

U.S. HISTORY HACK™

Unit Assessment Book

Unit 2 — The Progressive Era (1890–1920) • Teacher Edition

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

Three parts: (1) Formative Checkpoints — a short check per standard for progress monitoring (MTSS); (2) Unit Summative — two parallel forms (A and B) for pre/post or retakes; (3) Teacher Answer Key + Item Analysis + Reteach.

All items are pulled from the History Hack question bank. Classroom-formative • pre-field-test (pre-calibration) — not a secure TCAP form. First administration is what calibrates these items.

Administering these forms is what generates the response data to CALIBRATE the pre-calibrated items — the first cycle of use closes the loop.

Keys and reteach live in this teacher book only — reproduce the student sections (formative + Form A/B) without the key section.

Contents

Part 1 — Formative Checkpoints (by standard)

A quick DOK-balanced check for each standard. Use for progress monitoring; reteach routing is in the Teacher Key.

US.08 — Social Darwinism & Social Gospel

1. How did Social Darwinism apply Darwin's theory of evolution to justify economic inequality and laissez-faire capitalism? [US.08 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It argued that wealth indicated natural superiority while poverty indicated weakness, justifying minimal government intervention and opposing social welfare
- B. Social Darwinism promoted equal distribution of wealth, which represents a common misconception about the period, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era
- C. Social Darwinism supported strong government regulation, but this oversimplifies the complex factors at work and fails to account for key developments in the broader context
- D. It had no connection to economic policy, despite the fact that multiple sources contradict this view, but closer analysis reveals a more complicated historical reality

2. How did the Social Gospel movement challenge Social Darwinism by promoting Christian responsibility for social problems? [US.08 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Social Gospel leaders agreed with Social Darwinism, but this fails to account for the broader historical context and does not reflect the scholarly consensus on this topic
- B. The Social Gospel argued Christians had a duty to address poverty and injustice, supporting settlement houses, labor reforms, and government intervention
- C. Social Gospel focused only on individual salvation, but this oversimplifies the complex factors at work, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era
- D. The movement opposed all social reform, which ignores key developments that shaped the outcome, which ignores significant political and cultural developments of the era

US.09 — Booker T. Washington vs W.E.B. Du Bois

1. How did the different backgrounds and experiences of Booker T. Washington and W.E.B. Du Bois shape their philosophies? [US.09 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Washington's experience of slavery and Southern life led him toward practical accommodation, while Du Bois's Northern upbringing and Harvard education shaped his demand for immediate rights and higher education
- B. Their backgrounds had no influence on their views, although this overlooks critical economic and social factors and oversimplifies the complex factors at work during this period, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era
- C. Both had identical backgrounds, although historical sources do not support this conclusion, but closer analysis reveals a more complicated historical reality, although historical sources do not support this conclusion
- D. Du Bois was born in the South and Washington in the North, which ignores key developments that shaped the outcome, which does not align with the documented historical record when examined alongside the available primary and secondary sources

2. Compare their approaches to education: Washington's emphasis on vocational training versus Du Bois's "Talented Tenth" concept. [US.09 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Both supported only vocational education, although this overlooks critical economic and social factors, but contemporary accounts and primary sources suggest otherwise

- B. Washington promoted industrial training for economic self-sufficiency while Du Bois advocated classical education to develop leaders who would advance the entire race
- C. Both opposed education for African Americans, but the historical record tells a more complex story and fails to account for key developments in the broader context
- D. Du Bois supported only vocational training, but this fails to account for the broader historical context and oversimplifies the complex factors at work during this period

US.10 — Populism & Granger Movement

1. What economic and social conditions led farmers to organize into movements like the Grangers and Farmers' Alliance? [US.10 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Falling crop prices, high railroad shipping rates, crushing debt, and exploitation by middlemen and monopolies drove farmers to organize for collective action
- B. Farmers were prosperous and content, but this fails to account for the broader historical context when examined alongside the available primary and secondary sources
- C. Farmers had no complaints about railroads, which represents a common misconception about the period, although this overlooks critical economic and social factors involved
