

U.S. HISTORY HACK™

Unit Assessment Book

Unit 7 — The Cold War (1945–1991) • Teacher Edition

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

Three parts: (1) Formative Checkpoints — a short check per standard for progress monitoring (MTSS); (2) Unit Summative — two parallel forms (A and B) for pre/post or retakes; (3) Teacher Answer Key + Item Analysis + Reteach.

All items are pulled from the History Hack question bank. Classroom-formative • pre-field-test (pre-calibration) — not a secure TCAP form. First administration is what calibrates these items.

Administering these forms is what generates the response data to CALIBRATE the pre-calibrated items — the first cycle of use closes the loop.

Keys and reteach live in this teacher book only — reproduce the student sections (formative + Form A/B) without the key section.

Contents

Part 1 — Formative Checkpoints (by standard)

A quick DOK-balanced check for each standard. Use for progress monitoring; reteach routing is in the Teacher Key.

US.59 — U.S.-Soviet Competition

1. How did the nuclear arms race between the U.S. and Soviet Union create a "balance of terror" by the 1960s? [US.59 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Both superpowers built massive nuclear arsenals capable of destroying each other, making nuclear war unthinkable due to mutual assured destruction
- B. Both nations agreed to limit nuclear weapons equally, although this view has been largely discredited by scholars
- C. The U.S. maintained overwhelming nuclear superiority, although this overlooks critical economic and social factors
- D. The Soviet Union refused to develop nuclear weapons, although historical sources do not support this conclusion

2. What fundamental ideological differences separated American democracy from Soviet communism? [US.59 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Both systems valued individual freedom equally, which does not reflect the consensus among historians, but contemporary accounts and primary sources suggest otherwise
- B. The U.S. championed democracy, individual freedoms, and free markets while the USSR promoted authoritarian communism, collective ownership, and state control
- C. The only difference was geographic location, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era despite the fact that multiple contemporary sources contradict this
- D. Both systems rejected religious freedom, which does not align with the documented historical record, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era

US.60 — Containment and Early Cold War Policies

1. How did George Kennan's "Long Telegram" establish containment as America's Cold War strategy? [US.60 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It argued that Soviet expansion must be firmly resisted through containment, preventing communism from spreading while avoiding direct war
- B. It called for immediate military attack on the Soviet Union, despite limited evidence supporting this interpretation
- C. It recommended diplomatic recognition of Soviet territorial gains, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era
- D. It suggested the U.S. return to isolationism, which ignores key developments that shaped the outcome

2. What were the goals of the Truman Doctrine, and how did it change American foreign policy? [US.60 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It continued American isolationism, which does not align with the documented historical record
- B. It committed the U.S. to supporting free peoples resisting communism, transforming America from isolationism to global engagement
- C. It sought peaceful coexistence with the Soviet Union, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era
- D. It focused only on European affairs, although this view has been largely discredited by scholars

US.61 — Second Red Scare & McCarthyism

1. What events and fears contributed to the Second Red Scare in post-WWII America? [US.61 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Soviet nuclear development, communist China, the Korean War, and spy revelations created genuine fears that McCarthy exploited into widespread paranoia
- B. Only economic concerns drove the Red Scare, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era despite the fact that multiple contemporary sources contradict this
- C. The Red Scare had no real basis in actual events, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era
- D. Only foreign events contributed to domestic fears, which represents a common misconception about the period and oversimplifies the complex factors at work during this period

2. What impact did blacklisting have on Hollywood and American creative expression? [US.61 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Blacklisting had no effect on creative industries, but this fails to account for the broader historical context and does not reflect the scholarly consensus on this topic
- B. It destroyed careers, imprisoned the Hollywood Ten for refusing to testify, and created a climate of fear that stifled artistic and political expression
- C. Blacklisting only affected government employees, although this overlooks critical economic and social factors, although historical sources do not support this conclusion
- D. Hollywood voluntarily adopted blacklisting without pressure, despite limited evidence supporting this interpretation

US.62 — Korean War

1. How did the Domino Theory justify American military intervention in Korea? [US.62 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It argued that if Korea fell to communism, neighboring nations like Japan would be next, requiring intervention to stop communist expansion
- B. It suggested Korea was not strategically important, which does not reflect the consensus among historians
- C. It focused only on economic concerns, which represents a common misconception about the period and fails to account for key developments in the broader context
- D. It recommended diplomatic rather than military solutions, though this interpretation lacks supporting historical evidence

2. What was the significance of the 38th parallel before, during, and after the Korean War? [US.62 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. The 38th parallel had no significance in the Korean War, though this interpretation lacks supporting historical evidence, though this interpretation lacks supporting historical evidence
- B. It divided Korea post-WWII, was crossed by North Korean invasion, and remained roughly the dividing line after three years of fighting and 36,000 American deaths
- C. It was established after the Korean War ended, which does not align with the documented historical record, which ignores significant political and cultural developments of the era
- D. It marked the border between China and Korea, although historical sources do not support this conclusion and oversimplifies the complex factors at work during this period

US.63 — Eisenhower's Cold War Policies

1. How did Secretary Dulles define brinkmanship and apply it to Cold War crises? [US.63 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It meant pushing crises to the edge of war, relying on nuclear threats to force opponents to back down
- B. Brinkmanship meant avoiding all confrontation with the Soviet Union, but this oversimplifies the complex factors at work
- C. It focused exclusively on economic competition, but the historical record tells a more complex story
- D. It rejected the use of military threats entirely, although historical sources do not support this conclusion

2. What was Khrushchev's concept of "peaceful coexistence" and how did it differ from Stalin's approach? [US.63 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Peaceful coexistence meant abandoning communist ideology, which represents a common misconception about the period
- B. It suggested capitalist and communist nations could compete without war, representing a shift from Stalin's more aggressive confrontational approach
- C. It was identical to Stalin's policies, but this fails to account for the broader historical context and oversimplifies the complex factors at work during this period
- D. It called for immediate world revolution, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era, which does not align with the documented historical record

US.64 — Nuclear Fears and Civil Defense

1. How did Mutual Assured Destruction (MAD) paradoxically provide security during the Cold War? [US.64 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It deterred nuclear war because both sides knew any attack would result in their own complete destruction
- B. MAD encouraged both sides to attack first, despite limited evidence supporting this interpretation
- C. MAD reduced the number of nuclear weapons, although historical sources do not support this conclusion
- D. It had no effect on Cold War security calculations, despite the fact that multiple sources contradict this view

2. What concerns did atomic testing raise about nuclear weapons' broader impacts? [US.64 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Testing had no negative effects, but the historical record tells a more complex story, which does not align with the documented historical record
- B. Above-ground tests spread radioactive fallout, harming civilians and the environment, leading to international pressure for test bans
- C. Only military personnel were affected by testing, but this oversimplifies the complex factors at work
- D. Testing concerns were limited to the Soviet Union, but this fails to account for the broader historical context

US.65 — U.S.-Cuba Relations

1. How did U.S. policy toward Cuba before Castro's revolution contribute to later tensions? [US.65 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. American economic domination and support for dictator Batista created resentment that contributed to Castro's anti-American turn
- B. The U.S. had no involvement in Cuba before Castro, though this interpretation lacks supporting historical evidence
- C. The U.S. supported Castro from the beginning, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era

D. Cuba was never important to American foreign policy, despite the fact that multiple sources contradict this view

2. Why did President Kennedy choose a naval blockade rather than an air strike to respond to the discovery of Soviet missiles in Cuba in 1962? [US.65 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. A naval blockade was the only option approved by Congress before Kennedy could take any military action
- B. A blockade allowed time for diplomacy and demonstrated resolve without triggering an immediate military exchange that could escalate to nuclear war
- C. Kennedy chose a blockade because U.S. air forces lacked the ability to destroy the missile sites from the air
- D. The blockade was selected because the Soviet Union had already agreed to remove the missiles before Kennedy announced his decision

US.66 — Vietnam War Causes, Course, and Consequences

1. How did the Geneva Accords create the conditions that led to the Vietnam War? [US.66 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. They temporarily divided Vietnam with planned elections, but when South Vietnam refused elections, the division became permanent, leading to conflict
- B. The Geneva Accords permanently unified Vietnam, which does not align with the documented historical record, but the historical evidence paints a more nuanced picture
- C. The accords had no connection to the Vietnam War, though this interpretation lacks supporting historical evidence
- D. They created a stable peace that lasted for decades, although this view has been largely discredited by scholars and does not reflect the scholarly consensus on this topic

2. The 26th Amendment (1971), ratified during the Vietnam War era, lowered the voting age from 21 to 18. Which argument most directly motivated its passage? [US.66 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Young people's economic contributions through taxation had not been matched by voting representation
- B. Young Americans were being drafted to fight and die in Vietnam at 18 but could not vote on the politicians who made that decision
- C. A Supreme Court ruling had found age-based voting restrictions unconstitutional
- D. The Civil Rights Act of 1964 required that most citizens over 18 have equal voting rights

US.67 — Presidential Vietnam Policies

1. How did Kennedy's "flexible response" approach differ from previous Cold War military doctrine?

[US.67 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Flexible response emphasized varied military options including counterinsurgency rather than relying solely on nuclear deterrence
- B. Kennedy relied exclusively on nuclear threats, although this overlooks critical economic and social factors
- C. Kennedy completely avoided military involvement in Vietnam, although this view has been largely discredited by scholars
- D. Flexible response was identical to massive retaliation, although this view has been largely discredited by scholars

2. How did Nixon's policy of Vietnamization differ from Johnson's approach to the Vietnam War? [US.67 •

DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Nixon expanded the ground war into North Vietnam while Johnson had kept fighting limited to South Vietnam
- B. Nixon sought to gradually withdraw U.S. combat troops by transferring military responsibility to South Vietnamese forces, while Johnson had steadily increased American troop levels
- C. Nixon negotiated a complete North Vietnamese surrender while Johnson had pursued only a stalemate
- D. Nixon ended all bombing campaigns in Vietnam while Johnson had relied entirely on air power rather than ground troops

US.68 — Vietnam War Home Front Impact

1. How did the anti-war movement grow from small protests to a mass movement involving millions?

[US.68 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It expanded as war costs and casualties mounted, drawing students, veterans, religious leaders, and civil rights activists into a broad coalition against the war
- B. The movement remained small throughout the war, but contemporary accounts suggest a different explanation despite the fact that multiple contemporary sources contradict this
- C. Only college students participated in anti-war protests, which does not reflect the consensus among historians and fails to account for key developments in the broader context
- D. The movement was limited to a few major cities, which does not reflect the consensus among historians and does not reflect the scholarly consensus on this topic

2. Why was the Vietnam War draft controversial? [US.68 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Arms limitation agreements that froze the number of nuclear weapons each side could have
- B. College deferments meant wealthier young men could avoid service while poorer men could not
- C. A period of reduced tensions and increased diplomacy between the U.S. and Soviet Union
- D. Graphic footage of combat in living rooms turned public opinion against the war

US.69 — Space Race Competition

1. What motivated the U.S. and Soviet Union to compete in space exploration? [US.69 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Space achievements demonstrated technological superiority, military capability, and ideological system effectiveness, providing propaganda value in Cold War competition
- B. Both nations were interested only in scientific discovery, which does not align with the documented historical record, which does not align with the documented historical record
- C. Space exploration had no connection to Cold War rivalry, although this overlooks critical economic and social factors, although this overlooks critical economic and social factors involved

- A. It had no effect on domestic policy because the satellite was seen as a military, not civilian, issue
- B. Congress reduced education spending to redirect funds toward military defense
- C. Congress passed the National Defense Education Act to increase funding for science, math, and foreign language education
- D. The government closed all public schools and replaced them with military academies

32. Use the photograph to answer the question. This photograph shows Buzz Aldrin on the Moon during the Apollo 11 mission, July 20, 1969. (NASA photograph, 1969. Public Domain.) How did the Moon landing, shown in this photograph, serve the strategic goals of the United States during the Cold War? [US.69 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It ended the Cold War because the Soviet Union conceded defeat after the landing
- B. The Moon landing was a purely scientific mission with no political significance
- C. It was conducted jointly with the Soviet Union as a sign of cooperation
- D. It demonstrated American technological superiority over the Soviet Union and served as a powerful propaganda victory in the Space Race

33. Why did the United States government make winning the space race against the Soviet Union a national priority during the late 1950s and 1960s? [US.69 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Demonstrating technological superiority in space was seen as evidence of the strength of the American democratic and capitalist system over Soviet communism
- B. Space exploration was primarily motivated by scientific curiosity, with no connection to Cold War competition
- C. The United States pursued the space race solely to develop satellite technology for commercial television broadcasting
- D. NASA was created to provide jobs for former military personnel after the Korean War ended

34. The Intermediate-Range Nuclear Forces (INF) Treaty of 1987, signed by Reagan and Gorbachev, was significant because — [US.70 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It resolved the debate over SDI by prohibiting space-based weapons systems
- B. It committed both superpowers to reducing their nuclear arsenals by half within ten years

- C. It established inspections of Soviet nuclear sites by American observers for the first time
- D. It was the first treaty to eliminate an entire class of nuclear weapons rather than merely limiting them

35. The fall of the Berlin Wall on November 9, 1989 was historically significant primarily as — [US.70 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. A symbol of communism's collapse — East Germans flooding west proved communist regimes could no longer hold their populations through force or ideology alone
- B. A planned diplomatic transition negotiated between East Germany, West Germany, the U.S., and the USSR over the preceding year
- C. Mainly a media spectacle whose political significance was minimal since Germany's division had already effectively ended before the wall fell
- D. A military event in which West German forces breached the wall against East German orders, triggering German reunification

36. The fall of the Berlin Wall in November 1989 was symbolically important because it marked — [US.70 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. The official end of World War II, finally concluded by Germany's reunification
- B. The collapse of the physical and ideological barrier that had divided East and West since 1961
- C. The beginning of the NATO expansion that would include former Warsaw Pact nations
- D. The Soviet Union's formal acknowledgment that it had lost the Cold War

Choose the best answer for each question. Classroom-formative • pre-field-test (pre-calibration) — not a secure TCAP form. First administration is what calibrates these items.

Name: _____ Class / Period: _____ Date: _____

1. What role did propaganda play in the Cold War conflict? [US.59 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Propaganda was only used by the Soviet Union while the U.S. relied solely on facts
- B. Neither side engaged in any information warfare or media campaigns during the era
- C. Both sides used media, culture, and information to promote their ideology worldwide
- D. Propaganda completely replaced all military conflict as the sole form of competition

2. Reagan described the Soviet Union as an 'evil empire' in a 1983 speech because — [US.59 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. The Soviets had developed a new nuclear weapon, which historians consider a secondary factor in this development
- B. The Soviet Union had invaded Western Europe, which historians consider a secondary factor in this development
- C. He was responding to a Soviet attack on U.S. forces, which historians consider a secondary factor in this development
- D. Reagan believed moral clarity about the totalitarian nature of Soviet communism was strategically important

3. How did the formation of NATO and the Warsaw Pact reflect the ideological competition between the United States and the Soviet Union during the Cold War? [US.59 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. They divided Europe into opposing military blocs aligned with either American capitalism or Soviet communism
- B. Both alliances were formed primarily for economic cooperation rather than military defense
- C. NATO and the Warsaw Pact were created jointly to prevent a third world war between smaller nations
- D. The alliances reflected agreement between superpowers on the need for collective disarmament

4. What was the Marshall Plan and why was it important during the early Cold War? [US.60 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. The first time the UN took military action to defend a member nation from attack
- B. A 1950-1953 conflict where North Korea invaded South Korea, prompting U.S. action
- C. A successful amphibious assault led by MacArthur that turned the tide of battle
- D. A massive U.S. aid program to rebuild Europe and prevent the spread of communism

5. What was the Berlin Airlift and why was it necessary? [US.60 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. U.S. and British planes supplied West Berlin when the Soviets blocked ground access
- B. An armistice in 1953 maintaining division at the 38th parallel with no peace treaty
- C. It created a demilitarized zone that remains one of the most fortified borders today
- D. The belief that if one country fell to communism, neighboring countries would follow

6. What was the strategic importance of Greece and Turkey in the Truman Doctrine? [US.60 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. An operation delivering supplies to West Berlin after the Soviet blockade in 1948-1949

- B. They controlled access to the Mediterranean and Middle East, blocking Soviet expansion
- C. It combined massive aid with the requirement that Europeans cooperate on recovery plans
- D. As president, he had authority to commit U.S. resources and set foreign policy direction

7. McCarthyism's impact on American political culture in the early 1950s demonstrated — [US.61 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. How fear and political opportunism could be used to suppress dissent and damage careers with unsubstantiated accusations
- B. That the Democratic Party leadership was fundamentally sympathetic to Soviet-style communism and subversive ideology
- C. That congressional investigations remain the most effective constitutional tool for detecting foreign espionage
- D. That communist infiltration of the State Department and military was actually as widespread as McCarthy claimed

8. What was McCarthyism? [US.61 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. Committee to investigate suspected communists and disloyal activities
- B. Accusing people of being communist without proper evidence or due process
- C. He publicly challenged Truman and wanted to expand the war into China directly
- D. A successful amphibious assault led by MacArthur that turned the tide of battle

9. Who were Julius and Ethel Rosenberg? [US.61 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. Hollywood actors blacklisted for their suspected political beliefs
- B. Scientists who invented the hydrogen bomb for the American military
- C. Americans executed for passing atomic secrets to the Soviet Union
- D. Leaders of the anti-communist movement in the United States Senate

10. What was the significance of UN intervention in the Korean War? [US.62 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. The event that established the United Nations as an effective world government
- B. The first time the UN took military action to defend a member nation from attack
- C. The only military conflict that the United Nations has ever participated in directly
- D. The action that ultimately led to the complete dissolution of the United Nations

11. What was the significance of the Korean War armistice line? [US.62 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. A July 1945 meeting where tensions between Truman and Stalin revealed a growing rift
- B. A period of intense anti-communist suspicion and persecution led by Senator McCarthy
- C. It created a demilitarized zone that remains one of the most fortified borders today
- D. Both superpowers competed for influence in newly independent nations by offering aid

12. What was the 38th parallel's significance in the Korean War? [US.62 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. A military demarcation used solely for controlling troop movements during battle
- B. The border between the Korean peninsula and mainland China throughout the conflict
- C. An economic trade boundary separating communist and capitalist zones of influence
- D. The division line between North and South Korea before, during, and after the war

13. The U-2 incident of 1960 damaged U.S.-Soviet relations because — [US.63 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. American spies were discovered inside the Kremlin using a new surveillance technology

- B. A Soviet spy plane violated U.S. airspace and photographed nuclear weapon facilities
- C. An American spy plane was shot down over Soviet territory, exposing U.S. intelligence operations
- D. The U.S. and Soviet Union collided militarily over Berlin during a U-2 mission

14. What was Eisenhower's policy of "brinkmanship"? [US.63 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. Working father, stay-at-home mother, and children in a suburban home
- B. Neil Armstrong, commander of the Apollo 11 mission
- C. A failed CIA-backed attempt to overthrow Fidel Castro in Cuba
- D. Threatening nuclear war to force the enemy to back down

15. Compare brinkmanship and peaceful coexistence as Cold War strategies. [US.63 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. Brinkmanship used nuclear threats aggressively while peaceful coexistence emphasized diplomatic competition—both aimed to avoid actual war while continuing ideological struggle
- B. Both strategies were identical in approach, but contemporary accounts suggest a different explanation and does not reflect the scholarly consensus on this topic
- C. Neither strategy addressed nuclear weapons, but contemporary accounts suggest a different explanation, but closer analysis reveals a more complicated historical reality
- D. Peaceful coexistence was more aggressive than brinkmanship, which ignores key developments that shaped the outcome, though this interpretation lacks supporting historical evidence

16. Use the image to answer the question. This image shows Bert the Turtle, the cartoon mascot of the 1951 U.S. Federal Civil Defense Administration film "Duck and Cover." The film instructed schoolchildren to duck under their desks and cover their heads in the event of a nuclear attack. (Still from "Duck and Cover," 1951. U.S. Federal Civil Defense Administration.) What threat was this civil defense program designed to address? [US.64 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. Conventional bombing raids by enemy aircraft
- B. Chemical weapon attacks from the Soviet Union
- C. Natural disasters such as tornadoes and earthquakes
- D. A nuclear attack during the Cold War

17. Why did Sputnik shock Americans and change U.S. education and defense policies? [US.64 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. It demonstrated Soviet technological capability and potential ICBM threat, spurring the space race, increased science education funding, and heightened fears of nuclear vulnerability
- B. Sputnik had no significant impact on American policy, despite limited evidence supporting this interpretation, which does not align with the documented historical record
- C. Americans celebrated Soviet space achievements, but contemporary accounts suggest a different explanation, though this interpretation lacks supporting historical evidence
- D. Sputnik only affected the space program, not other policies, although historical sources do not support this conclusion and oversimplifies the complex factors at work during this period

18. Analyze how civil defense programs like "duck and cover" drills reflected American nuclear anxieties.

[US.64 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. Civil defense programs were purely practical with no psychological component, which ignores key developments that shaped the outcome
- B. These programs attempted to create a sense of preparedness and control despite the reality that nuclear war would be catastrophic, reflecting deep societal anxiety

- C. Americans were never concerned about nuclear attack, which does not align with the documented historical record, but closer analysis reveals a more complicated historical reality
- D. Civil defense eliminated all fears about nuclear war, but this oversimplifies the complex factors at work when examined alongside the available primary and secondary sources

19. Use the photograph to answer the question. This photograph is a U.S. aerial reconnaissance image showing Soviet missile installations being constructed in Cuba in October 1962. The image was used by the Kennedy administration as evidence of Soviet nuclear missiles being placed just 90 miles from the United States. (U.S. Department of Defense photograph, October 1962. Public Domain.) What event is DIRECTLY documented in this photograph? [US.65 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. The Cuban Missile Crisis of 1962
- B. The Bay of Pigs invasion of 1961
- C. The Berlin Blockade of 1948
- D. The Vietnam War escalation of 1964

20. The Cuban Missile Crisis is generally considered to be — [US.65 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. The first U.S. military intervention in Latin America
- B. The closest the United States and Soviet Union came to nuclear war
- C. The end of the Cold War
- D. A minor diplomatic dispute resolved within hours

21. The Cuban Missile Crisis of October 1962 was resolved primarily through — [US.65 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. A unilateral U.S. military invasion of Cuba that destroyed Soviet missile installations and expelled Soviet advisors
- B. Khrushchev's unilateral decision to withdraw the missiles without any American concessions, presenting it as a Soviet diplomatic victory
- C. The Soviets removed Cuban missiles in exchange for a U.S. non-invasion pledge and a secret agreement removing U.S. missiles from Turkey
- D. The United Nations imposing binding economic sanctions on both superpowers to force them to negotiate a settlement over Cuba

22. What was the domino theory? [US.66 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. A military strategy involving sequential surprise attacks on multiple enemy positions
- B. The belief that if one country fell to communism, neighboring countries would follow
- C. An economic theory suggesting that free trade would naturally spread democracy globally
- D. A theory proposing that nuclear weapons would make conventional warfare fully obsolete

23. What was Nixon's policy of "Vietnamization"? [US.66 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. He brought Black music to white audiences, breaking racial barriers in popular culture
- B. Teenagers gained economic power, distinct music tastes, and rebelled against norms
- C. Gradually withdrawing U.S. troops while training South Vietnamese forces to fight alone
- D. Writers and artists who rejected conformity, consumerism, and traditional values

24. Why did the Gulf of Tonkin Resolution give President Johnson broad war powers without a formal declaration? [US.66 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. Congress formally declared war on North Vietnam, although this overlooks critical economic and social factors, although this overlooks critical economic and social factors involved

- B. Johnson never received congressional authorization, although historical sources do not support this conclusion, but contemporary accounts and primary sources suggest otherwise
- C. The resolution only authorized economic sanctions, which represents a common misconception about the period, but the historical evidence paints a more nuanced picture
- D. The resolution authorized the president to use military force to assist Southeast Asian nations, effectively bypassing the constitutional requirement for a war declaration

25. Why did Johnson's massive escalation fail to achieve victory in Vietnam? [US.67 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. Johnson never significantly escalated American involvement, despite limited evidence supporting this interpretation, but contemporary accounts and primary sources suggest otherwise
- B. American forces won every major engagement, despite the fact that multiple sources contradict this view, which does not align with the documented historical record
- C. Despite 543,000 troops and extensive bombing, conventional military power proved ineffective against guerrilla warfare and a determined enemy fighting on their homeland
- D. Congress prevented Johnson from adequate escalation, but contemporary accounts suggest a different explanation, which represents a common misconception about this historical period

26. What was Nixon's Vietnamization policy and why did it ultimately fail? [US.67 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. Vietnamization successfully protected South Vietnam permanently, which does not align with the documented historical record
- B. Nixon never pursued withdrawal from Vietnam, but this fails to account for the broader historical context, though this interpretation lacks supporting historical evidence
- C. Vietnamization increased American troop levels, though this interpretation lacks supporting historical evidence and does not reflect the scholarly consensus on this topic
- D. It transferred combat responsibility to South Vietnamese forces while withdrawing Americans, but South Vietnam fell in 1975 after U.S. support ended

27. Evaluate the effectiveness of American presidential policies in Vietnam across three administrations.

[US.67 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. Despite different approaches—advisors, escalation, Vietnamization—all three presidents failed to achieve lasting South Vietnamese independence, demonstrating the limits of American power
- B. Presidential policies successfully achieved American goals, despite the fact that multiple sources contradict this view and oversimplifies the complex factors at work during this period
- C. Only Nixon's policies were unsuccessful, but this oversimplifies the complex factors at work, which does not align with the documented historical record, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era
- D. Kennedy achieved all American objectives before his death, but this oversimplifies the complex factors at work, although this overlooks critical economic and social factors involved

28. What changes did the draft lottery system make and how did it contribute to the 26th Amendment?

[US.68 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. The lottery eliminated all draft inequities, despite the fact that multiple sources contradict this view, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era
- B. The draft had no connection to voting rights, but the historical record tells a more complex story and fails to account for key developments in the broader context
- C. The lottery was never actually implemented, which does not align with the documented historical record when examined alongside the available primary and secondary sources
- D. While the lottery added some fairness, class bias remained through deferments, and opposition to drafting 18-year-olds who couldn't vote led to the 26th Amendment

29. Why was Vietnam called the first "living room war," and how did television coverage shape public opinion? [US.68 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. Nightly news brought graphic combat footage into American homes, contradicting official optimism and building opposition as viewers saw war's reality
- B. Television coverage had no effect on the war, although historical sources do not support this conclusion and does not reflect the scholarly consensus on this topic
- C. Television coverage was entirely supportive of the war, but this oversimplifies the complex factors at work, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era
- D. Most Americans did not have television access, although historical sources do not support this conclusion, though this interpretation lacks supporting historical evidence

30. Evaluate whether the anti-war movement helped end the Vietnam War or prolonged it by undermining morale. [US.68 • DOK 3 • pre-field-test]

- A. The movement had no impact on the war's outcome, yet the available evidence points to a different conclusion, which contradicts the primary source evidence from this era, although historical sources do not support this conclusion
- B. While critics claimed protests undermined the war effort, the movement pressured politicians to seek withdrawal and reflected broader public opposition that made continued war politically unsustainable
- C. The movement fully supported American involvement, but contemporary accounts suggest a different explanation, although this overlooks critical economic and social factors involved
- D. Protests extended the war significantly, though this interpretation lacks supporting historical evidence, which ignores significant political and cultural developments of the era

31. The space race between the U.S. and Soviet Union during the 1950s–1960s was primarily a competition over — [US.69 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Military prestige, technological superiority, and ideological credibility in the Cold War
- B. The exclusive right to mine minerals from the moon and nearby asteroids
- C. Economic profits from satellite communications technology
- D. Scientific knowledge about the solar system for purely academic purposes

32. Why was the Space Race important during the Cold War? [US.69 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. The massive population increase drove demand for schools, housing, and consumer goods
- B. It demonstrated technological and ideological superiority over the rival superpower
- C. Rapid enrollment growth required construction of new schools and hiring of more teachers
- D. Dramatic surge in birth rates from 1946 to 1964 as veterans returned home

33. The space race had what unintended but significant civil benefit for American society? [US.69 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Competition with the Soviets accelerated full racial integration of the U.S. military and federal civil service employment
- B. The space program accelerated the development of nuclear energy as a civilian power source alternative to imported fossil fuels
- C. Space technology investment yielded miniaturized electronics, computing advances, and materials innovations that transformed consumer and industrial life
- D. NASA's massive budget effectively replaced Cold War military spending, directly reducing superpower tensions with the Soviet Union

34. Which diplomatic development best illustrates Nixon's policy of detente? [US.70 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. It opened diplomatic relations with communist China after decades of isolation
- B. The Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT I) agreement with the Soviet Union
- C. Americans who quietly supported the Vietnam War and traditional values
- D. It appealed to white Southern voters unhappy with civil rights laws

35. The SALT II treaty signed by Carter in 1979 failed to be ratified by the Senate primarily because —

[US.70 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

- A. Conservative senators objected to Carter's willingness to accept Soviet nuclear superiority
- B. The Iranian hostage crisis diverted congressional attention away from the ratification process
- C. The Soviet invasion of Afghanistan in December 1979 made Senate ratification politically impossible
- D. Arms control opponents argued the treaty's verification mechanisms were inadequate

36. What was the Berlin Wall? [US.70 • DOK 1 • pre-field-test]

- A. A temporary checkpoint created to manage trade between East and West Berlin
- B. A defensive fortification constructed by Western Allies to protect West Berlin
- C. A boundary line established by Allied forces during the occupation of Germany
- D. A barrier built by East Germany in 1961 to prevent citizens from fleeing west
