

Which Organizer, When?

Unit 9 · The Civil Rights Movement (1954–1975) · US.78–US.82

Match the task to the tool — then teach the why.

Students don't need more worksheets — they need the right thinking tool for the task in front of them. Find the verb in the assignment, then reach for the organizer built for that kind of thinking.

45-minute class? Plan one deep organizer (~20 min) or two quick ones (~10 min each), plus warm-up & discussion. Every page prints its own time estimate.

Venn Diagram — Compare Two

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

⌚ 10-15 min

Compare 2 Things

DOK 2 • Comparison

WHEN • WHY Use when a task asks students to compare two things — the overlap makes shared traits visible and forces precise differences. Identifying similarities & differences is the highest-yield strategy for learning gains (Marzano).

In each circle, write what is unique to that topic. In the middle, write what they share.

Topic A: _____

Topic B: _____

MAKE IT WORK FOR EVERY STUDENT UDL • MTSS

SCAFFOLD

Give a word bank and a sentence starter: "Both ____ and ____ are ____." Let pairs fill the BOTH region first.

EXTEND

Rank the differences: which one matters most, and why? Defend it in one sentence of evidence.

SHOW IT YOUR WAY

Students may write, say (record), draw icons, or build the circles with sticky notes.

Compare 3

DOK 2-3 • Comparison

WHEN • WHY Use when a task asks students to compare three things at once — the overlaps expose what is shared by two, what is shared by all three, and what stays unique. Identifying similarities & differences is the highest-yield strategy for learning gains (Marzano).

Name each topic in the key, then fill the circles: unique traits in the single lobes, shared traits where they overlap.

○ Topic A: _____ ○ Topic B: _____ ○ Topic C: _____

SCAFFOLD

Give a word bank and start with the ALL 3 center: "All three share ____." Let pairs fill one lobe at a time.

EXTEND

Argue which topic is the "odd one out" and defend it with one trait from its unique lobe.

SHOW IT YOUR WAY

Students may write, say (record), draw icons, or build the circles with sticky notes.

Write your two topics in the label bands below. In each column, list what is true of that topic on points you choose — keep the lines across from each other about the same point. Then name the single biggest difference.

Name each option across the top and each criterion down the side. Fill every box with what that option shows for that criterion. Then name the pattern you see.

WHEN · WHY Use when a task asks what led to an event and what followed from it — separating causes from effects builds reasoning about change over time. Analyzing cause & effect is a core TN Social Studies Practice (SSP.05).

List what led to the event on the left, then what followed from it on the right. Arrows show the flow: causes → event → effects.

Write the term in the center oval. Then fill each corner: your own definition, key characteristics, real examples, and non-examples.

Add a sentence using the term correctly, then explain why one non-example does not fit.

Students may write, say (record), draw an icon for each example, or build the quadrants with sticky notes.

DOK 3 • Sourcing

WHEN • WHY Use to interrogate a primary source so students read like historians — questioning context, audience, point of view, and purpose instead of taking it at face value. Sourcing and contextualizing evidence is a core disciplinary practice (TN Social Studies Practices).

Cite the source, then interrogate it — read it like a historian, one H-I-P-P-O question at a time.

DOK 3 • Connect

WHEN • WHY History sticks when it comes home. This organizer links a national event to a Tennessee person, place, or law — then asks students to argue why the local story matters. Relevance and personal connection drive engagement and retention (UDL 3.0).

Zoom in: link the national story to Tennessee — then say why the local story matters.

T-Chart • Two Sides

★ Tennessee Connection

DOK 2-3 • Compare

WHEN • WHY A two-column chart sets advocates and opponents side by side, so students see not just who each was but how their actions collided and moved history. Identifying similarities & differences is Marzano's #1 strategy; SSP.06 examine.

On each card, write what that person did and the approach they used — the faint role notes are starters. Then answer the band below: how did the two sides confront and change each other?

ADVOCATES

working to advance civil rights

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

nonviolence; the Montgomery Bus Boycott; the SCLC; "I Have a Dream"

Rosa Parks

sparked the Montgomery Bus Boycott — a symbol of quiet dignity

Thurgood Marshall

NAACP counsel; argued Brown; first Black Supreme Court Justice

Malcolm X

Black nationalism, then a broader human-rights view after Mecca

OPPONENTS

working to resist or delay them

Bull Connor

Birmingham official; turned fire hoses &amp; dogs on peaceful protesters — it backfired

Orval Faubus

Arkansas governor; used the National Guard to block the Little Rock Nine

Strom Thurmond

led the 1948 "Dixiecrat" revolt; filibustered the 1957 Civil Rights Act 24+ hours

How did advocates and opponents coincide, confront, and challenge each other?

Advocates paired courtroom wins (Marshall) with mass protest (King) · and violent resistance, shown on TV, often won the movement more public sympathy ★ Tennessee Connection. The Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee, trained civil rights leaders — including Rosa Parks and Dr. King — in the strategies of nonviolent resistance.

The Movement, Step by Step

WHEN • WHY A timeline shows how one victory built on the last — boycott to sit-in to march — and puts Tennessee's Clinton, Nashville, and Fayette County events in the national story. Chronological reasoning is TN Social Studies Practice SSP.05.

Follow the movement from top (earliest) to bottom (latest). On each line, write what happened and why it mattered — the faint notes are starters. Three of these six events happened right here in Tennessee.

▲ EARLIEST

THE STRUGGLE TO SECURE CIVIL RIGHTS
