations and assimilate Native Americans into mainstream American culture. It resulted in...

Boarding School

Internado

B
S

Off-reservation schools, such as Carlisle, where Native children were forced to abandon their languages, names, and cultures to be "assimilated" into white society.

Assimilation

Asimilación

say: uh-sim-ih-LAY-shun

A

Federal policy aimed at forcing Native Americans to abandon their traditional cultures and adopt European-American ways of life, including language, religion, and customs.

Allotment

Asignación de Parcelas

A

The division of communal tribal land into small individual plots under the Dawes Act, which opened "surplus" land to white settlers and caused massive Native land loss.

Sovereignty

Soberanía

S

The right of a tribe or nation to govern itself; federal Indian policy in this era steadily eroded tribal sovereignty.

"say:" pronunciation guide (stressed syllable in CAPS) and a per-term visual anchor support newcomer English learners. Spanish term + full bilingual Frayer models are in the unit vocabulary set.

Let's Work One Together

Stated goal vs. real consequence

MODEL PROMPT: Separate what the Dawes Act CLAIMED to do from what it actually DID.

WORKED EXAMPLE (teacher models this aloud)

STATED GOAL: "Civilize" and assimilate Native peoples by making them individual farmers. → REAL CONSEQUENCE: Communal land was split into allotments and ~90 million acres of tribal land was lost.

THINK ALOUD

Watch my move: I put the policy's own words in one column and the documented outcome in the other. The gap between those two columns is the historical argument.

→ Now you try: You build the same two-column split for the boarding-school policy in the activity.

Claim & Evidence: What Did the Policy Do?

Pairs → Whole class

12-15 min

YOUR TASK

Examine the Tom Torlino before/after photographs and the Dawes Act excerpt. In your own words, write what each policy CLAIMED to do and what it ACTUALLY did, citing one piece of evidence for each. Then take a position: was federal assimilation policy primarily about land, about culture, or both? Support your claim with evidence from today's sources.

DELIVERABLE

A claim-evidence-reasoning (CER) paragraph with at least two cited sources.

SUPPORT OPTIONS

SUPPORT OPTION: T-chart (Claimed | Actually) instead of paragraph.

EXTENSION: evaluate the term “cultural genocide” — is it supported by the evidence? Why or why not?

Companion printable: Cornell Notes — US.02: Federal Policies Toward American Indians \(Teacher Tools › Worksheets › Cornell Notes\)

TCAP-Style Question

DOK 2

EOC PRACTICE

Based on the excerpt, what was the most likely long-term effect of dividing tribal land "in severalty" under the Dawes Act?

- A It strengthened tribal governments and expanded reservation territory.
- B It returned ancestral homelands to tribal control.
- C It had no measurable effect on Native landholding.
- D It broke up communal tribal ownership and led to large-scale Native land loss.

ANSWER FIRST: students commit — then click / advance to reveal the correct answer and explanation.

TCAP-Style Question

✓ ANSWER KEY

Based on the excerpt, what was the most likely long-term effect of dividing tribal land "in severalty" under the Dawes Act?

- A It strengthened tribal governments and expanded reservation territory.
- B It returned ancestral homelands to tribal control.
- C It had no measurable effect on Native landholding.
- D It broke up communal tribal ownership and led to large-scale Native land loss.

Correct answer: D. Why: DOK 2: The Act allotted land to individuals and declared the remainder "surplus" for sale, predictably dissolving collective tribal holdings and transferring tens of millions of acres out of Native hands.

What You Need to Know for TCAP

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Movement to Reservations
- Assimilation and Boarding Schools
- The Dawes Act and Its Impact

★ EXTENSION DOK 3 · SSP.04 Argumentation

Evaluate: did assimilation policy and the Dawes Act share the same underlying assumption about Native cultures? Support with evidence from both.

EXIT TICKET

DOK 3

A policy can claim one goal but cause another. Using the Dawes Act, give the stated goal and one real consequence.

TEACHER DECISION BAND PROGRESS CHECK → identify barrier → select support → reteach → recheck → extend
SCAFFOLD FADING Guided → Light → independent as evidence grows; required IEP/504 supports do not fade unless the authorized team changes them.

STANDARD

US.03

Compromise of 1877, Jim Crow & Plessy v. Ferguson

SOCIAL STUDIES PRACTICES

SSP.01

Collect sources

SSP.02

Examine a source

SSP.03

Synthesize sources

SSP.04

Build an argument

SSP.05

Historical awareness

TN ACADEMIC STANDARD

Explain the impact of the Compromise of 1877, including Jim Crow laws, lynching, disenfranchisement methods, the efforts of Benjamin "Pap" Singleton and the Exodusters, and the Plessy v. Ferguson decision. (TCA)

I CAN

I can explain the impact of the Compromise of 1877, including Jim Crow laws, lynching, disenfranchisement methods, the efforts of Benjamin "Pap" Singleton and the Exodusters, and the Plessy v. Ferguson decision.

Do You Remember?

Before we start, retrieve what we have already learned. Answer from memory first — no notes.

1

US.02 What was the main effect of the Dawes Act on tribal land?

2

US.01 What does “reservation” mean?

Warm-Up — Quick Recall

DOK 1

LOW STAKES

Everyone can answer this. Thumbs / whiteboards — no notes.

Finish the phrase: the 1896 Supreme Court rule was "separate but ____" (one word).

✓ ANSWER

"equal" — Plessy v. Ferguson legalized segregation.

COMMIT FIRST: have everyone answer before the reveal — this is the DOK 1 floor; the graded check later in this lesson moves up to DOK 2–3.

Think About It

In 1877, the last federal troops left the South. Within 20 years, segregation was the law of the land.

DISCUSS

TIMING: Turn & Talk 60 sec → cold-call 2 pairs

How can rights that were written into the Constitution be taken away in practice? Predict: what tools might a government use to deny rights without changing the Constitution?

The Election of 1876 and End of Reconstruction

- The disputed 1876 presidential election between Republican Rutherford B. Hayes and Democrat Samuel Tilden led to the Compromise of 1877.
- In exchange for the presidency, Hayes agreed to withdraw federal troops from the South, effectively ending Reconstruction.
- This abandonment left African Americans without federal protection against increasingly hostile state governments.

SENTENCE FRAME • LANGUAGE SUPPORT

After Reconstruction ended, Black Americans lost rights because _____ was used to _____.

Alfred R. Waud, 1868 Library of Congress

TEACHER CUE Chunk → cold-call → confirm before advancing.

Jim Crow Laws, Lynching, and Disenfranchisement

- With federal protection gone, Southern states implemented Jim Crow laws enforcing racial segregation in all aspects of life.
- African Americans faced systematic disenfranchisement through poll taxes, literacy tests, grandfather clauses, and white primaries.
- Those who resisted faced terrorism, including lynching—public murders that went unpunished and were often celebrated by white communities.

Thomas Nast, 1874 Library of Congress

Pap Singleton and the Exodusters

- Benjamin "Pap" Singleton, a formerly enslaved man, organized the migration of thousands of African Americans from the South to Kansas in 1879.
- These "Exodusters" sought to escape violence and oppression, establishing communities like Nicodemus, Kansas.
- While conditions in Kansas were often harsh, the Exoduster movement represented African American agency and resistance to Jim Crow terror.

Plessy v. Ferguson and "Separate But Equal"

- The 1896 Supreme Court decision in Plessy v. Ferguson established the "separate but equal" doctrine, ruling that racial segregation was constitutional as long as facilities were supposedly equal.
- In practice, facilities for African Americans were grossly inferior.
- This decision legitimized Jim Crow segregation for nearly sixty years until Brown v. Board of Education (1954).

Key Figures

Ida B. Wells

Investigative Journalist · Newspaper Editor

- Led the first anti-lynching campaign in American history
- Co-founded the NAACP
- Documented over 700 lynchings in "Southern Horrors"

STRATEGY Investigative journalism

Booker T. Washington

Educator · Author

- Founded and led Tuskegee Institute
- Became the most influential African American leader of his era
- Delivered the "Atlanta Compromise" speech

STRATEGY Gradual self-help

Argumentation

Supreme Court of the United States · May 18, 1896 (163 U.S. 537)

"Laws permitting, and even requiring, their separation in places where they are liable to be brought into contact do not necessarily imply the inferiority of either race to the other... We consider the underlying fallacy of the plaintiff's argument to consist in the assumption that the enforced separation of the two races stamps the colored race with a badge of inferiority."

CONTEXT

After the Compromise of 1877 ended Reconstruction, Southern states systematically dismantled the civil and political rights that African Americans had gained after the Civil War. By the 1890s, a system of racial segregation laws — known as Jim Crow — had spread across the South, enforced by violence, poll taxes, literacy tests, and legal barriers. The 1896 Supreme Court case Plessy v. Ferguson arose when Homer Plessy, a man of mixed race, deliberately challenged a Louisiana law requiring separate railroad cars. The Court's 7-1 ruling created the 'separate but equal' doctrine, providing legal cover for segregation for the next 58 years until Brown v. Board of Education (1954).

ANALYZE

The Plessy majority reasoned that "separate" facilities did not make one race inferior. Which later argument most directly challenges that reasoning?

SOURCE IT FIRST

SSP.02 · before you interpret

WHO made it?

The U.S. Supreme Court — majority opinion by Justice Henry Billings Brown.

WHEN?

May 18, 1896 (Plessy v. Ferguson, 163 U.S. 537).

WHY does it matter?

The nation's highest court is stating the law of the land — its reasoning shaped segregation for 58 years. until Brown v. Board...

Word Wall

Compromise of 1877

Compromiso de 1877

C
O

An informal agreement that resolved the disputed 1876 presidential election, resulting in Rutherford B. Hayes becoming president in exchange for removing federal troops from the South, effectively ending...

Jim Crow Laws

Leyes de Jim Crow

J
C

State and local laws enacted primarily in the Southern states between 1877 and the 1960s that enforced racial segregation and denied African Americans their constitutional rights.

Disenfranchisement

Privación del Derecho al Voto

say: dis-en-FRAN-chyz-ment

D

The systematic denial of voting rights through methods such as poll taxes, literacy tests, grandfather clauses, and violence, primarily targeting African American voters.

Plessy v. Ferguson

Plessy contra Ferguson

P
V

An 1896 Supreme Court decision that upheld racial segregation under the doctrine of "separate but equal," legitimizing Jim Crow laws for nearly 60 years.

Exodusters

Exodusters (colonos negros)

E

African Americans who migrated from the South to Kansas and other western states in the late 1870s, seeking to escape racial violence and economic oppression. Led by figures like Benjamin "Pap" Singleton.

"say:" pronunciation guide (stressed syllable in CAPS) and a per-term visual anchor support newcomer English learners. Spanish term + full bilingual Frayer models are in the unit vocabulary set.

Let's Work One Together

Rights on paper vs. in practice

MODEL PROMPT: Show how a right in the Constitution could be denied in practice after 1877.

WORKED EXAMPLE (teacher models this aloud)

ON PAPER: The 15th Amendment guaranteed Black men the vote. → IN PRACTICE: Poll taxes and literacy tests blocked them, and Plessy v. Ferguson (1896) legalized segregation.

THINK ALOUD

Notice I name the specific tool (poll tax) and the specific court case (Plessy) — vague answers like "racism" do not earn the point. I anchor every claim to a named mechanism.

→ Now you try: You match two more denial-tools to the right each one defeated in the activity.

Reading a Political Cartoon as Evidence

Pairs

10-12 min

YOUR TASK

Analyze Thomas Nast's “Worse Than Slavery” cartoon and the Freedmen's Bureau image. Identify (1) the artist's point of view, (2) two symbols and their meaning, and (3) what the cartoon argues about why Reconstruction's protections collapsed.

Shorey (photographer), 1876 Library of Congress

DELIVERABLE

Annotated cartoon analysis with point-of-view statement.

SUPPORT OPTIONS

SUPPORT OPTION: guided symbol list. EXTENSION: compare Nast's view to the photo of the SC legislature — do the sources corroborate?

Companion printable: Cornell Notes — US.03: Reconstruction (Amendments, Freedmen's Bureau, End of Reconstruction)

TCAP-Style Question

DOK 3

EOC PRACTICE

The Plessy majority reasoned that "separate" facilities did not make one race inferior. Which later argument most directly challenges that reasoning?

- A That segregation was acceptable as long as both facilities were physically identical.
- B That the Constitution explicitly required racial separation.
- C That state-enforced separation itself signals and enforces inequality, regardless of facility quality.
- D That African Americans had freely chosen separate facilities.

ANSWER FIRST: students commit — then click / advance to reveal the correct answer and explanation.

TCAP-Style Question

✓ ANSWER KEY

The Plessy majority reasoned that "separate" facilities did not make one race inferior. Which later argument most directly challenges that reasoning?

- A That segregation was acceptable as long as both facilities were physically identical.
- B That the Constitution explicitly required racial separation.
- C That state-enforced separation itself signals and enforces inequality, regardless of facility quality.
- D That African Americans had freely chosen separate facilities.

Correct answer: C. Why: DOK 3: This requires evaluating the Court's logic. Justice Harlan's dissent — and later Brown v. Board (1954) — argued that government-mandated separation is inherently unequal because the law itself brands a group as inferior, directly rejecting the "separate but equal" reasoning.

What You Need to Know for TCAP

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- The Election of 1876 and End of Reconstruction
- Jim Crow Laws, Lynching, and Disenfranchisement
- Pap Singleton and the Exodusters
- Plessy v. Ferguson and "Separate But Equal"

★ EXTENSION DOK 3 · SSP.04 Argumentation

Construct an argument: which did MORE to undo Reconstruction — legal tools (Plessy, Jim Crow laws) or extralegal force (violence, intimidation)? Cite evidence.

EXIT TICKET

DOK 3

Rights can exist on paper but be denied in practice. Name one tool used to deny Black Americans rights after 1877 and explain how it worked.

TEACHER DECISION BAND PROGRESS CHECK → identify barrier → select support → reteach → recheck → extend
SCAFFOLD FADING Guided → Light → independent as evidence grows; required IEP/504 supports do not fade unless the authorized team changes them.

STANDARD

US.04

Gilded Age Politics and Economics

SOCIAL STUDIES PRACTICES

SSP.01

Collect sources

SSP.02

Examine a source

SSP.03

Synthesize sources

SSP.04

Build an argument

SSP.05

Historical awareness

TN ACADEMIC STANDARD

Analyze the causes and consequences of Gilded Age politics and economics as well as the significance of the rise of political machines, major scandals, civil service reform, and the economic difference between farmers, wage earners, and industrial capitalists, including: Boss Tweed, Thomas Nast, Credit Mobilier, Spoils system and President James A. Garfield's assassination, Pendleton Act, Interstate Commerce Act.

I CAN

I can analyze the causes and consequences of Gilded Age politics and economics, including political machines, major scandals, civil service reform, and economic differences between farmers, wage earners, and industrial capitalists.

Do You Remember?

Before we start, retrieve what we have already learned. Answer from memory first — no notes.

1

US.03 What ended Reconstruction, and what replaced Black voting rights in the South?

2

US.03 What did the Supreme Court decide in Plessy v. Ferguson?

Warm-Up — Quick Recall

DOK 1

LOW STAKES

Everyone can answer this. Thumbs / whiteboards — no notes.

What do we call a party organization that traded jobs and favors for votes?

✓ ANSWER

A political machine (e.g., Tammany Hall under Boss Tweed).

COMMIT FIRST: have everyone answer before the reveal — this is the DOK 1 floor; the graded check later in this lesson moves up to DOK 2–3.

Think About It

One New York political boss stole an estimated $200 million — and almost no one stopped him.

DISCUSS

TIMING: Turn & Talk 60 sec → cold-call 2 pairs

Why might city residents support a corrupt political machine? What might they get in return? List two possibilities.

Political Machines and Boss Tweed

- The Gilded Age (1870s-1900) saw the rise of powerful political machines that controlled city governments through patronage and corruption.
- Boss Tweed's Tammany Hall in New York City epitomized this system, funneling millions in public funds to Tweed and his associates.
- Political cartoonist Thomas Nast exposed Tweed's corruption through devastating illustrations in Harper's Weekly.

SENTENCE FRAME • LANGUAGE SUPPORT

A political machine stayed in power by _____, which helped _____ but harmed _____.

Joseph Keppler, 1889 Library of Congress

TEACHER CUE Chunk → cold-call → confirm before advancing.

Major Scandals and the Spoils System

- The era was marked by corruption at all levels.
- The Crédit Mobilier scandal revealed that railroad executives and congressmen had profited enormously from fraudulent construction contracts.
- The spoils system—giving government jobs to political supporters regardless of qualification—reached its peak.
- President James Garfield's assassination by a disappointed office-seeker in 1881 finally prompted reform.

Civil Service Reform

- Garfield's assassination led to the Pendleton Civil Service Act of 1883, which established merit-based hiring for federal positions through competitive examinations.
- This began the long process of professionalizing government service, though political influence remained significant in many positions.

Economic Disparity

- The Gilded Age saw extreme wealth concentration among industrial capitalists while farmers struggled with falling crop prices, high railroad shipping rates, and debt.
- Wage earners faced dangerous working conditions, long hours, and low pay.
- The Interstate Commerce Act of 1887 attempted to regulate railroad rates, representing early federal intervention in the economy.

Pendleton Civil Service Reform Act

U.S. Congress • January 16, 1883

Contextualization

"No person in the public service is for that reason under any obligations to contribute to any political fund, or to render any political service, and he will not be removed or otherwise prejudiced for refusing to do so... No person in said service has any right to use his official authority or influence to coerce the political action of any person or body."

CONTEXT

During the Gilded Age, the 'spoils system' — where elected officials rewarded political supporters with government jobs regardless of qualifications — had corrupted American government at every level. Political machines like Tammany Hall in New York City handed out thousands of jobs to loyal party members, and government workers were expected to donate a portion of their salaries to political campaigns. The assassination of President James Garfield in 1881 by a disappointed office-seeker shocked the nation and created overwhelming pressure for reform. The Pendleton Civil Service Reform Act of 1883 created a merit-based civil service system, requiring competitive exams for federal jobs

ANALYZE

What problem was the Pendleton Act designed to address?

SOURCE IT FIRST	WHO made it?	WHEN?	WHY does it matter?
SSP.02 • before you interpret	U.S. Congress (the Pendleton Civil Service Act).	1883.	A reform law tells you what problem lawmakers were trying to fix.

Source: National Archives

Word Wall

Gilded Age

Edad Dorada

G
A

The period from roughly 1870 to 1900 characterized by rapid economic growth, industrialization, and extreme wealth inequality. Named by Mark Twain to suggest that a thin layer of prosperity covered deep social...

Spoils System

Sistema de Botín

SS

The practice of rewarding political supporters with government jobs regardless of qualifications, based on the principle "to the victor belong the spoils."

Thomas Nast

Thomas Nast

T
N

A political cartoonist whose illustrations exposed Boss Tweed's corruption and helped bring down the Tammany Hall machine, demonstrating the power of the press.

Political Machines

Máquinas Políticas

P
M

Corrupt organizations that controlled city politics through patronage, bribery, and vote manipulation, often providing services to immigrants in exchange for political support.

Boss Tweed

Jefe Tweed

B
T

William M. Tweed, leader of New York City's Tammany Hall political machine, who controlled city politics and stole millions through kickbacks and corruption in the 1860s-1870s.

Pendleton Act

Ley Pendleton

PA

An 1883 federal law that established the Civil Service Commission and required government jobs to be awarded based on merit through competitive examinations rather than political connections.

"say:" pronunciation guide (stressed syllable in CAPS) and a per-term visual anchor support newcomer English learners. Spanish term + full bilingual Frayer models are in the unit vocabulary set.

Let's Work One Together

Reason + cost analysis

MODEL PROMPT: Explain why a poor immigrant might SUPPORT a corrupt political machine.

WORKED EXAMPLE (teacher models this aloud)

REASON: Tweed's machine gave new arrivals jobs, coal, and food when no one else would. → COST: That help was paid for with graft, rigged contracts, and higher taxes — an estimated $200 million stolen.

THINK ALOUD

Watch how I hold two true things at once: the machine genuinely helped people AND it robbed the city. A strong answer refuses to flatten that into "machines were just bad."

→ Now you try: You weigh one more machine benefit against its cost in the activity.

Machine Politics: Trade-Off Analysis

Small groups

10 min

YOUR TASK

Using “The Bosses of the Senate” cartoon, list what a city political machine GAVE residents and what it TOOK. Then decide: why would voters keep electing a corrupt machine? Reach a group consensus and be ready to defend it.

Joseph Keppler, 1889 Library of Congress

DELIVERABLE

Give/Take T-chart plus a one-sentence group claim.

SUPPORT OPTIONS

SUPPORT OPTION: provide 3 give/take examples to sort. EXTENSION: connect to a modern trade-off between services and accountability.

Companion printable: Cornell Notes — US.04: Gilded Age Politics (Machines, Scandals & Civil Service Reform)

TCAP-Style Question

DOK 2

EOC PRACTICE

How does Bryce's description of the political 'Boss' help explain why the Pendleton Civil Service Reform Act was needed?

- A Both reveal a spoils system in which offices and contracts were handed out for political loyalty, which reformers tried to end.
- B Both praise the political machines as honest and efficient.
- C Both argue that government jobs should be sold to the highest bidder.
- D Both were written after the spoils system ended.

ANSWER FIRST: students commit — then click / advance to reveal the correct answer and explanation.

TCAP-Style Question

✓ ANSWER KEY

How does Bryce's description of the political 'Boss' help explain why the Pendleton Civil Service Reform Act was needed?

- A Both reveal a spoils system in which offices and contracts were handed out for political loyalty, which reformers tried to end. ✓
- B Both praise the political machines as honest and efficient.
- C Both argue that government jobs should be sold to the highest bidder.
- D Both were written after the spoils system ended.

Correct answer: A. Why: Bryce's analysis describes the 'spoils system'—bosses using public offices, contracts, and money to reward loyalty. The Pendleton Act attacked exactly this by requiring competitive exams for federal jobs. The outside observer's description and the reform law corroborate each other: machine...

What You Need to Know for TCAP

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Political Machines and Boss Tweed
- Major Scandals and the Spoils System
- Civil Service Reform
- Economic Disparity

★ EXTENSION DOK 3 · SSP.04 Argumentation

Argue: were political machines a net good or a net harm for new immigrants? Take a position and weigh services against costs with evidence.

EXIT TICKET

DOK 2

Why might poor city residents SUPPORT a corrupt political machine? Give one reason and one cost of that support.

TEACHER DECISION BAND PROGRESS CHECK → identify barrier → select support → reteach → recheck → extend
SCAFFOLD FADING Guided → Light → independent as evidence grows; required IEP/504 supports do not fade unless the authorized team changes them.

STANDARD

US.05

Inventions & Innovations of Business Leaders & Entrepreneurs

SOCIAL STUDIES PRACTICES

SSP.01

Collect sources

SSP.02

Examine a source

SSP.05

Historical awareness

TN ACADEMIC STANDARD

Describe the changes in American life that resulted from the inventions and innovations of business leaders and entrepreneurs of the period, including: Alexander Graham Bell, Henry Bessemer, Andrew Carnegie, Thomas Edison, J.P. Morgan, John D. Rockefeller, Nikola Tesla, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Madam C.J. Walker, George Washington Carver.

I CAN

I can describe the changes in American life that resulted from the inventions and innovations of business leaders and entrepreneurs of the period, including Alexander Graham Bell, Andrew Carnegie, Thomas Edison, John D. Rockefeller, Madam C.J. Walker, and George Washington Carver.

Do You Remember?

Before we start, retrieve what we have already learned. Answer from memory first — no notes.

1

US.04 What was a political machine, and how did bosses like Tweed stay in power?

2

US.04 What problem did the Pendleton Act fix?

Warm-Up — Quick Recall

DOK 1

LOW STAKES

Everyone can answer this. Thumbs / whiteboards — no notes.

Owning every step from raw material to finished product is called ____ integration.

✓ ANSWER

Vertical integration (Carnegie in steel).

COMMIT FIRST: have everyone answer before the reveal — this is the DOK 1 floor; the graded check later in this lesson moves up to DOK 2–3.

Think About It

One man controlled 90% of all the oil refined in the United States.

DISCUSS

TIMING: Turn & Talk 60 sec → cold-call 2 pairs

Is it possible to be both a "robber baron" and a "captain of industry" at the same time? Hold that question as we meet the people who built modern America.

Technological Innovations

- The late 19th century saw transformative inventions that reshaped American life.
- Alexander Graham Bell's telephone (1876) revolutionized communication.
- Thomas Edison's electrical systems and light bulb brought power to homes and factories.
- Nikola Tesla's alternating current system enabled long-distance electrical transmission.
- Henry Bessemer's steel process made skyscrapers and modern infrastructure possible.

SENTENCE FRAME · LANGUAGE SUPPORT

_____ used _____ integration to dominate the _____ industry.

Industrial Titans

- Andrew Carnegie built a steel empire through vertical integration, controlling every step from iron mines to finished products.
- John D. Rockefeller's Standard Oil pioneered horizontal integration, buying out competitors to dominate the oil industry.
- J.P. Morgan wielded enormous financial power, reorganizing railroads and creating U.S. Steel.
- Cornelius Vanderbilt consolidated railroad networks, enabling national commerce.

★ TENNESSEE CONNECTION

Cornelius Vanderbilt's $1 million gift founded Vanderbilt University in Nashville (1873), tying the era's industrial fortunes directly to Tennessee.

Marceau, New York (photographer), c. 1913 Library of Congress

African American Entrepreneurs

- Despite facing discrimination, African American entrepreneurs made significant contributions.
- Madam C.J. Walker became America's first female self-made millionaire through her hair care products, employing thousands of Black women.
- George Washington Carver's agricultural research at Tuskegee Institute developed hundreds of products from peanuts and sweet potatoes, helping diversify Southern agriculture.

Key Figures

Andrew Carnegie

Steel Manufacturer

- Built Carnegie Steel Company into the largest steel producer in the world
- Pioneered vertical integration in American industry

STRATEGY Vertical integration

John D. Rockefeller

Oil Industry Executive

- Founded Standard Oil, controlling 90% of U.S. oil refining
- Pioneered the trust as a form of business organization

STRATEGY Trust / monopoly

Thomas Edison

Inventor

- Invented the practical incandescent light bulb
- Created the first industrial research laboratory

STRATEGY Invention → industry

Cornelius Vanderbilt

Shipping Magnate

- Built the largest fortune in American history to that time
- Created the New York Central Railroad system

STRATEGY Railroad consolidation

J.P. Morgan

Banker

- Created J.P. Morgan & Co., the most powerful bank in America
- Organized U.S. Steel, the first billion-dollar corporation

STRATEGY Finance capitalism

The Gospel of Wealth

Argumentation

Andrew Carnegie • 1889

Udo J. Keppler, 1904 Library of Congress

"This, then, is held to be the duty of the man of Wealth: First, to set an example of modest, unostentatious living, shunning display or extravagance; to provide moderately for the legitimate wants of those dependent upon him; and after doing so to consider all surplus revenues which come to him simply as trust funds... the man of wealth thus becoming the mere agent and trustee for his poorer brethren."

CONTEXT

Andrew Carnegie was the most famous example of a 'rags to riches' story in Gilded Age America. An immigrant from Scotland who started as a factory bobbin boy, Carnegie built the largest steel company in the world through relentless efficiency, brutal labor practices, and shrewd business dealings. By the late 1880s, he was worth hundreds of millions of dollars. In 'The Gospel of Wealth' (1889), Carnegie argued that wealthy men had a duty to use their fortunes to benefit society — a philosophy that justified both extreme wealth concentration and a paternalistic approach to charity. Carnegie himself donated over $350 million to libraries.

ANALYZE

A wealthy 1890s steel magnate funds free public libraries across the country instead of leaving his entire fortune to his heirs. Whose philosophy does this best reflect, and why?

SOURCE IT FIRST	WHO made it?	WHEN?	WHY does it matter?
SSP.02 • before you interpret	Andrew Carnegie — steel magnate and one of the wealthiest men in America.	1889 (Gilded Age).	A titan of industry is defining his own duty to society — read it as self-justification and as a genuine argument about wealth.

Source: Carnegie Corporation of New York

Word Wall

Robber Barons/Captains of Industry

Barones Ladrones/Capitanes de Industria

RB

Wealthy industrialists of the late 1800s who built massive business empires. Critics called them "robber barons" for ruthless practices; supporters called them "captains of industry" for economic growth.

Horizontal Integration

Integración Horizontal

HI

A business strategy where a company buys out competitors in the same industry to reduce competition and control prices, as practiced by John D. Rockefeller in oil.

Trust

Trust (Fideicomiso)

T

A legal arrangement where stockholders in several companies transferred their shares to a single board of trustees, creating a monopoly while appearing to remain separate companies.

Vertical Integration

Integración Vertical

say: VUR-tih-kul in-teh-GRAY-shun

VI

A business strategy where a company controls all stages of production, from raw materials to finished product, as practiced by Andrew Carnegie in the steel industry.

Monopoly

Monopolio

say: muh-NOP-uh-lee

M

Complete control of a product or service by a single company, eliminating competition and allowing the company to set prices.

Bessemer Process

Proceso Bessemer

B
P

An efficient method of making steel by blowing air through molten iron, developed by Henry Bessemer, that made mass production of steel possible and revolutionized construction and manufacturing.

"say:" pronunciation guide (stressed syllable in CAPS) and a per-term visual anchor support newcomer English learners. Spanish term + full bilingual Frayer models are in the unit vocabulary set.

Let's Work One Together

Claim + evidence (argument)

MODEL PROMPT: Was Rockefeller a "robber baron" or a "captain of industry"? Stake a claim and cite evidence.

WORKED EXAMPLE (teacher models this aloud)

CLAIM: Rockefeller was a captain of industry. → EVIDENCE: Standard Oil's efficiency cut kerosene prices for ordinary families, and he later gave away over $500 million. → COUNTER I must answer: he also crushed competitors and squeezed railroads for secret rebates.

THINK ALOUD

See the structure: Claim → Evidence → and I name the strongest counter-argument so I can answer it. An argument that ignores the other side is weak.

→ Now you try: You take a position on a second titan and back it with one piece of evidence in the activity.

Robber Baron or Captain of Industry?

Pairs (assigned positions)

12 min

YOUR TASK

Using the Carnegie portrait and the Standard Oil “Next!” cartoon, build the strongest case for ONE label — “robber baron” OR “captain of industry” — for a Gilded Age titan. Cite at least two specific actions as evidence.

Marceau, New York (photographer), c. 1913 Library of Congress

DELIVERABLE

A position card with claim + two pieces of evidence.

SUPPORT OPTIONS

SUPPORT OPTION: evidence bank provided. EXTENSION: argue the opposite label, then decide which case is stronger.

Companion printable: Cornell Notes — US.05: Inventions & Innovators of the Industrial Age

TCAP-Style Question

DOK 2

EOC PRACTICE

A wealthy 1890s steel magnate funds free public libraries across the country instead of leaving his entire fortune to his heirs. Whose philosophy does this best reflect, and why?

- A Carnegie's philosophy, because it displays wealth publicly to impress others.
- B The opposite of Carnegie's view, because he insisted fortunes pass to children.
- C The opposite of Carnegie's view, because he opposed all charitable giving.
- D Carnegie's "Gospel of Wealth," because surplus wealth is used as a trust to benefit society.

ANSWER FIRST: students commit — then click / advance to reveal the correct answer and explanation.

TCAP-Style Question

✓ ANSWER KEY

A wealthy 1890s steel magnate funds free public libraries across the country instead of leaving his entire fortune to his heirs. Whose philosophy does this best reflect, and why?

- A Carnegie's philosophy, because it displays wealth publicly to impress others.
- B The opposite of Carnegie's view, because he insisted fortunes pass to children.
- C The opposite of Carnegie's view, because he opposed all charitable giving.
- D Carnegie's "Gospel of Wealth," because surplus wealth is used as a trust to benefit society.

Correct answer: D. Why: DOK 2: Students apply the source to a new case. Carnegie argued the rich should live modestly and administer surplus wealth "as trust funds" for the public good — funding libraries is a textbook example of his Gospel of Wealth.

What You Need to Know for TCAP

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Technological Innovations
- Industrial Titans
- African American Entrepreneurs

★ EXTENSION DOK 3 · SSP.04 Argumentation

Evaluate the “Gospel of Wealth”: does large-scale philanthropy justify how the fortune was earned? Defend your judgment with evidence.

EXIT TICKET

DOK 3

Was a figure like Rockefeller a “robber baron” or a “captain of industry”? Take a position and cite ONE piece of evidence.

TEACHER DECISION BAND PROGRESS CHECK → identify barrier → select support → reteach → recheck → extend
SCAFFOLD FADING Guided → Light → independent as evidence grows; required IEP/504 supports do not fade unless the authorized team changes them.

STANDARD

US.06

Industrial Centers and Urbanization

SOCIAL STUDIES PRACTICES

SSP.01

Collect sources

SSP.05

Historical awareness

SSP.06

Geographic awareness

TN ACADEMIC STANDARD

Locate the following major industrial centers, and describe how industrialization influenced the movement of people from rural to urban areas: Boston, Chicago, New York City, Pittsburgh, San Francisco.

I CAN

I can locate major industrial centers and describe how industrialization influenced the movement of people from rural to urban areas.

Do You Remember?

Before we start, retrieve what we have already learned. Answer from memory first — no notes.

1

US.05 Explain vertical vs. horizontal integration in one sentence each.

2

US.05 What was Carnegie's "Gospel of Wealth"?

Warm-Up — Quick Recall

DOK 1

LOW STAKES

Everyone can answer this. Thumbs / whiteboards — no notes.

What word means the fast growth of cities as people move in?

✓ ANSWER

Urbanization.

COMMIT FIRST: have everyone answer before the reveal — this is the DOK 1 floor; the graded check later in this lesson moves up to DOK 2–3.

Think About It

Chicago went from 30,000 people to over 1,000,000 in just 40 years.

DISCUSS

TIMING: Turn & Talk 60 sec → cold-call 2 pairs

What does a city need to grow that fast — and what problems would explode along with the population? Brainstorm three of each.

Major Industrial Centers

- Industrialization concentrated in cities with geographic advantages.
- Pittsburgh became the steel capital due to access to coal, iron ore, and rivers.
- Chicago emerged as a railroad hub and meatpacking center.
- New York City dominated finance and trade through its port.
- Boston led in textiles and manufacturing.
- San Francisco served as the gateway to Pacific trade and western

SENTENCE FRAME • LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Cities grew rapidly because _____, which created the problem of _____.

Henry Gannett / U.S. Census Office, 1898 Library of Congress

TEACHER CUE Chunk → cold-call → confirm before advancing.

Rural-to-Urban Migration

- Industrialization drew millions from farms to cities seeking factory jobs.
- The promise of wages attracted both native-born Americans and immigrants.
- Cities grew explosively—Chicago's population increased from 30,000 in 1850 to over 1 million by 1890.
- This rapid growth created overcrowded tenements, inadequate sanitation, and new social challenges.

Geographic Factors in Industrial Location

- Industries located based on access to raw materials, transportation, markets, and labor.
- Steel mills clustered near coal and iron deposits.
- Textile mills used water power and later concentrated near ports for cotton imports.
- Meatpacking centered in Chicago due to railroad connections to cattle ranges and eastern markets.
- These patterns shaped regional development for generations.

Henry Gannett / U.S. Census Office, 1898 Library of Congress

Key Figures

Samuel Gompers

Labor Union Leader · Cigar Maker

- Founded the American Federation of Labor (AFL)
- Served as AFL President for 37 years
- Pioneered "bread and butter" unionism focusing on wages and hours

STRATEGY Skilled-craft unionism (AFL)

Eugene V. Debs

Labor Organizer · Socialist Leader

- Founded the American Railway Union
- Led the Pullman Strike of 1894
- Co-founded the Industrial Workers of the World (IWW)

STRATEGY Industrial unionism / socialism

How the Other Half Lives

Contextualization

Jacob Riis • 1890

Jacob A. Riis, 1889 Library of Congress

"In the tenements all the influences make for evil; because they are the hot-beds of the epidemics that carry death to rich and poor alike; the nurseries of pauperism and crime that fill our jails and police courts; that throw off a scum of forty thousand human wrecks to the island asylums and workhouses year by year."

CONTEXT

By 1890, millions of immigrants — primarily from Southern and Eastern Europe — had poured into American cities to work in factories, mines, and mills. In cities like New York, Chicago, and Pittsburgh, the poor were crowded into tenement buildings: dark, airless apartment buildings with shared toilets, no running water, and extreme overcrowding. Jacob Riis, a Danish immigrant himself who had experienced poverty firsthand, used the new technology of flash photography to document conditions in New York's Lower East Side slums. 'How the Other Half Lives' shocked middle-class readers and helped spark the progressive reform movement.

ANALYZE

How does Jacob Riis characterize living conditions in tenements?

SOURCE IT FIRST	WHO made it?	WHEN?	WHY does it matter?
SSP.02 • before you interpret	Jacob Riis, reformer-photographer (How the Other Half Lives).	1890.	Riis wanted to shock readers into reform — weigh that purpose against the image.

Source: Library of Congress

Word Wall

Urbanization

Urbanización

say: ur-bun-ih-ZAY-shun

U

The rapid growth of cities due to industrialization and mass migration, transforming America from a predominantly rural to urban society.

Populism

Populismo

P

A political movement in the 1890s representing farmers and workers who sought government regulation of railroads, graduated income tax, and the free coinage of silver to combat economic inequality.

Tenement

Vivienda de Vecindad

say: TEN-uh-ment

T

A crowded, often unsafe urban apartment building where many poor and immigrant families lived during rapid industrial-era city growth.

Granger Movement

Movimiento Granger

G
M

A farmers' organization founded in 1867 that advocated for railroad regulation and fought against monopolistic practices that harmed farmers through high shipping rates.

Interstate Commerce Act

Ley de Comercio Interestatal

IC

An 1887 federal law that created the Interstate Commerce Commission to regulate railroad rates and practices, representing the first federal regulatory agency.

Industrialization

Industrialización

I

The shift from an economy based on farming and handcraft to one based on large factories, machines, and mass production.

"say:" pronunciation guide (stressed syllable in CAPS) and a per-term visual anchor support newcomer English learners. Spanish term + full bilingual Frayer models are in the unit vocabulary set.

Let's Work One Together

Cause → problem (urbanization)

MODEL PROMPT: Connect ONE cause of rapid city growth to ONE problem it created.

WORKED EXAMPLE (teacher models this aloud)

CAUSE: Factory jobs pulled rural Americans and immigrants into cities like Chicago. → PROBLEM: Housing could not keep up, so families crowded into unsafe tenements with no clean water.

THINK ALOUD

Watch me link, not list: I do not just name "overcrowding" — I show the cause that produced it. The arrow is the thinking.

→ Now you try: You build two more cause→problem links in the activity.

US.06 · STUDENT ACTIVITY

Mapping the Industrial City

Pairs

10 min

YOUR TASK

Using the 1890 wage-earners and foreign-born maps, identify the regions where industry and immigration concentrated. Predict THREE problems a city would face when its population multiplies in 40 years, and THREE things it needs to grow.

Henry Gannett / U.S. Census Office, 1898 Library of Congress

DELIVERABLE

Map-annotation chart: needs vs. problems.

SUPPORT OPTIONS

SUPPORT OPTION: labeled map regions provided. EXTENSION: explain the correlation between manufacturing density and foreign-born population.

Companion printable: Cornell Notes — US.06: Industrialization & Urbanization

TCAP-Style Question

DOK 2

EOC PRACTICE

What does this folk saying reveal about the immigrant experience in America?

- A Immigrants found immediate wealth and success.
- B Reality fell far short of expectations, and immigrants faced hard labor.
- C American cities were well-developed and welcoming.
- D Immigrants were given skilled professional jobs.

ANSWER FIRST: students commit — then click / advance to reveal the correct answer and explanation.

TCAP-Style Question

✓ ANSWER KEY

What does this folk saying reveal about the immigrant experience in America?

- A Immigrants found immediate wealth and success.
- B Reality fell far short of expectations, and immigrants faced hard labor. ✓
- C American cities were well-developed and welcoming.
- D Immigrants were given skilled professional jobs.

Correct answer: B. Why: The letter contrasts the dream of "streets paved with gold" with the reality of unpaved streets that immigrants themselves "were expected to pave," highlighting difficult conditions.

What You Need to Know for TCAP

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Major Industrial Centers
- Rural-to-Urban Migration
- Geographic Factors in Industrial Location

★ EXTENSION DOK 3 · SSP.04 Argumentation

Argue: who bore the greatest cost of rapid urbanization — immigrants, workers, or city governments? Defend with TWO pieces of evidence.

EXIT TICKET

DOK 2

Explain ONE cause of rapid urbanization
AND ONE problem it created in cities.

TEACHER DECISION BAND PROGRESS CHECK → identify barrier → select support → reteach → recheck → extend
SCAFFOLD FADING Guided → Light → independent as evidence grows; required IEP/504 supports do not fade unless the authorized team changes them.

STANDARD

US.07

Immigration: Old vs. New Immigrants

SOCIAL STUDIES PRACTICES

SSP.01

Collect sources

SSP.02

Examine a source

SSP.03

Synthesize sources

SSP.04

Build an argument

SSP.05

Historical awareness

SSP.06

Geographic awareness

TN ACADEMIC STANDARD

Describe the differences between "old" and "new" immigrants, analyze the assimilation process for "new" immigrants, and determine the impacts of increased migration on American society, including: Angel Island, Ellis Island, Push and pull factors, Ethnic clusters, Jane Addams, Competition for jobs, Rise of nativism, Jacob Riis, Chinese Exclusion Act and Gentleman's Agreement.

I CAN

I can describe the differences between "old" and "new" immigrants; explain entry points (Ellis Island and Angel Island), push and pull factors, and the formation of ethnic clusters; and analyze nativism and restrictions such as the Chinese Exclusion Act and the Gentlemen's Agreement on American society.

Do You Remember?

Before we start, retrieve what we have already learned. Answer from memory first — no notes.

1

US.06 Why did cities grow so fast during industrialization?

2

US.06 What was a tenement?

Warm-Up — Quick Recall

DOK 1

LOW STAKES

Everyone can answer this. Thumbs / whiteboards — no notes.

TRUE or FALSE: “New” immigrants (1880–1920) came mostly from southern & eastern Europe.

✓ ANSWER

TRUE — plus Asia; “old” immigrants came earlier from N./W. Europe.

COMMIT FIRST: have everyone answer before the reveal — this is the DOK 1 floor; the graded check later in this lesson moves up to DOK 2–3.

Think About It

Between 1880 and 1920, more than 20 million immigrants arrived in the United States.

DISCUSS

TIMING: Turn & Talk 60 sec → cold-call 2 pairs

Why do people leave everything behind to start over in a new country? And why might native-born Americans react with fear? We will see both sides today.

Old and New Immigrants

- "Old" immigrants (pre-1880) came primarily from Northern and Western Europe—Britain, Ireland, Germany, Scandinavia.
- They often spoke English or related languages and were predominantly Protestant.
- "New" immigrants (1880-1920) came from Southern and Eastern Europe—Italy, Poland, Russia, Greece—as well as Asia.
- They brought different languages, religions (Catholic, Orthodox, Jewish), and customs that many Americans viewed with suspicion.

SENTENCE FRAME • LANGUAGE SUPPORT

"New" immigrants came to the U.S. because _____, but some native-born Americans reacted with _____.

Detroit Publishing Company, c. 1910–1920 Library of Congress

TEACHER CUE Chunk → cold-call → confirm before advancing.

Entry Points and the Assimilation Process

- Ellis Island in New York Harbor processed millions of European immigrants, while Angel Island in San Francisco served Asian immigrants with far more restrictive procedures.
- New immigrants faced difficult assimilation: language barriers, discrimination, and unfamiliar customs.
- Jane Addams's Hull House in Chicago pioneered settlement houses that helped immigrants learn English, navigate American systems, and maintain cultural connections.

Push and Pull Factors

- Push factors drove people from their homelands: religious persecution (especially of Jews in Russia), poverty, political upheaval, and lack of opportunity.
- Pull factors attracted them to America: economic opportunity, religious freedom, land availability, and established immigrant communities.
- Letters from successful immigrants encouraged others to follow.

Nativism and Restriction

- The rise of nativism—hostility toward immigrants—led to restrictive legislation.
- The Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882 banned Chinese immigration for ten years (repeatedly renewed until 1943).
- The Gentleman's Agreement of 1907 limited Japanese immigration.
- Jacob Riis's photographs and writings, including "How the Other Half Lives," exposed immigrant living conditions, prompting both sympathy and nativist fears.

Key Figure

Jane Addams

Social Worker · Settlement House Founder

- Co-founded Hull House, the most influential settlement house in America
- First American woman to win the Nobel Peace Prize (1931)
- Founded the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom

STRATEGY Settlement-house reform

Chinese Exclusion Act

Close Reading

U.S. Congress • May 6, 1882 (22 Stat. 58)

"The coming of Chinese laborers to this country endangers the good order of certain localities within the territory thereof: Therefore... the coming of Chinese laborers to the United States be, and the same is hereby, suspended; and during such suspension it shall not be lawful for any Chinese laborer to come, or having so come after the expiration of said ninety days, to remain within the United States."

CONTEXT

Chinese immigrants had played an essential role in building the transcontinental railroad and developing the American West, yet they faced intense racial hostility from white workers and politicians. Anti-Chinese riots broke out in cities across the West, and nativist groups pressured Congress to restrict Chinese immigration. The Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882 was the first major federal law to restrict immigration based on race and nationality, banning Chinese laborers from entering the country and barring Chinese immigrants from ever becoming U.S. citizens. It would not be fully repealed until 1943.

ANALYZE

What was the stated justification for the Chinese Exclusion Act?

SOURCE IT FIRST	WHO made it?	WHEN?	WHY does it matter?
SSP.02 • before you interpret	U.S. Congress (the Chinese Exclusion Act).	1882.	The first U.S. law to bar an entire nationality — ask whose fears it answered.

Source: National Archives

Word Wall

Old Immigrants

Viejos Inmigrantes

OI

Immigrants who came to the United States primarily from Northern and Western Europe (England, Ireland, Germany, Scandinavia) before 1880, often Protestant and more easily assimilated.

Ellis Island

Isla Ellis

EI

The primary immigration processing station in New York Harbor from 1892 to 1954, where over 12 million immigrants entered the United States, primarily from Europe.

Push-Pull Factors

Factores de Empuje y Atracción

PF

Push factors (poverty, persecution, lack of opportunity) drove people to leave their homelands, while pull factors (jobs, freedom, land) attracted them to America.

New Immigrants

Nuevos Inmigrantes

NI

Immigrants who came to the United States primarily from Southern and Eastern Europe (Italy, Poland, Russia) and Asia after 1880, often Catholic, Jewish, or Orthodox Christian, facing greater discrimination.

Angel Island

Isla Ángel

AI

The immigration station in San Francisco Bay from 1910 to 1940 that primarily processed Asian immigrants, especially Chinese, who faced lengthy detentions and harsh interrogations.

Ethnic Clusters

Grupos Étnicos

EC

Neighborhoods where immigrants from the same country or region settled together, maintaining their language, culture, and traditions while adapting to American life.

"say:" pronunciation guide (stressed syllable in CAPS) and a per-term visual anchor support newcomer English learners. Spanish term + full bilingual Frayer models are in the unit vocabulary set.

Let's Work One Together

Compare across perspectives

MODEL PROMPT: Compare a "new" immigrant's reason to come with a native-born reason to fear them.

WORKED EXAMPLE (teacher models this aloud)

IMMIGRANT PUSH: Persecution and poverty in southern/eastern Europe and Asia drove millions to leave. → NATIVIST REACTION: Native-born workers feared job competition and prejudice, producing laws like the Chinese Exclusion Act (1882).

THINK ALOUD

Notice I give each side its own evidence and treat both as real historical viewpoints — historical empathy means I explain the fear without excusing it.

→ Now you try: You compare one more push factor with one nativist reaction in the activity.

Two Sides of Immigration

Pairs → Whole class

12 min

YOUR TASK

Examine Jacob Riis's "Five Cents a Spot" photograph and the Ellis Island inspection-room image. Write one sentence from the perspective of a new immigrant and one from a nativist worried about change. Then explain what Riis wanted viewers to FEEL and DO.

Jacob A. Riis, 1889 Library of Congress

DELIVERABLE

Two perspective sentences + a photographer's-purpose statement.

SUPPORT OPTIONS

SUPPORT OPTION: sentence stems for both perspectives. EXTENSION: evaluate whether a staged photo is reliable evidence.

Companion printable: Cornell Notes — US.07: Immigration & Urbanization

TCAP-Style Question

DOK 2

EOC PRACTICE

According to Jane Addams, what was the philosophy behind Hull-House?

- A That different social classes depend on and can help each other.
- B That wealthy people should live separately from immigrants.
- C That immigrants should return to their home countries.
- D That government should provide all social services.

ANSWER FIRST: students commit — then click / advance to reveal the correct answer and explanation.

TCAP-Style Question

✓ ANSWER KEY

According to Jane Addams, what was the philosophy behind Hull-House?

A That different social classes depend on and can help each other. ✓

B That wealthy people should live separately from immigrants.

C That immigrants should return to their home countries.

D That government should provide all social services.

Correct answer: A. Why: Addams states Hull-House operated on "the theory that the dependence of classes on each other is reciprocal," emphasizing mutual benefit.

What You Need to Know for TCAP

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Old and New Immigrants
- Entry Points and the Assimilation Process
- Push and Pull Factors
- Nativism and Restriction

★ EXTENSION DOK 3 · SSP.04 Argumentation

Construct an argument: was the Chinese Exclusion Act an economic policy or a racial one? Use specific evidence to defend your claim.

EXIT TICKET

DOK 3

Compare a PUSH factor for a “new” immigrant with a reason native-born Americans reacted with nativism. Which surprises you more and why?

TEACHER DECISION BAND PROGRESS CHECK → identify barrier → select support → reteach → recheck → extend
SCAFFOLD FADING Guided → Light → independent as evidence grows; required IEP/504 supports do not fade unless the authorized team changes them.

Whose story the industrial era told — and who paid its costs

History Hack-authored synthesis grounded in this unit's sourced record — read across the standards, not around them.

American Indian Nations

Westward expansion and the railroad (US.01) crossed treaty lands; reservation, assimilation, boarding-school, and Dawes Act policy (US.02) cut tribal holdings from 138 to 48 million acres by 1934.

Chinese Laborers

Chinese workers built the most dangerous stretches of the Central Pacific (US.01) yet faced wage discrimination and, in 1882, the first federal law to bar a nationality — the Chinese Exclusion Act (US.07).

African Americans

The Compromise of 1877 ended Reconstruction's protections (US.03); the Exodusters fled to Kansas, and Madam C.J. Walker and George Washington Carver (US.05) built enterprise under Jim Crow.

New Immigrants & Reformers

Southern and Eastern European and Asian arrivals (US.07) met nativism and tenement poverty; reformers like Jane Addams at Hull-House organized mutual aid across classes.

Verified public-domain images and named Key-Figure entries for these histories are a pending content addition.

Unit 1 Complete

The Rise of Industrialization (1877-1900) — from the open frontier to the crowded city: westward expansion, the Gilded Age, and a nation remade by immigration.

Revisit your unit hook: What forces moved a nation off the land and into the factory? You can now answer with evidence — from the Homestead Act to the Chinese Exclusion Act.

Next: Unit 2 — Progressivism & American Imperialism

Matthews, Northrup & Co's Official Railroad Map of the United States, Dominion of Canada and Mexico

This is the full-color version of the black-and-white map on the workbook Geographer's Lens page for US.01. Source: Matthews, Northrup & Co. Matthews, Northrup & Co's Official Railroad Map of the United States, Dominion of Canada and Mexico Perfected to Date from Latest Authentic Sources. Buffalo, 1890. Map. Library of Congress Geography and Map Division, call number G3701.P3 1890 .M3. <https://www.loc.gov/item/gm71000843/>. Public Domain — No Known Restrictions on Publication

GEOGRAPHER'S LENS • US.06 — COLOR MAP FOR PROJECTION

Foreign Born Population, by States and Territories: 1890

This is the full-color version of the black-and-white map on the workbook Geographer's Lens page for US.06. Source: Gannett, Henry, and U.S. Census Office. "Foreign Born Population, by States and Territories: 1890." In Statistical Atlas of the United States, Based upon the Results of the Eleventh Census. Washington, DC: U.S. Census Office, 1898. Library of Congress Geography and Map Division, call number G1201.G1 U53 1898. <https://www.loc.gov/resource/g3701gm.gct00010/?sp=35>. Public Domain — U.S. Government Work