★ TENNESSEE CONNECTION

Tennessee cast the deciding vote for women's suffrage. In August 1920 it became the 36th and final state needed to ratify the 19th Amendment — the 'Perfect 36' — when 24-year-old legislator Harry Burn changed his vote after a note from his mother, extending the vote to women nationwide (GC.34, GC.31).

*One common workbook designed for learner variability.
Every student works toward the same Tennessee standards; supports vary the means, not the goal or the EXTENSION	A deeper challenge once the goal is met.

Before You Begin — Set a S.M.A.R.T. Goal

Strong learners set goals — but a goal only helps if it is built well. First learn how, then write yours.

WHAT MAKES A GOAL STRONG? Build it S.M.A.R.T.

S — Specific: say exactly what you will be able to do (“explain how a bill becomes law,” not “do well”).

M — Measurable: how will you PROVE it? — a score, a diagram, or teaching a partner.

A — Achievable: a real stretch you can reach with effort — not too easy, not impossible.

R — Relevant: it connects to this unit’s big question.

T — Time-bound: name WHEN — “by the end of this unit.”

SEE THE DIFFERENCE

Weak: “I want to do good in government.” (vague — nothing to measure)

S.M.A.R.T.: “By the end of this unit I can explain how the three branches check each other, and prove it by teaching a partner and scoring 80%+ on the check.”

This unit’s big question: How do citizens shape their government — and what does it ask of them in return?

BUILD YOURS — write each piece on the lines, then combine them at the bottom

Fill in each part of your goal. Use the lines.

Part of my goal	Write your piece on the lines
S — Specific: what exactly will I be able to do?
M — Measurable: how will I prove it? (a score, a diagram, teaching a partner)

A — Achievable: what effort will it take to reach it?
R — Relevant: how does it connect to the big question above?
T — Time-bound: by when?
PUT IT TOGETHER — my S.M.A.R.T. goal in one or two sentences:

Standard GC.31 — The Responsibilities of Citizens

TN Academic Standard GC.31: Describe what should be reasonably expected from any citizen or resident of the U.S., and explain why it is important for the well-being of the nation, including: being informed on civic issues; obeying the law; paying taxes; respecting the rights of others; serving as a juror; serving in the military or alternative service; volunteering and performing public service; voting. (C, T)

LEARNING TARGETS — I can...

- I can describe what should reasonably be expected from any citizen or resident of the U.S. and explain why those responsibilities matter..

Lenses for this standard: Culture (C) · Tennessee (T)

CORE PATH — the same for every student

Every student works this standard at the same rigor: analyze the sources and vocabulary, then show what you learned on the Practice Quiz and the CER. Check yourself against the learning targets on the Cornell Notes page. Supports for each step are on the back of this page.

SET YOUR GOAL (self-direction)

My goal for this standard — what will I be able to do, and how will I show it? (Need help? See the back of this page.)

HOOK — think before you dig in

Some duties can land you in court if you skip them; others no one can force you to do — yet the republic needs both. Which is which?

ACTIVATE — what do you already know or wonder?

Jot what you already know or want to find out about this standard. You'll come back to it.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — before you dig in (you'll revisit this at the end)

In your own words: what do you think this standard is about, and why might it matter to you or your community? Write 2-3 sentences.

Getting Started — supports for this page

WHAT “CORE PATH” MEANS

Everyone learns the same standard at the same level. “Support options” are just extra ways in — sentence starters, an example, a partner, or recording your answer. They help you reach the bar; they never lower it.

SET YOUR GOAL — how to write a strong one

Example goal: “By the end of this standard I can explain ___ and prove it by scoring 80%+ on the quiz.”

How to build it: name what you’ll DO, then how you’ll PROVE it, then WHEN.

Sentence starters: “I want to be able to...” “I’ll show it by...” “By the end of this standard...”

HOOK — sentence starters

“I think the big question is...” “This connects to...” “I wonder why...” “At first I believe...”

ACTIVATE — what it means & how to answer

What it means: “Activate” = wake up what you ALREADY know before you learn more.

Sentence starters: “I already know...” “This reminds me of...” “I want to find out...”

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — what to write

Just your honest first take — there is no wrong answer. Say what you THINK the standard is about and why it might matter to you, your family, or your community. You’ll come back and improve it at the end.

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — GC.31

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Civic Responsibility	A duty a citizen is expected to fulfill for the good of the community and nation — such as voting, obeying the law, paying taxes, and serving on a jury.
Jury Duty	The responsibility to serve on a jury when called, deciding facts in a trial — a citizen's direct role in the justice system guaranteed by the 6th and 7th Amendments.
Naturalization	The legal process by which a foreign-born person becomes a U.S. citizen, gaining the rights and taking on the responsibilities of citizenship.

Break it into steps:

- 1) Name one cause or effect.
- 2) Give one piece of evidence.
- 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of the responsibilities of citizens was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of the responsibilities of citizens was Civic Responsibility: A duty a citizen is expected to fulfill for the good of the community and nation — such as voting, obeying the law, paying taxes, and serving on a jury.

Guiding questions — answer on the lines below (or in your front notes):

- According to Jefferson, what makes it safe to trust the people with their own government?
- Which responsibilities in this standard are legal duties, and which are expected of good citizens but not legally required?
- The 6th Amendment guarantees a jury — how does that make jury duty a responsibility, not just a right?

WHICH CUE STILL NEEDS WORK?

Circle the Cornell cue from the front page you still need help with, and tell your teacher so we can go over it.

LIGHT PROCESSING LAB

Answer one guiding question from above in a full sentence, in your own words.

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.31 ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

Citizenship comes with rights — and with responsibilities that keep a republic working. Some are legal duties everyone must meet: obeying the law, paying taxes, and serving on a jury when called. Others are expected of good citizens even though no one is arrested for skipping them: staying informed on civic issues, respecting the rights of others, volunteering, and voting. Thomas Jefferson argued that self-government only works when the people are 'well informed.' Naturalized citizens take on the same responsibilities as those born here, promising in the Oath of Allegiance to support the Constitution and serve the nation. A republic asks little of any one citizen — but it depends on most citizens doing their part.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Civic Responsibility, Jury Duty. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Text-dependent questions (answer in the Evidence Lab below or aloud):

1. According to Jefferson, what makes it safe to trust the people with their own government?
2. Which responsibilities in this standard are legal duties, and which are expected of good citizens but not legally required?
3. The 6th Amendment guarantees a jury — how does that make jury duty a responsibility, not just a right?

RESPONSE CHOICE: answer any question by writing in the Evidence Lab, saying/recording it, or diagramming it.

RESPONSE CHOICE

- A. Volunteering at a food bank
- B. Serving on a jury when summoned
- C. Following political news

STRETCH — think like a test-writer (open to all)

Write your OWN DOK-3 question for this standard, then a one-sentence answer key. Use the supports below — everyone can do this.

HOW TO WRITE A DOK-3 QUESTION (supports)

DOK-3 = strategic thinking: the reader must analyze, compare, evaluate, or justify using evidence — and there should be more than one defensible answer (not a fact you can just look up).

Sentence starters: “Why did _____ lead to _____?” ·
“Which mattered more — _____ or _____ — and why?” ·
“What is the BEST evidence that _____?” · “Evaluate whether _____.” · “Defend or challenge: _____.”
Frame: [Analyze / Evaluate / Justify] + [something from
THIS standard] + “using evidence.”
Quick check: does my question make the reader THINK and use evidence? If yes, it’s DOK-3.

NOW WRITE YOUR DOK-3 QUESTION HERE

Activity 7 — Constructed Response (CER)

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — GC.32

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Political Party	An organized group that seeks to win elections and control government by nominating candidates and uniting voters around shared ideas.
Primary Election	An election in which party members vote to choose their party's candidate for the general election; an 'open' primary lets any voter participate, a 'closed' one only registered party members.
Caucus	A local meeting where party members discuss and select their preferred candidate through debate and voting, rather than a secret ballot.

Break it into steps:

- 1) Name one cause or effect.
- 2) Give one piece of evidence.
- 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of political parties & the nomination process was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of political parties & the nomination process was Political Party: An organized group that seeks to win elections and control government by nominating candidates and uniting voters around shared ideas.

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.32 ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

The Constitution never mentions political parties — and George Washington warned against 'the spirit of party.' Yet parties formed almost immediately and now organize how Americans participate. To reach the general election, a candidate must first win the party's nomination. Parties choose nominees two main ways: primaries, where members cast ballots (open primaries allow any voter; closed primaries only party members), and caucuses, where members gather in local meetings to debate and select a candidate. These contests, held state by state, build toward each party's national convention, where the nominee is made official. In the general election, voters then choose among the parties' nominees. The two-party system that resulted shapes nearly every election in the United States.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Political Party, Primary Election. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.33 ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

A free press is how citizens learn what their government is doing — which is why Thomas Jefferson said that if forced to choose, he would take 'newspapers without a government' over a government without newspapers, and why the First Amendment protects freedom of the press. The media does more than report: by choosing which stories to cover and how to frame them, it influences which issues the public treats as important. Public opinion is measured through polls, but polls are only as reliable as their methods — the wording and order of questions can nudge people toward an answer. 'Media bias' describes a slant in how information is selected or framed. A skilled citizen reads across sources, checks how a poll was worded, and separates evidence from spin.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — before you dig in (you'll revisit this at the end)

In your own words: what do you think this standard is about, and why might it matter to you or your community? Write 2–3 sentences.

Getting Started — supports for this page

— GC.34

WHAT “CORE PATH” MEANS

Everyone learns the same standard at the same level. “Support options” are just extra ways in — sentence starters, an example, a partner, or recording your answer. They help you reach the bar; they never lower it.

SET YOUR GOAL — how to write a strong one

Example goal: “By the end of this standard I can explain ___ and prove it by scoring 80%+ on the quiz.”

How to build it: name what you’ll DO, then how you’ll PROVE it, then WHEN.

Sentence starters: “I want to be able to...” “I’ll show it by...” “By the end of this standard...”

HOOK — sentence starters

“I think the big question is...” “This connects to...” “I wonder why...” “At first I believe...”

ACTIVATE — what it means & how to answer

What it means: “Activate” = wake up what you ALREADY know before you learn more.

Sentence starters: “I already know...” “This reminds me of...” “I want to find out...”

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — what to write

Just your honest first take — there is no wrong answer. Say what you THINK the standard is about and why it might matter to you, your family, or your community. You’ll come back and improve it at the end.

KEY WORDS TO WATCH FOR

Lobbying · Petition · Initiative, Referendum & Recall

NOW TRY IT — draft your goal using a starter above

Write a first draft here, then copy your best version onto the front. Aim for: what you'll DO + how you'll PROVE it + WHEN.

Activity 1 — Vocabulary (Part A: Reference / Word Bank) — GC.34 ~10 min

Use this word bank throughout the standard. The Spanish column supports access, not translation of assessment.

Initiative, Referendum & Recall	Forms of direct democracy: an initiative lets voters propose a law, a referendum lets them approve or reject one, and a recall lets them remove an official before the term ends.	iniciativa, referéndum y revocatoria

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — GC.34

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Lobbying	The act of trying to influence the decisions of government officials, usually by individuals or organized interest groups.
Petition	A formal written request signed by many people asking the government to take (or stop) an action — a right protected by the First Amendment.
Initiative, Referendum & Recall	Forms of direct democracy: an initiative lets voters propose a law, a referendum lets them approve or reject one, and a recall lets them remove an official before the term ends.

Break it into steps:

- 1) Name one cause or effect.
- 2) Give one piece of evidence.
- 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of means of political participation was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of means of political participation was Lobbying: The act of trying to influence the decisions of government officials, usually by individuals or organized interest groups.

Guiding questions — answer on the lines below (or in your front notes):

- Which forms of participation does the First Amendment directly protect, and how?
- How do initiative, referendum, and recall give voters power between elections?
- The Declaration says government rests on the people — how does that idea justify protest and petition?

WHICH CUE STILL NEEDS WORK?

LIGHT PROCESSING LAB

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.34 ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

Voting is the most familiar way citizens take part in government — but it is far from the only one. Citizens campaign for candidates, demonstrate to draw attention to issues, lobby officials to influence decisions, sign petitions, and run for office themselves. The First Amendment protects the right to 'peaceably assemble' and to 'petition the Government,' and the Declaration of Independence grounds participation in the idea that government derives its authority from the people. Some states add tools of direct democracy: the initiative (voters propose a law), the referendum (voters approve or reject one), and the recall (voters remove an official early). Each is a channel through which ordinary people shape what government does — proof that in a republic, participation does not end at the ballot box.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Lobbying, Petition. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Text-dependent questions (answer in the Evidence Lab below or aloud):

1. Which forms of participation does the First Amendment directly protect, and how?
2. How do initiative, referendum, and recall give voters power between elections?
3. The Declaration says government rests on the people — how does that idea justify protest and petition?

STRETCH — think like a test-writer (open to all)

Write your OWN DOK-3 question for this standard, then a one-sentence answer key. Use the supports below — everyone can do this.

HOW TO WRITE A DOK-3 QUESTION (supports)

DOK-3 = strategic thinking: the reader must analyze, compare, evaluate, or justify using evidence — and there should be more than one defensible answer (not a fact you can just look up).

Sentence starters: “Why did _____ lead to _____?” ·
“Which mattered more — _____ or _____ — and why?” ·
“What is the BEST evidence that _____?” · “Evaluate whether _____.” · “Defend or challenge: _____.”
Frame: [Analyze / Evaluate / Justify] + [something from
THIS standard] + “using evidence.”
Quick check: does my question make the reader THINK
and use evidence? If yes, it’s DOK-3.

Activity 7 — Constructed Response (CER)

3 — Proficient	Clear	2 accurate	Explains the link
2 — Developing	General	1 accurate	Partial link
1 — Beginning	Unclear / missing	Missing / inaccurate	No reasoning

Claim: ____ / 4 Evidence: ____ / 4 Reasoning: ____ / 4
TOTAL: ____ / 12

SUPPORTS — sentence frames (use if you need them)

Claim: “_____ because _____.”

Evidence: “One example is _____ (from _____). Another is _____.”

Reasoning: “This proves my claim because _____, which shows _____.”

REVISE — make your lowest-scoring part stronger

Pick the part you scored lowest and rewrite it here — better:

Your Tennessee Connection

★ TENNESSEE CONNECTION

Tennessee cast the deciding vote for women's suffrage. In August 1920 it became the 36th and final state needed to ratify the 19th Amendment — the 'Perfect 36' — when 24-year-old legislator Harry Burn changed his vote after a note from his mother, extending the vote to women nationwide (GC.34, GC.31).

Reflect (RESPONSE CHOICE): How does a Tennessee connection change the way you understand a national idea? Answer by writing, recording, or diagramming.

Tennessee Civics Investigation

Participation in Tennessee has expanded over time. Investigate one way a Tennessean can take part in government today — registering to vote, serving on a jury, attending a council meeting, or contacting a representative — and record the exact requirement or step.

Whose Participation Counts?

Perspectives on Civic Voice

This section complicates the story of participation: who could take part, who was kept out, and who organized to widen the circle. It is Government Hack–authored instructional synthesis grounded in this unit's sourced record — not a primary source.

The Expanding Franchise

Voting was first limited mostly to white male property owners; the 15th, 19th, 24th, and 26th Amendments and the Voting Rights Act widened it over time (connects to GC.34, GC.31).

Political Parties

Parties organize voters and run the nomination process through caucuses and primaries — a system Washington warned against yet one that structures modern participation (GC.32).

The Media & Public Opinion

A free press informs citizens and shapes which issues seem to matter; poll wording and media framing can move opinion as much as report it (GC.33).

The Non-Voter

Millions eligible to vote do not; low turnout raises the question of whose interests get represented when participation is unequal (GC.31, GC.33).

Unit Reflection

Return to the unit's big question: How do citizens shape their government — and what does it ask of them in
