TROOPTOTEACHER TECHNOLOGIES

UNIT 1

The Rise of Industrialization, 1877–1900

COURSE STANDARD EDITION

US.01 – US.07 • 7 Tennessee U.S. History Standards • Grades 9–12

TENNESSEE CONNECTION • WILLIAMSON COUNTY

A hometown hero: George Jordan of Triune, Williamson County — the only Medal of Honor recipient from our county. He served with the 9th U.S. Cavalry (the Buffalo Soldiers), earning the Medal of Honor for Fort Tularosa (1880) and Carrizo Canyon (1881).

One common workbook designed for learner variability. Every student works toward the same Tennessee standards; supports vary the means, not the goal or the ceiling.

Source integrity. Every primary source in this unit is public-domain and cited to its holding repository (National Archives, Library of Congress, HathiTrust). See the Source Library.

Reading provenance (district-clear). Close-Read passages are labeled “History Hack-authored instructional synthesis” — they build on the standard record and are not presented as primary sources.

Framework stack. This workbook anchors to Tennessee U.S. History standards US.01–US.07 and the Social Studies Practices (SSP.01–SSP.06), and is designed on CAST UDL 3.0 and an MTSS support model.

Pacing. Each standard is built for one 45-minute class period. Each activity shows a 🕒 ~ minutes estimate at its heading. There is more here than one period holds — your teacher chooses which activities you do in class; the rest may become warm-ups, stations, or homework.

One question I want answered...

Standard US.01 — Homestead Act and Transcontinental Railroad

TN Academic Standard US.01: Explain how the Homestead Act and the Transcontinental Railroad impacted the settlement of the West. (C, E, G, H, P)

LEARNING TARGETS — I can...

- I can sequence the expansion of the United States and the impact the Transcontinental Railroad and Homestead Act had in relation to Manifest Destiny.
- I can locate the territory acquired through the Homestead Act, the Union Pacific, and the Central Pacific.
- I can explain western expansion's impact on American Indians, immigrants, and American settlers — and the historical impact of the "Buffalo Soldiers," including George Jordan of Williamson County.

Lenses for this standard: Geography (G) • Economics (E) • Politics/Government (P) • Culture (C) • History (H)

CORE PATH — the same for every student

Every student works this standard at the same rigor: analyze the sources and vocabulary, then demonstrate learning on the Practice Quiz and CER. UDL and MTSS give you flexible ways in — they never lower the bar. Check yourself against the learning targets on the Cornell Notes page.

★ Tennessee Connection

George Jordan of Williamson County — a Buffalo Soldier in the 9th U.S. Cavalry and Medal of Honor recipient — ties the westward expansion of this standard to our own community.

SET YOUR GOAL (self-direction)

My goal for this standard — what will I be able to do, and how will I show it?

HOOK — think before you dig in

The Homestead Act promised '160 acres of free land.' But whose land was it — and who paid the real price for 'free'?

ACTIVATE — what do you already know or wonder?

Jot what you already know or want to find out about this standard. You'll come back to it.

Activity 1 — Vocabulary (Part A: Reference / Word Bank) — US.01 ~10 min

Use this word bank throughout the standard. The Spanish column supports access, not translation of assessment.

Term	Student-friendly meaning	Spanish
Homestead Act	An 1862 law that provided 160 acres of public land to settlers who agreed to live on and improve the land for five years, encouraging westward expansion.	Ley de Homestead
Transcontinental Railroad	A continuous railroad line completed in 1869 that connected the eastern United States with the Pacific coast, revolutionizing transportation and commerce.	Ferrocarril Transcontinental
Westward Expansion	The 19th-century movement of settlers, railroads, and U.S. authority across the continent toward the Pacific, encouraged by free land and new transportation.	Expansión hacia el Oeste

Key terms to list

Homestead Act • Transcontinental Railroad • Westward Expansion

Summary — In your own words (2–3 sentences)

PROGRESS CHECK • one question

A homesteading family and a Lakota family in 1875 would most likely have described the Homestead Act in very different ways. Which statement best explains why?

- A. The Homestead Act applied only to settlers and never affected American Indians in any way.
- B. The same law that opened “free” land to settlers took that land away from American Indians who already lived on it.
- C. Both families received 160 acres each under the law, so their views would have matched.
- D. The law was written to benefit American Indians first and settlers second.

Commit before you move on — mark it, say it, or explain it aloud.

CHECK YOURSELF — how am I doing?

Which learning targets (on this standard's opening page) can you now meet? Tick the number; circle any you still need help with.

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — US.01

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Homestead Act	An 1862 law that provided 160 acres of public land to settlers who agreed to live on and improve the land for five years, encouraging westward expansion.
Transcontinental Railroad	A continuous railroad line completed in 1869 that connected the eastern United States with the Pacific coast, revolutionizing transportation and commerce.
Westward Expansion	The 19th-century movement of settlers, railroads, and U.S. authority across the continent toward the Pacific, encouraged by free land and new transportation.

Break it into steps:

1) Name one cause or effect. 2) Give one piece of evidence. 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of homestead act and transcontinental railroad was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of homestead act and transcontinental railroad was Homestead Act: An 1862 law that provided 160 acres of public land to settlers who agreed to live on and improve the land for five years, encouraging westward expansion.

GUIDED NOTE REHEARSAL LAB

Rehearse the cause→effect chain below, then transfer it to your Cornell notes.

Westward Expansion

Guiding questions — answer on the lines below (or in your front notes):

- Who received land under the Homestead Act, and who lost land because of it?
- How did the Transcontinental Railroad change life for settlers — and for Plains nations?
- What does the phrase “free land” hide about the cost of westward expansion?

WHICH CUE STILL NEEDS WORK?

Circle the Cornell cue from the front page you still need help with, and tell your teacher so we can go over it.

LIGHT PROCESSING LAB

Answer one guiding question from above in a full sentence, in your own words.

Activity 4 — Close Read — US.01 ~15 min

Reading type: History Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

Between 1862 and 1869 the federal government reshaped the West. The Homestead Act offered 160 acres of “free” public land to settlers who farmed it for five years, and the Pacific Railway Act funded a Transcontinental Railroad that cut a cross-country trip from months to days. The same laws opened land the government took from American Indian nations, whose treaties were broken and whose buffalo herds collapsed. Chinese laborers built the most dangerous stretches of the Central Pacific while facing open wage discrimination.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Homestead Act, Transcontinental Railroad. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Text-dependent questions (answer in the Evidence Lab below or aloud):

1. Who received land under the Homestead Act, and who lost land because of it?
2. How did the Transcontinental Railroad change life for settlers — and for Plains nations?
3. What does the phrase “free land” hide about the cost of westward expansion?

RESPONSE CHOICE: answer any question by writing in the Evidence Lab, saying/recording it, or diagramming it.

RESPONSE CHOICE

Commit to an answer by marking it, saying it, or explaining it aloud before checking. Answer key is in the Teacher Guide (kept separate).

[DOK 1 • item u1-us01-dok1-1 • pre-field-test]

What did the Homestead Act (1862) offer settlers?

- A. 160 acres of public land for farming it five years
- B. Free railroad stock
- C. Citizenship for immigrants
- D. A federal factory job

[DOK 3 • item u1-us01-dok3-tc • pre-field-test]

A homesteading family and a Lakota family in 1875 would most likely have described the Homestead Act in very different ways. Which statement best explains why?

- A. The Homestead Act applied only to settlers and never affected American Indians in any way.
- B. The same law that opened “free” land to settlers took that land away from American Indians who already lived on it.
- C. Both families received 160 acres each under the law, so their views would have matched.
- D. The law was written to benefit American Indians first and settlers second.

STRETCH — think like a test-writer (open to all)

Write your OWN DOK-3 question for this standard, then a one-sentence answer key. Use the supports below — everyone can do this.

HOW TO WRITE A DOK-3 QUESTION (supports)

DOK-3 = strategic thinking: the reader must analyze, compare, evaluate, or justify using evidence — and there should be more than one defensible answer (not a fact you can just look up).

Sentence starters: “Why did _____ lead to _____?” • “Which mattered more — _____ or _____ — and why?” • “What is the BEST evidence that _____?” • “Evaluate whether _____.” • “Defend or challenge: _____.”

Frame: [Analyze / Evaluate / Justify] + [something from THIS standard] + “using evidence.”

Quick check: does my question make the reader THINK and use evidence? If yes, it’s DOK-3.

Your DOK-3 question	Your answer key (one sentence)

Activity 7 — Constructed Response (CER) — US.01 ~15 min

BIG-QUESTION ORGANIZER (before you write) — as the U.S. industrialized, who benefited and who bore the costs?

Plan your argument here, then use it to write your claim, evidence, and reasoning below.

The big question	Your quick notes (from this standard)
Who benefited?
Who bore the costs?
Who decided?

CONSTRUCTED RESPONSE (CER) — builds SSP.04 Argumentation

Claim + Evidence + Reasoning: Was westward expansion mainly “opportunity” or mainly “dispossession”? Defend your claim with two specific pieces of evidence from this standard.

Part	Write here
Claim
Evidence (two specifics)
Reasoning

SELF-CHECK against the CER rubric (see Toolkit)

Before submitting: Is my claim defensible? Do I have TWO specific pieces of evidence? Does my reasoning explain HOW the evidence proves the claim?

EXIT TICKET — before you leave [item US.01-Q02 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

Which statement best explains how the Transcontinental Railroad facilitated western expansion?

- A. It was built exclusively by American workers, providing jobs for tens of thousands of unemployed citizens
- B. It eliminated the need for wagon trains and stagecoaches almost overnight, ending earlier overland travel
- C. It reduced travel time from months to days and enabled efficient movement of settlers, goods, and resources across the continent
- D. It provided direct access to gold mines in California

Show what you know (your choice): mark the best answer, say it, or explain it — then rate how sure you are: ☐ Not yet ☐ Getting there ☐ Got it

Answer key and next steps are in the Teacher Guide.

Standard US.02 — Federal Policies Toward American Indians

TN Academic Standard US.02: Examine federal policies toward American Indians, including the movement to reservations, assimilation, boarding schools, and the Dawes Act. (C, G, H, P, T)

LEARNING TARGETS — I can...

- I can analyze the stated purpose of the Dawes Act and its impact.
- I can explain how government policy affected American Indians in relation to reservations and assimilation, and the purpose of boarding schools.

Lenses for this standard: Geography (G) • Culture (C) • History (H) • Politics/Government (P) • Tennessee (T)

CORE PATH — the same for every student

Term	Student-friendly meaning	Spanish
Reservation System	Federal policy that confined Native American tribes to designated areas of land, often far from their ancestral territories, to control indigenous populations and open land for white settlement.	Sistema de Reservas
Assimilation	Federal policy aimed at forcing Native Americans to abandon their traditional cultures and adopt European-American ways of life, including language, religion, and customs.	Asimilación
Dawes Act	An 1887 law that divided tribal lands into individual allotments, aiming to break up reservations and assimilate Native Americans; it resulted in massive Native land loss.	Ley Dawes

PROGRESS CHECK • one question

Based on the excerpt, what was the most likely long-term effect of dividing tribal land “in severalty” under the Dawes Act?

- A. It strengthened tribal governments and expanded reservation territory.
- B. It returned ancestral homelands to tribal control.
- C. It had no measurable effect on Native landholding.
- D. It broke up communal tribal ownership and led to large-scale Native land loss.

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — US.02

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Reservation System	Federal policy that confined Native American tribes to designated areas of land, often far from their ancestral territories, to control indigenous populations and open land for white settlement.
Assimilation	Federal policy aimed at forcing Native Americans to abandon their traditional cultures and adopt European-American ways of life, including language, religion, and customs.
Dawes Act	An 1887 law that divided tribal lands into individual allotments, aiming to break up reservations and assimilate Native Americans; it resulted in massive Native land loss.

Break it into steps:

1) Name one cause or effect. 2) Give one piece of evidence. 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of federal policies toward american indians was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of federal policies toward american indians was Reservation System: Federal policy that confined Native American tribes to designated areas of land, often far from their ancestral territories, to control indigenous populations and open land for white settlement.

Guiding questions — answer on the lines below (or in your front notes):

- What was the stated purpose of allotment “in severalty” under the Dawes Act?
- How did boarding schools attempt to erase Native cultures?
- What was the long-term effect of the Dawes Act on tribal landholding?

WHICH CUE STILL NEEDS WORK?

Circle the Cornell cue from the front page you still need help with, and tell your teacher so we can go over it.

LIGHT PROCESSING LAB

Answer one guiding question from above in a full sentence, in your own words.

Activity 4 — Close Read — US.02 ~15 min

Reading type: History Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

After the Civil War the federal government confined American Indian nations to reservations far smaller than their homelands. Boarding schools such as Carlisle pursued forced assimilation under the motto “Kill the Indian, save the man.” The Dawes Act of 1887 then broke communal tribal land into individual allotments and sold the “surplus” — tribal holdings fell from about 138 million acres to 48 million by 1934.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Reservation System, Assimilation. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Text-dependent questions (answer in the Evidence Lab below or aloud):

1. What was the stated purpose of allotment “in severalty” under the Dawes Act?
2. How did boarding schools attempt to erase Native cultures?
3. What was the long-term effect of the Dawes Act on tribal landholding?

RESPONSE CHOICE: answer any question by writing in the Evidence Lab, saying/recording it, or diagramming it.

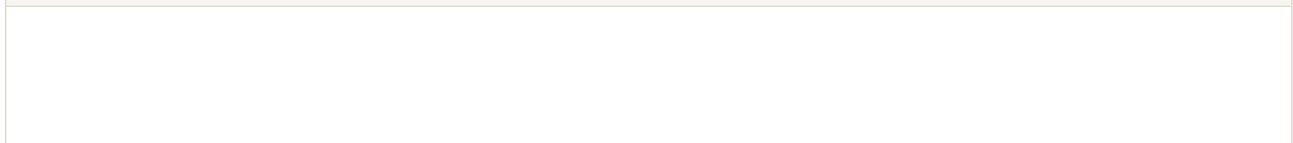

CLOSE-READ EVIDENCE LAB

Log evidence from the passage below.

Question / claim	Exact passage evidence	What the evidence shows

GEOGRAPHER'S LENS (G • SSP.06) — sketch & label the geography

Where were reservations located compared with American Indian nations' original homelands? Show homelands and reservations, label at least two nations, and draw arrows for the movement the Dawes Act and removal forced. Then draw a quick map below and label at least two places.

Standard US.03 — Compromise of 1877, Jim Crow & Plessy v. Ferguson

TN Academic Standard US.03: Explain the impact of the Compromise of 1877, including Jim Crow laws, lynching, disenfranchisement methods, the efforts of Benjamin “Pap” Singleton and the Exodusters, and the Plessy v. Ferguson decision. (C, G, H, P, T, TCA) (T.C.A. § 49-6-1006)

LEARNING TARGETS — I can...

- I can explain the impact of the Presidential election of 1876 and the end of Reconstruction.
- I can explain the impact of the Compromise of 1877 on African Americans, including Jim Crow laws, lynchings, and voting restrictions.
- I can explain the efforts of Pap Singleton and the reasoning of the Exodusters’ westward migration to Kansas.
- I can define the “separate but equal” doctrine and explain how states implemented it, with examples.

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — US.04

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Gilded Age	The period from roughly 1870 to 1900 of rapid growth, industrialization, and extreme wealth inequality — named by Mark Twain to suggest a thin gold layer over deep social problems.
Political Machines	Corrupt organizations that controlled city politics through patronage, bribery, and vote manipulation, often trading services to immigrants for political support.
Spoils System	The practice of rewarding political supporters with government jobs regardless of qualifications — 'to the victor belong the spoils.'

Break it into steps:

- 1) Name one cause or effect. 2) Give one piece of evidence. 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of gilded age politics and economics was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of gilded age politics and economics was Gilded Age: The period from roughly 1870 to 1900 of rapid growth, industrialization, and extreme wealth inequality — named by Mark Twain to suggest a thin gold layer over deep social problems.

GUIDED NOTE REHEARSAL LAB

Gilded Age
Political Machines
Spoils System

Guiding questions — answer on the lines below (or in your front notes):

- How did political machines keep power in Gilded Age cities?
- Why did Garfield’s assassination lead to the Pendleton Act?
- Who bore the costs of Gilded Age economic inequality?

WHICH CUE STILL NEEDS WORK?

Circle the Cornell cue from the front page you still need help with, and tell your teacher so we can go over it.

LIGHT PROCESSING LAB

Answer one guiding question from above in a full sentence, in your own words.

Activity 4 — Close Read — US.04 ~15 min

Reading type: History Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

Gilded Age politics ran on machines and money. Bosses like William “Boss” Tweed of Tammany Hall controlled cities through patronage, while scandals such as Crédit Mobilier and the spoils system exposed deep corruption — until President Garfield’s 1881 assassination forced reform. The Pendleton Act (1883) began merit-based hiring and the Interstate Commerce Act (1887) began federal economic regulation, even as wealth concentrated at the top and farmers and wage earners struggled.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Gilded Age, Political Machines. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Text-dependent questions (answer in the Evidence Lab below or aloud):

1. How did political machines keep power in Gilded Age cities?
2. Why did Garfield’s assassination lead to the Pendleton Act?
3. Who bore the costs of Gilded Age economic inequality?

RESPONSE CHOICE: answer any question by writing in the Evidence Lab, saying/recording it, or diagramming it.

CLOSE-READ EVIDENCE LAB

Log evidence from the passage below.

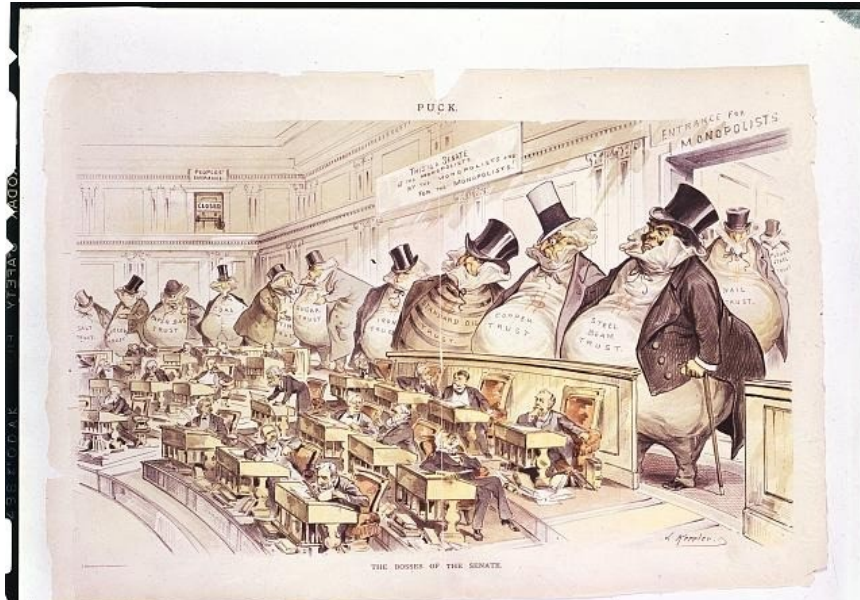

Question / claim	Exact passage evidence	What the evidence shows

GEOGRAPHER’S LENS (G • SSP.06) — sketch & label the geography

Political machines ran big cities. In a sentence, explain why machine politics grew in cities rather than rural areas. Then draw a quick map below and label at least two places.

Activity 5 — Primary Source / Data Analysis — US.04 ⌚ ~15 min

- D. Both were written after the spoils system ended.

STRETCH — think like a test-writer (open to all)

Write your OWN DOK-3 question for this standard, then a one-sentence answer key. Use the supports below — everyone can do this.

HOW TO WRITE A DOK-3 QUESTION (supports)

DOK-3 = strategic thinking: the reader must analyze, compare, evaluate, or justify using evidence — and there should be more than one defensible answer (not a fact you can just look up).

Sentence starters: “Why did _____ lead to _____?” • “Which mattered more — _____ or _____ — and why?” • “What is the BEST evidence that _____?” • “Evaluate whether _____.” • “Defend or challenge: _____.”

Frame: [Analyze / Evaluate / Justify] + [something from THIS standard] + “using evidence.”

Quick check: does my question make the reader THINK and use evidence? If yes, it’s DOK-3.

Standard US.05 — Inventions & Innovations of Business Leaders & Entrepreneurs

TN Academic Standard US.05: Describe the changes in American life that resulted from the inventions and innovations of business leaders and entrepreneurs of the period, including the significance of: Alexander Graham Bell, Henry Bessemer, Andrew Carnegie, Thomas Edison, J.P. Morgan, John D. Rockefeller, Nikola Tesla, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Madam C.J. Walker, George Washington Carver. (C, E, H)

LEARNING TARGETS — I can...

- I can associate the innovators with their industrial and technological contributions.
- I can describe the cultural and economic changes in American life that resulted from the inventions and innovations of each business leader and entrepreneur listed.

Lenses for this standard: Culture (C) • Economics (E) • History (H)

CORE PATH — the same for every student

Every student works this standard at the same rigor: analyze the sources and vocabulary, then demonstrate learning on the Practice Quiz and CER. UDL and MTSS give you flexible ways in — they never lower the bar. Check yourself against the learning targets on the Cornell Notes page.

SET YOUR GOAL (self-direction)

My goal for this standard — what will I be able to do, and how will I show it?

HOOK — think before you dig in

Key terms to know first: Urbanization, Granger Movement. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Text-dependent questions (answer in the Evidence Lab below or aloud):

1. Why did industry concentrate in specific cities?
2. What pulled rural Americans and immigrants into cities?
3. What were the costs of rapid urban growth?

[DOK 1 • item u1-us06-dok1-1 • pre-field-test]

Urbanization in this era refers to:

- A. The rapid growth of cities from industrialization and migration
- B. The movement of factories overseas
- C. The decline of railroads
- D. The end of farming

[DOK 2 • item u1-us06-dok2-tc • pre-field-test]

A folk saying held that immigrants came expecting “streets paved with gold,” only to find the streets unpaved — and that they were expected to pave them. What does this reveal about the immigrant experience?

- A. Immigrants found immediate wealth and success.
- B. Reality fell far short of expectations, and immigrants faced hard labor.
- C. American cities were well-developed and welcoming.
- D. Immigrants were given skilled professional jobs.

STRETCH — think like a test-writer (open to all)

HOW TO WRITE A DOK-3 QUESTION (supports)

DOK-3 = strategic thinking: the reader must analyze, compare, evaluate, or justify using evidence — and there should be more than one defensible answer (not a fact you can just look up).

Sentence starters: “Why did _____ lead to _____?” • “Which mattered more — _____ or _____ — and why?” • “What is the BEST evidence that _____?” • “Evaluate whether _____.” • “Defend or challenge: _____.”

Frame: [Analyze / Evaluate / Justify] + [something from THIS standard] + “using evidence.”

Quick check: does my question make the reader THINK and use evidence? If yes, it’s DOK-3.

EXIT TICKET — before you leave [item US.06-Q02 • DOK 2 • pre-field-test]

Which geographic factor best explains Chicago's emergence as a major industrial center?

- A. Its position at the southern tip of Lake Michigan made it a natural hub connecting eastern rail lines with western agricultural resources
- B. Its mountainous terrain provided abundant water power for manufacturing operations
- C. Its location on the Atlantic coast provided easy access to European markets and immigrant labor
- D. Its proximity to Texas oil fields provided cheap energy for industrial production

Standard US.07 — Immigration: Old vs. New Immigrants

TN Academic Standard US.07: Describe the differences between “old” and “new” immigrants, analyze the assimilation process for “new” immigrants, and determine the impacts of increased migration on American society, including: Angel Island, Ellis Island, Push and pull factors, Ethnic clusters, Jane Addams, Competition for jobs, Rise of nativism, Jacob Riis, Chinese Exclusion Act and Gentleman’s Agreement. (C, E, G, H, P)

LEARNING TARGETS — I can...

- I can describe the difference between “old” and “new” immigrants, including differences in countries of origin and culture (e.g., language and religion).
- I can define assimilation and nativism.
- I can describe the consequences of “new” immigration and its impact on American society.
- I can analyze the challenges and experiences of new immigrants in the assimilation process.

Lenses for this standard: Geography (G) • Economics (E) • Politics/Government (P) • Culture (C) • History (H)

CORE PATH — the same for every student

Every student works this standard at the same rigor: analyze the sources and vocabulary, then demonstrate learning on the Practice Quiz and CER. UDL and MTSS give you flexible ways in — they never lower the bar. Check yourself against the learning targets on the Cornell Notes page.

SET YOUR GOAL (self-direction)

My goal for this standard — what will I be able to do, and how will I show it?

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — US.07

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Old Immigrants	Immigrants who came primarily from Northern and Western Europe before 1880, often Protestant and more easily assimilated.
New Immigrants	Immigrants who came primarily from Southern and Eastern Europe and Asia after 1880, often Catholic, Jewish, or Orthodox, facing greater discrimination.
Ellis Island	The primary immigration processing station in New York Harbor from 1892 to 1954, where over 12 million immigrants — primarily Europeans — entered the United States.

Break it into steps:

1) Name one cause or effect. 2) Give one piece of evidence. 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of immigration was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of immigration was Old Immigrants: Immigrants who came primarily from Northern and Western Europe before 1880, often Protestant and more easily assimilated.

Activity 4 — Close Read — US.07 ~15 min

Reading type: History Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

“Old” immigrants came mostly from Northern and Western Europe before 1880; “new” immigrants (1880–1920) came from Southern and Eastern Europe and Asia. Ellis Island processed Europeans while Angel Island restricted Asians, and Jane Addams’s Hull House aided assimilation. Push factors like persecution and poverty and pull factors like opportunity drove the largest migration in U.S. history — and nativism produced restriction: the Chinese Exclusion Act (1882) and the Gentlemen’s Agreement (1907).

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Old Immigrants, New Immigrants. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Text-dependent questions (answer in the Evidence Lab below or aloud):

1. How did “old” and “new” immigrants differ in origin and reception?

Representation in the Industrial Era — Reached and Left Out

This section complicates the industrial-era narrative: who it reached, who it excluded, and who organized in response. It is History Hack-authored instructional synthesis grounded in this unit’s sourced record — not a primary source.

American Indian Nations

Westward expansion and the Transcontinental Railroad (US.01) crossed treaty lands; reservation, assimilation, boarding-school, and Dawes Act policy (US.02) cut tribal holdings from about 138 million acres to 48 million by 1934.

Chinese Laborers

Chinese workers built the most dangerous stretches of the Central Pacific (US.01) yet faced wage discrimination and, in 1882, the first federal law to bar an entire nationality — the Chinese Exclusion Act (US.07).

African Americans

The Compromise of 1877 ended Reconstruction’s protections (US.03); the Exodusters migrated to Kansas, while Madam C.J. Walker and George Washington Carver (US.05) built enterprise and innovation under Jim Crow.

New Immigrants & Reformers

Southern and Eastern European and Asian arrivals (US.07) met nativism and tenement poverty; reformers such as Jane Addams at Hull House organized mutual aid across social classes.

Residual note (known follow-up): sourced visuals and named Key-Figure entries for these histories remain pending.

Unit Reflection

Return to the unit’s big question: as the United States industrialized, who benefited and who bore the costs? Write a final claim with two pieces of evidence from different standards.
