

U.S. HISTORY HACK™

Unit Assessment Book

Unit 1 — The Rise of Industrialization (1877–1900) • Teacher Edition

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

Three parts: (1) Formative Checkpoints — a short check per standard for progress monitoring (MTSS); (2) Unit Summative — two parallel forms (A and B) for pre/post or retakes; (3) Teacher Answer Key + Item Analysis + Reteach.

All items are pulled from the History Hack question bank. Classroom-formative • pre-field-test (pre-calibration) — not a secure TCAP form. First administration is what calibrates these items.

Administering these forms is what generates the response data to CALIBRATE the pre-calibrated items — the first cycle of use closes the loop.

Keys and reteach live in this teacher book only — reproduce the student sections (formative + Form A/B) without the key section.

Contents

Part 1 — Formative Checkpoints (by standard)

A quick DOK-balanced check for each standard. Use for progress monitoring; reteach routing is in the Teacher Key.

US.01 — Homestead Act and Transcontinental Railroad

1. How did the Transcontinental Railroad connect to the concept of Manifest Destiny? [US.01 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It physically connected the nation and enabled rapid westward expansion
- B. It proved that railroads were more efficient than ships
- C. It was built primarily to transport military troops
- D. It was designed solely for transporting gold from California

2. Which statement best explains how the Transcontinental Railroad facilitated western expansion?

[US.01 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It was built exclusively by American workers, providing jobs for tens of thousands of unemployed citizens
- B. It reduced travel time from months to days and enabled efficient movement of settlers, goods, and resources across the continent
- C. It eliminated the need for wagon trains and stagecoaches almost overnight, ending earlier overland travel
- D. It provided direct access to gold mines in California

2. Which of the following best describes the impact of Thomas Edison's electric light bulb on daily life in the United States during the late 1800s? [US.05 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It eliminated the need for factories to run night shifts, reducing industrial output in urban areas
- B. It extended productive hours into the evening for businesses, factories, and homes, transforming work and leisure patterns
- C. It replaced steam power as the primary energy source for industrial machinery almost immediately after its invention
- D. It was adopted first in rural farming communities before electricity spread to urban centers

US.06 — Industrial Centers and Urbanization1. How did industrialization change population distribution in America? [US.06 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Massive rural-to-urban migration occurred as people sought factory jobs
- B. Population remained stable in both rural and urban areas
- C. People migrated from cities to farms
- D. Only immigrants moved to cities

2. Tenement housing in American cities in the late 19th century was characterized by: [US.06 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Spacious apartments designed to house immigrant families comfortably while they established themselves
- B. Dangerously overcrowded, poorly ventilated multi-family dwellings that lacked basic sanitation
- C. Single-family homes that immigrants could purchase through factory payroll deduction plans
- D. Government-funded housing projects designed to ease the immigrant transition to American life

US.07 — Immigration: Old vs. New Immigrants

1. How did the experience at Angel Island differ from Ellis Island? [US.07 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Angel Island had far more restrictive procedures, particularly targeting Asian immigrants
- B. Angel Island processed immigrants more quickly, which does not reflect the consensus among historians
- C. Ellis Island was only for wealthy immigrants, but the historical record tells a more complex story
- D. There was no significant difference between the two, which does not reflect the consensus among historians

2. Angel Island served as an immigration station primarily for immigrants from: [US.07 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Italy and Poland
- B. China and other Asian countries
- C. Mexico and Central America
- D. Ireland and Germany

Part 2 — Unit Summative • Form A

DIRECTIONS

Choose the best answer for each question. Classroom-formative • pre-field-test (pre-calibration) — not a secure TCAP form. First administration is what calibrates these items.

Name: _____ Class / Period: _____ Date: _____

1. Which of the following best describes a direct impact of the Homestead Act of 1862 on settlement patterns in the American West? [US.01 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It encouraged settlement by offering 160 acres of public land to citizens who agreed to farm it for five years

Name: _____ Class / Period: _____ Date: _____

1. The completion of the Transcontinental Railroad transformed the American West primarily by: [US.01 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Eliminating all Native American opposition to westward settlement
- B. Making the Homestead Act unnecessary since railroad land grants gave settlers free land
- C. Reducing the time to cross the continent from months to days, enabling mass migration, commercial agriculture, and extraction industries that transformed the West's economy
- D. Providing employment for all formerly enslaved people who had migrated to the West

2. Which of the following best explains why farming on the Great Plains was especially difficult for homesteaders in the late 19th century? [US.01 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. The Great Plains received excessive rainfall that caused frequent flooding destroying crops before harvest
- B. Federal regulations prohibited homesteaders from using modern farming equipment, forcing reliance on pre-industrial tools
- C. The Great Plains were already fully occupied by established farming communities that blocked new settlement
- D. Insufficient timber for construction, scarce water, periodic droughts, and hard prairie sod made traditional Eastern farming methods inadequate

3. Tennessee contributed to westward expansion through the Davy Crockett legend, which celebrated: [US.01 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. The frontiersman ideal — individual self-reliance, wilderness skill, and democratic spirit — that mythologized westward expansion as a heroic American adventure
- B. The settlement of the Cumberland Gap that opened Kentucky to white settlement
- C. Military service in the Mexican-American War that acquired Texas for the United States
- D. Congressional service that produced the Indian Removal Act

4. What was the stated purpose of American Indian boarding schools? [US.02 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. To preserve American Indian languages and traditions
- B. To train American Indians for military service

[US.03 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. The withdrawal of federal troops, ending Reconstruction protections
- B. Increased federal protection for civil rights
- C. Guaranteed voting rights through constitutional amendments
- D. Economic prosperity and land ownership

8. The Compromise of 1877 resulted in the end of Reconstruction by: [US.03 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. Creating new constitutional amendments to protect voting rights
- B. Removing federal troops from the South in exchange for Rutherford B.
- C. Establishing federal troops as permanent peacekeepers in Southern
- D. Guaranteeing civil rights protections for African Americans in the South through federal enforcement

9. Sharecropping emerged in the post-Civil War South as a labor system that: [US.03 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. Gave freedmen and poor white farmers genuine economic independence
- B. Was created by the Freedmen's Bureau to ensure fair compensation for agricultural labor
- C. Trapped tenant farmers in a cycle of debt peonage
- D. Replaced slavery with wage labor that gave freedmen mobility and economic opportunity

10. The Gilded Age political machines like Tammany Hall in New York provided immigrants with services because: [US.04 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Progressive reformers had forced machines to adopt welfare functions
- B. Providing jobs, housing assistance, and legal help to immigrants built loyalty that machine bosses converted into reliable votes
- C. Machine bosses were genuinely committed to immigrant welfare and civic integration
- D. Federal law required machine politicians to assist new arrivals

11. What was the primary mechanism by which the Pendleton Civil Service Act of 1883 reformed the federal hiring process? [US.04 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It required all federal employees to be members of the Republican Party to ensure loyalty to the administration
- B. It transferred appointment power for all federal officials from the president to Congress, removing executive patronage
- C. It established competitive examinations for classified federal positions, replacing the spoils system with merit-based hiring
- D. It abolished all federal government employment and required private contractors to perform government services

12. Which of the following correctly identifies a specific grievance that Gilded Age farmers organized around as part of the Populist movement? [US.04 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Farmers demanded the abolition of all private banking and the nationalization of all commercial real estate in the country

- B. Farmers objected to protective tariffs because imported agricultural equipment was cheaper than what American factories produced
- C. Farmers supported the gold standard as a means of stabilizing crop prices and protecting their savings from inflation
- D. Farmers protested that the gold standard caused deflation, making it harder to repay debts as crop prices fell

13. Which innovation made the construction of skyscrapers possible? [US.05 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. The telephone
- B. The light bulb
- C. The Bessemer steel process
- D. The automobile

14. Henry Bessemer's most significant contribution to American industrialization was: [US.05 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. Establishing the first transcontinental railroad system
- B. Inventing the electric light bulb
- C. Developing the first practical telephone system
- D. Creating a process for mass-producing high-quality steel

15. Thomas Edison's Menlo Park laboratory was historically significant because it: [US.05 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. Was the first industrial research laboratory
- B. Produced the first successful automobile for mass manufacture in America
- C. Developed the telephone that Alexander Graham Bell patented in 1876
- D. Created the first wireless radio communications system in the United States

16. Ellis Island served as the primary immigration processing center for: [US.06 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. Asian immigrants arriving on the West Coast who were processed before either admission or deportation
- B. South American immigrants seeking to enter the United States through New York Harbor
- C. All immigrants to the United States regardless of origin or port of entry
- D. European immigrants arriving on the East Coast between 1892 and 1954

17. Analyze the relationship between Chicago's geographic location and its industrial development. [US.06 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. Its position as a railroad hub connecting eastern factories with western resources made it ideal for meatpacking and trade
- B. Geography had little impact on Chicago's growth, which ignores key developments that shaped the outcome
- C. Chicago grew primarily due to government subsidies, but this fails to account for the broader historical context
- D. Lake Michigan was the only factor in Chicago's development, but the historical record tells a more complex story

18. Evaluate the social consequences of rapid urbanization during this period. [US.06 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. Cities easily accommodated population growth, despite limited evidence supporting this interpretation
- B. Rapid growth created overcrowding, poor sanitation, and social problems that reforms struggled to address

- C. Urbanization primarily benefited working-class families, although this view has been largely discredited by scholars
- D. Social conditions in cities were better than rural areas, but contemporary accounts suggest a different explanation

19. Analyze the role of Jane Addams and settlement houses in the immigrant experience. [US.07 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. They provided services and community while helping immigrants navigate American society without erasing cultural identity
- B. Settlement houses forced immigrants to abandon their cultures, although this view has been largely discredited by scholars
- C. Settlement houses were primarily religious conversion centers, which ignores key developments that shaped the outcome
- D. They had minimal impact on immigrant communities, which represents a common misconception about the period

20. Evaluate the relationship between nativism and immigration restriction laws like the Chinese Exclusion Act. [US.07 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. Restriction laws were based solely on economic concerns, which represents a common misconception about the period
- B. Nativist fears of racial and cultural difference drove discriminatory legislation targeting specific ethnic groups
- C. These laws affected all immigrants equally, which ignores key developments that shaped the outcome
- D. Restriction laws were temporary responses to specific incidents, though this interpretation lacks supporting historical evidence

21. Which argument BEST explains why push factors in Europe were more decisive than American pull factors in driving the 'new immigration' wave of 1880–1920 from Southern and Eastern Europe? [US.07 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. Pull factors dominated because American wages were consistently 3–5 times higher than European wages, making immigration an economically rational choice regardless of conditions in the country of origin.
- B. Neither push nor pull factors explain new immigration; steamship companies manufactured immigration demand by actively recruiting in European villages for their own commercial benefit.
- C. Push factors were more decisive because population pressure, agricultural displacement, religious persecution, and political instability in Southern and Eastern Europe made emigration a necessity for survival rather than an opportunity for advancement.
- D. Pull factors dominated because the U.S. government actively advertised economic opportunities in Southern and Eastern Europe through a network of immigration agencies.
