★ TENNESSEE CONNECTION

One person, one vote started in Tennessee. Charles Baker, a voter from Shelby County (Memphis), sued because the state had not redrawn its legislative districts since 1901 — leaving a Memphis vote worth about one-eighth of a rural vote. In Baker v. Carr (1962) the Supreme Court ruled that federal courts could hear redistricting cases, opening the door to the 'one person, one vote' standard (GC.11).

One common workbook designed for learner variability. Every student works toward the same Tennessee standards; supports vary the means, not the goal or the ceiling.

Source integrity. Every primary source in this unit is public-domain and cited to its holding repository (National Archives, Library of Congress). See the Source Library.

Reading provenance (district-clear). Close-Read passages are labeled “Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis” — they build on the standard record and are not presented as primary sources.

Framework stack. This workbook anchors to Tennessee U.S. Government & Civics standards GC.35 · GC.10–GC.15 and the Social Studies Practices (SSP.01–SSP.06), and is designed on CAST UDL 3.0 and an MTSS support model.

Pacing. Each standard is built for one 45-minute class period. Each activity shows a  ~ minutes estimate at its heading. There is more here than one period holds — your teacher chooses which activities you do in class; the rest may become warm-ups, stations, or homework.

Table of Contents

Tennessee Standards & SSP Crosswalk

Each standard below is taught to the full Course Standard expectation; the Social Studies Practices are embedded in every activity cycle.

How to Use This Workbook

Each standard runs the same seven-activity cycle: (1) Vocabulary Word Bank, (2) Vocabulary Studio, (3) Direct-Teaching Cornell Notes with optional Guided and Light Support Backs, (4) Close Read, (5) Primary Source / Data Analysis, (6) Core Application Practice Quiz, (7) Constructed Response (CER). Work the CORE PATH; reach for SUPPORT OPTIONS as needed.

Label legend — these appear throughout every standard cycle

Label	Meaning
CORE PATH	The essential instruction every student completes.
SUPPORT OPTION	An optional scaffold that keeps the goal, not lowers it.
LANGUAGE SUPPORT	Vocabulary, pronunciation, and Spanish cognates for access.
RESPONSE CHOICE	Show learning by writing, saying/recording, or diagramming.
PROGRESS CHECK	A quick DOK-2/3 check that guides reteach or extend.
EXTENSION	A deeper challenge once the goal is met.

Before You Begin — Set a S.M.A.R.T. Goal

Strong learners set goals — but a goal only helps if it is built well. First learn how, then write yours.

WHAT MAKES A GOAL STRONG? Build it S.M.A.R.T.

S — Specific: say exactly what you will be able to do (“explain how a bill becomes law,” not “do well”).

M — Measurable: how will you PROVE it? — a score, a diagram, or teaching a partner.

A — Achievable: a real stretch you can reach with effort — not too easy, not impossible.

R — Relevant: it connects to this unit’s big question.

T — Time-bound: name WHEN — “by the end of this unit.”

SEE THE DIFFERENCE

Weak: “I want to do good in government.” (vague — nothing to measure)

S.M.A.R.T.: “By the end of this unit I can explain how the three branches check each other, and prove it by teaching a partner and scoring 80%+ on the check.”

This unit’s big question: How does Congress represent the people — and where do its powers begin and end?

BUILD YOURS — write each piece on the lines, then combine them at the bottom

Fill in each part of your goal. Use the lines.

Part of my goal	Write your piece on the lines
S — Specific: what exactly will I be able to do?	_____ _____
M — Measurable: how will I prove it? (a score, a diagram, teaching a partner)	_____ _____
A — Achievable: what effort will it take to reach it?	_____ _____
R — Relevant: how does it connect to the big question above?	_____ _____
T — Time-bound: by when?	_____ _____

PUT IT TOGETHER — my S.M.A.R.T. goal in one or two sentences:

Standard GC.35 — Citizenship & Naturalization

TN Academic Standard GC.35: Explain the requirements to be considered a natural-born U.S. citizen, and describe the process of naturalization, including the knowledge required by the Naturalization Test. (T)

LEARNING TARGETS — I can...

- I can explain who is a natural-born U.S. citizen and describe the process of naturalization..

Lenses for this standard: Tennessee (T)

CORE PATH — the same for every student

Every student works this standard at the same rigor: analyze the sources and vocabulary, then show what you learned on the Practice Quiz and the CER. Check yourself against the learning targets on the Cornell Notes page. Supports for each step are on the back of this page.

SET YOUR GOAL (self-direction)

My goal for this standard — what will I be able to do, and how will I show it? (Need help? See the back of this page.)

HOOK — think before you dig in

You could be asked the same civics question a new citizen must answer to be sworn in. Could you pass the test to join the country you already live in?

ACTIVATE — what do you already know or wonder?

Jot what you already know or want to find out about this standard. You'll come back to it.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — before you dig in (you'll revisit this at the end)

In your own words: what do you think this standard is about, and why might it matter to you or your community? Write 2-3 sentences.

Getting Started — supports for this page — GC.35

WHAT “CORE PATH” MEANS

Everyone learns the same standard at the same level. “Support options” are just extra ways in — sentence starters, an example, a partner, or recording your answer. They help you reach the bar; they never lower it.

SET YOUR GOAL — how to write a strong one

Example goal: “By the end of this standard I can explain ___ and prove it by scoring 80%+ on the quiz.”

How to build it: name what you’ll DO, then how you’ll PROVE it, then WHEN.

Sentence starters: “I want to be able to...” “I’ll show it by...” “By the end of this standard...”

HOOK — sentence starters

“I think the big question is...” “This connects to...” “I wonder why...” “At first I believe...”

ACTIVATE — what it means & how to answer

What it means: “Activate” = wake up what you ALREADY know before you learn more.

Sentence starters: “I already know...” “This reminds me of...” “I want to find out...”

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — what to write

Just your honest first take — there is no wrong answer. Say what you THINK the standard is about and why it might matter to you, your family, or your community. You’ll come back and improve it at the end.

CONNECT THE TERMS (UDL · build understanding)

How do these priority terms fit together? Write how one leads to or affects another on the lines — or map it in the Sketch Studio on the back.

Activity 2 — Sketch Studio (draw it or say it) — GC.35

SAY IT — pick one way to explain your terms aloud

Explain each priority term to a shoulder partner, then have them explain one back to you.

Or explain a term to your teacher during check-in.

Or record a 20–30 second voice note: say the term, what it means, and one real example.

Or stand and share one term with the class.

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — GC.35

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Natural-Born Citizen	A person who is a U.S. citizen at birth — by being born in the U.S. or, in most cases, to U.S.-citizen parents; a requirement to be President.
Naturalization	The legal process by which a foreign-born person becomes a U.S. citizen, including residency, an application, an interview, the Naturalization Test, and an Oath of Allegiance.
Naturalization Test	A civics and English test applicants must pass to naturalize, drawn from 100 questions about American history and government.

Break it into steps:

1) Name one cause or effect. 2) Give one piece of evidence. 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of citizenship & naturalization was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of citizenship & naturalization was Natural-Born Citizen: A person who is a U.S. citizen at birth — by being born in the U.S. or, in most cases, to U.S.-citizen parents; a requirement to be President.

GUIDED NOTE REHEARSAL LAB — practice ONE note, step by step

Build one good note here first, then copy it onto your Cornell page. Name the idea → give one piece of evidence → explain the link → write a short headline.

Step	Rehearse it here
Name it	_____ _____
Evidence	_____ _____
Explain	_____ _____
Headline	_____ _____

TRANSFER CHECK — move one rehearsed idea onto the front notes

Light Support for the Cornell Notes — GC.35

A lighter scaffold for the SAME Cornell notes. Try the notes first; reach for this only if you need it.

Key vocabulary	Finish the idea — “This term means ...”
Natural-Born Citizen
Naturalization
Naturalization Test

Guiding questions — answer on the lines below (or in your front notes):

- What power does Article I, Section 8 give Congress over citizenship, and why does it say 'uniform'?
- According to the 14th Amendment, who is a citizen at birth?
- What must a foreign-born person do to naturalize, and why include a civics test?

WHICH CUE STILL NEEDS WORK?

Circle the Cornell cue from the front page you still need help with, and tell your teacher so we can go over it.

LIGHT PROCESSING LAB

Answer one guiding question from above in a full sentence, in your own words.

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.35 ⌚ ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

There are two paths to U.S. citizenship. A natural-born citizen is a citizen at birth — generally by being born in the United States (as the 14th Amendment guarantees) or, in most cases, to U.S.-citizen parents. Only a natural-born citizen may become President. A foreign-born person becomes a citizen through naturalization, a process Congress controls under its Article I power to set 'an uniform Rule of Naturalization.' Applicants must meet residency requirements, apply, be interviewed, pass the Naturalization Test on U.S. civics and English, and take an Oath of Allegiance. The 100-question test asks exactly the kind of civics this course teaches — proof that citizenship is not only a status but a body of shared knowledge.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Natural-Born Citizen, Naturalization. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Text-dependent questions (answer in the Evidence Lab below or aloud):

1. What power does Article I, Section 8 give Congress over citizenship, and why does it say 'uniform'?
2. According to the 14th Amendment, who is a citizen at birth?
3. What must a foreign-born person do to naturalize, and why include a civics test?

RESPONSE CHOICE: answer any question by writing in the Evidence Lab, saying/recording it, or diagramming it.

Activity 5 — Primary Source / Data Analysis — GC.35 ~15 min

Inspectors examining eyes of immigrants, Ellis Island • LOC • c.1913

FIRST LOOK — before you analyze
Jot 3–4 things you notice in the source (details, words, people, dates). No wrong answers.

HIPPO — analyze the source (prompt)	Your analysis
H — Historical context: what was happening when this was created?
I — Intended audience: who was meant to see or obey it?
P — Purpose: why was it created?
P — Point of view: whose perspective does it reflect?

HIPPO — analyze the source (prompt)	Your analysis
O — Outside connection: how does it connect to this standard?

Primary Source Analysis — go deeper — GC.35

SUPPORT OPTION (use if you need it)

Sentence frame: This source shows _____ because it _____, which reveals _____.

SOURCE SYNTHESIS — put it together (SSP.03)

In 2–3 sentences: what does this source reveal about this standard, and how do you know? Cite one specific detail from it.

THINK LIKE A HISTORIAN — corroborate or challenge (SSP.03)

Name ONE other source that could CONFIRM this one, and ONE way it could COMPLICATE or CHALLENGE it — or, whose voice is missing here?

SO WHAT? — why this source still matters today

In 1–2 sentences: why does this source still matter for understanding government today?

CONFIDENCE CHECK-IN

Rate your understanding of this standard (1–4): _____ One thing to revisit:

Activity 6 — Core Application: Practice Quiz — GC.35 ~8 minRESPONSE CHOICE

Commit to an answer by marking it, saying it, or explaining it aloud before checking. Answer key is in the Teacher Guide (kept separate).

[DOK 1 • item u3-gc35-dok1-1 • pre-field-test]

Becoming a U.S. citizen through a legal process rather than by birth is called:

- A. Naturalization
- B. Apportionment
- C. Cloture
- D. Ratification

[DOK 2 • item u1-gc35-dok2-tc • pre-field-test]

Which power does the Constitution give to Congress regarding citizenship?

- A. To choose which states may grant citizenship
- B. To deny citizenship to anyone born in the U.S.
- C. To establish a uniform rule of naturalization
- D. To require every citizen to pass the Naturalization Test

STRETCH — think like a test-writer (open to all)

Write your OWN DOK-3 question for this standard, then a one-sentence answer key. Use the supports below — everyone can do this.

HOW TO WRITE A DOK-3 QUESTION (supports)

DOK-3 = strategic thinking: the reader must analyze, compare, evaluate, or justify using evidence — and there should be more than one defensible answer (not a fact you can just look up).

Sentence starters: “Why did _____ lead to _____?” • “Which mattered more — _____ or _____ — and why?” • “What is the BEST evidence that _____?” • “Evaluate whether _____.” • “Defend or challenge: _____.”

Frame: [Analyze / Evaluate / Justify] + [something from THIS standard] + “using evidence.”

Quick check: does my question make the reader THINK and use evidence? If yes, it's DOK-3.

NOW WRITE YOUR DOK-3 QUESTION HERE

YOUR ANSWER KEY — one clear, defensible sentence

Activity 7 — Constructed Response (CER) — GC.35 ⌚ ~15 min

BIG-QUESTION ORGANIZER (before you write) — How does Congress represent the people — and where do its powers begin and end?

Plan your argument here, then use it to write your claim, evidence, and reasoning below.

Plan your argument	Your quick notes (from this standard)
My claim (answer the prompt)
Evidence 1 (a source or fact)
Reasoning (why it proves the claim)

CONSTRUCTED RESPONSE (CER) — builds SSP.04 Argumentation

Claim + Evidence + Reasoning: Should the President be required to be a natural-born citizen? Defend your claim with evidence from the Constitution.

Claim
Evidence (two specifics)
Reasoning

Constructed Response — self-grade & supports — GC.35

SELF-GRADE — score your own CER against the rubric below

Reread your response, then circle the level that best fits each part. Being honest here is how you level up.

Level	Claim	Evidence	Reasoning
4 — Strong	Precise, defensible	2+ accurate, specific	Explains HOW evidence proves the claim
3 — Proficient	Clear	2 accurate	Explains the link
2 — Developing	General	1 accurate	Partial link
1 — Beginning	Unclear / missing	Missing / inaccurate	No reasoning

MY SCORE

Claim: ____ / 4 Evidence: ____ / 4 Reasoning: ____ / 4 TOTAL: ____ / 12

SUPPORTS — sentence frames (use if you need them)

Claim: “_____ because _____.”

Evidence: “One example is _____ (from _____). Another is _____.”

Reasoning: “This proves my claim because _____, which shows _____.”

REVISE — make your lowest-scoring part stronger

Pick the part you scored lowest and rewrite it here — better:

Standard GC.10 — Article I & the 17th Amendment

TN Academic Standard GC.10: Analyze Article I and the 17th Amendment of the Constitution as they relate to the legislative branch, including eligibility for office, roles, length of terms, and election to office for representatives and senators, respectively. (H)

LEARNING TARGETS — I can...

- I can analyze Article I and the 17th Amendment — the qualifications, terms, and election of members of the House and Senate..

Lenses for this standard: History (H)

CORE PATH — the same for every student

Every student works this standard at the same rigor: analyze the sources and vocabulary, then show what you learned on the Practice Quiz and the CER. Check yourself against the learning targets on the Cornell Notes page. Supports for each step are on the back of this page.

SET YOUR GOAL (self-direction)

My goal for this standard — what will I be able to do, and how will I show it? (Need help? See the back of this page.)

HOOK — think before you dig in

One chamber turns over every two years; the other moves at a six-year pace and once answered to state politicians, not voters. Why build Congress out of two such different halves?

ACTIVATE — what do you already know or wonder?

Jot what you already know or want to find out about this standard. You'll come back to it.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — before you dig in (you'll revisit this at the end)

WHAT “CORE PATH” MEANS

Everyone learns the same standard at the same level. “Support options” are just extra ways in — sentence starters, an example, a partner, or recording your answer. They help you reach the bar; they never lower it.

SET YOUR GOAL — how to write a strong one

Example goal: “By the end of this standard I can explain ___ and prove it by scoring 80%+ on the quiz.”

How to build it: name what you’ll DO, then how you’ll PROVE it, then WHEN.

Sentence starters: “I want to be able to...” “I’ll show it by...” “By the end of this standard...”

HOOK — sentence starters

“I think the big question is...” “This connects to...” “I wonder why...” “At first I believe...”

ACTIVATE — what it means & how to answer

What it means: “Activate” = wake up what you ALREADY know before you learn more.

Sentence starters: “I already know...” “This reminds me of...” “I want to find out...”

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — what to write

Just your honest first take — there is no wrong answer. Say what you THINK the standard is about and why it might matter to you, your family, or your community. You’ll come back and improve it at the end.

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — GC.10

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Bicameral	A legislature made of two houses — in Congress, the House of Representatives and the Senate.
Apportionment	The division of the 435 House seats among the states based on population, recalculated after each census.
17th Amendment	The 1913 amendment that changed the election of U.S. senators from state legislatures to a direct vote of the people.

Break it into steps:

1) Name one cause or effect. 2) Give one piece of evidence. 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of article i & the 17th amendment was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of article i & the 17th amendment was Bicameral: A legislature made of two houses — in Congress, the House of Representatives and the Senate.

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.10 ⌚ ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

Congress is bicameral — two houses with different rules. Article I sets the House of Representatives as the chamber 'chosen every second Year by the People': members serve two-year terms, must be at least 25, a citizen for seven years, and live in their state. House seats are apportioned by population after each census, so a state's delegation grows or shrinks as its population does. The Senate is the smaller, slower chamber: two senators per state, six-year terms, at least 30 years old and a citizen for nine years. Originally state legislatures chose senators; the 17th Amendment (1913) moved that choice to a direct vote of the people, making the Senate answerable to voters rather than to state politicians. The Vice President presides over the Senate but votes only to break a tie.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Bicameral, Apportionment. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

★ Tennessee Connection

A Tennessee case named in this standard: Baker v. Carr (1962) began with Charles Baker, a voter from Shelby County (Memphis). Tennessee's districts — unchanged since 1901 — had made a Memphis vote worth about one-eighth of a rural vote, and the ruling opened the door to 'one person, one vote.'

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.11 ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

Every ten years the Constitution requires a census — a full count of the population. That count drives apportionment (how the 435 House seats are split among the states) and redistricting (redrawing district lines within each state). Because district lines decide which voters are grouped together, whoever draws them holds real power; drawing them to favor one side is called gerrymandering. For decades some states, including Tennessee, simply refused to redraw districts as people moved to cities — so a rural vote could be worth many times an urban one. In Baker v. Carr (1962), the Supreme Court ruled that federal courts could hear such cases under the 14th Amendment. That decision opened the door to 'one person, one vote,' the principle that districts must hold roughly equal populations.

Standard GC.12 — Leadership of Congress

TN Academic Standard GC.12: Identify leadership positions of the legislative branch, including: Majority and Minority leaders; President pro tempore; role of the vice president; Speaker of the House. (—)

LEARNING TARGETS — I can...

- I can identify the leadership positions in both houses of Congress and explain how each is chosen..

Lenses for this standard: Civic Structure

CORE PATH — the same for every student

Every student works this standard at the same rigor: analyze the sources and vocabulary, then show what you learned on the Practice Quiz and the CER. Check yourself against the learning targets on the Cornell Notes page. Supports for each step are on the back of this page.

SET YOUR GOAL (self-direction)

My goal for this standard — what will I be able to do, and how will I show it? (Need help? See the back of this page.)

HOOK — think before you dig in

One person decides which bills the House will even vote on. Who holds that gatekeeper's gavel — and how did they get it?

ACTIVATE — what do you already know or wonder?

Jot what you already know or want to find out about this standard. You'll come back to it.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — before you dig in (you'll revisit this at the end)

In your own words: what do you think this standard is about, and why might it matter to you or your community? Write 2–3 sentences.

Getting Started — supports for this page — GC.12

WHAT “CORE PATH” MEANS

Everyone learns the same standard at the same level. “Support options” are just extra ways in — sentence starters, an example, a partner, or recording your answer. They help you reach the bar; they never lower it.

SET YOUR GOAL — how to write a strong one

Example goal: “By the end of this standard I can explain ___ and prove it by scoring 80%+ on the quiz.”

How to build it: name what you’ll DO, then how you’ll PROVE it, then WHEN.

Sentence starters: “I want to be able to...” “I’ll show it by...” “By the end of this standard...”

HOOK — sentence starters

“I think the big question is...” “This connects to...” “I wonder why...” “At first I believe...”

ACTIVATE — what it means & how to answer

What it means: “Activate” = wake up what you ALREADY know before you learn more.

Sentence starters: “I already know...” “This reminds me of...” “I want to find out...”

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — what to write

Just your honest first take — there is no wrong answer. Say what you THINK the standard is about and why it might matter to you, your family, or your community. You’ll come back and improve it at the end.

KEY WORDS TO WATCH FOR

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — GC.12

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Speaker of the House	The leader of the House of Representatives, chosen by the majority party; sets the House agenda and is second in line to the presidency.
President pro tempore	The senator who presides over the Senate in the Vice President's absence, traditionally the longest-serving member of the majority party.
Majority & Minority Leaders	The elected floor leaders of each party in each chamber, who guide their party's strategy and schedule.

Break it into steps:

1) Name one cause or effect. 2) Give one piece of evidence. 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of leadership of congress was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of leadership of congress was Speaker of the House: The leader of the House of Representatives, chosen by the majority party; sets the House agenda and is second in line to the presidency.

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.12 ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

Each chamber of Congress runs on party leadership. In the House, the majority party chooses the Speaker of the House — named in the Constitution, the Speaker leads the chamber, controls the agenda, and stands second in line to the presidency. In the Senate, the Constitution makes the Vice President the President of the Senate, who presides but votes only to break a tie; when the VP is absent, the President pro tempore (usually the longest-serving majority senator) presides. In both chambers, each party elects a Majority Leader and a Minority Leader to guide strategy and scheduling, assisted by 'whips' who count votes. Leadership decides which bills move and which stall, so knowing who holds these posts explains a great deal about what Congress does.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.13 ⌚ ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

A bill's path to becoming law is a gauntlet by design. A member introduces the bill; it goes to committee, where most bills die; if it survives, it reaches the floor. Here the chambers differ: the House Rules Committee sets strict limits on debate, so the House moves quickly, while the Senate allows extended debate — the filibuster — which a minority can use to stall a bill unless 60 senators vote for cloture to end it. Both chambers must pass identical text, often after a conference committee reconciles differences. Then, as Article I, Section 7 requires, the bill is 'presented to the President,' who may sign it into law or veto it. Congress can override a veto with a two-thirds vote of both houses. Each of these steps is a check — a chance to stop, slow, or improve a law before it binds the whole country.

STRETCH — think like a test-writer (open to all)

Write your OWN DOK-3 question for this standard, then a one-sentence answer key. Use the supports below — everyone can do this.

HOW TO WRITE A DOK-3 QUESTION (supports)

DOK-3 = strategic thinking: the reader must analyze, compare, evaluate, or justify using evidence — and there should be more than one defensible answer (not a fact you can just look up).

Sentence starters: “Why did _____ lead to _____?” · “Which mattered more — _____ or _____ — and why?” · “What is the BEST evidence that _____?” · “Evaluate whether _____.” · “Defend or challenge: _____.”

Frame: [Analyze / Evaluate / Justify] + [something from THIS standard] + “using evidence.”

Quick check: does my question make the reader THINK and use evidence? If yes, it's DOK-3.

Standard GC.14 — Tennessee's Delegation to Congress

TN Academic Standard GC.14: Identify the Tennessee representatives and senators to the U.S. Congress. (T)

LEARNING TARGETS — I can...

- I can identify who represents Tennessee in the U.S. Congress and locate my own congressional district..

Lenses for this standard: Tennessee (T)

CORE PATH — the same for every student

Every student works this standard at the same rigor: analyze the sources and vocabulary, then show what you learned on the Practice Quiz and the CER. Check yourself against the learning targets on the Cornell Notes page. Supports for each step are on the back of this page.

★ Tennessee Connection

This standard is Tennessee: it asks you to name your own members of Congress. Tennessee sends two U.S. Senators who represent the whole state, plus a House delegation set by population — find the ones who represent you.

SET YOUR GOAL (self-direction)

My goal for this standard — what will I be able to do, and how will I show it? (Need help? See the back of this page.)

HOOK — think before you dig in

Two people in Washington are paid to answer to you personally — plus one more for your neighborhood. Do you know their names?

ACTIVATE — what do you already know or wonder?

Jot what you already know or want to find out about this standard. You'll come back to it.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — before you dig in (you'll revisit this at the end)

In your own words: what do you think this standard is about, and why might it matter to you or your community? Write 2-3 sentences.

Getting Started — supports for this page — GC.14

WHAT “CORE PATH” MEANS

Everyone learns the same standard at the same level. “Support options” are just extra ways in — sentence starters, an example, a partner, or recording your answer. They help you reach the bar; they never lower it.

SET YOUR GOAL — how to write a strong one

Example goal: “By the end of this standard I can explain ___ and prove it by scoring 80%+ on the quiz.”

How to build it: name what you’ll DO, then how you’ll PROVE it, then WHEN.

Sentence starters: “I want to be able to...” “I’ll show it by...” “By the end of this standard...”

HOOK — sentence starters

“I think the big question is...” “This connects to...” “I wonder why...” “At first I believe...”

ACTIVATE — what it means & how to answer

What it means: “Activate” = wake up what you ALREADY know before you learn more.

Sentence starters: “I already know...” “This reminds me of...” “I want to find out...”

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — what to write

Just your honest first take — there is no wrong answer. Say what you THINK the standard is about and why it might matter to you, your family, or your community. You’ll come back and improve it at the end.

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — GC.14

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Congressional District	A geographic area whose voters elect one member of the U.S. House of Representatives; Tennessee is divided into several.
Delegation	The full group of a state's members of Congress — its U.S. representatives plus its two U.S. senators.
Constituent	A person who lives in the district or state a legislator represents, and whom the legislator is elected to serve.

Break it into steps:

1) Name one cause or effect. 2) Give one piece of evidence. 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of tennessee's delegation to congress was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of tennessee's delegation to congress was Congressional District: A geographic area whose voters elect one member of the U.S. House of Representatives; Tennessee is divided into several.

GUIDED NOTE REHEARSAL LAB — practice ONE note, step by step

Build one good note here first, then copy it onto your Cornell page. Name the idea → give one piece of evidence → explain the link → write a short headline.

Key vocabulary	Finish the idea — “This term means ...”
Congressional District
Delegation
Constituent

Guiding questions — answer on the lines below (or in your front notes):

- How does the Constitution decide how many senators and representatives Tennessee has?
- What is the difference between a senator's constituents and a representative's constituents?
- Why is knowing your own district the first step to contacting your representative?

WHICH CUE STILL NEEDS WORK?

Circle the Cornell cue from the front page you still need help with, and tell your teacher so we can go over it.

LIGHT PROCESSING LAB

Answer one guiding question from above in a full sentence, in your own words.

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.14 ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

Every state's voice in Congress has two parts. Tennessee, like every state, elects two U.S. Senators who represent the whole state. It also elects several U.S. Representatives — the exact number set by population through apportionment — each speaking for one congressional district. Together these members are Tennessee's delegation. The people who live in a member's district or state are that member's constituents, and a core job of any legislator is to answer to them: holding town halls, casting votes, and helping with federal problems. Knowing who your representatives are — and which district you live in — is the first step to being heard, because a legislator's office exists to serve the people back home.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Congressional District, Delegation. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Text-dependent questions (answer in the Evidence Lab below or aloud):

1. How does the Constitution decide how many senators and representatives Tennessee has?
2. What is the difference between a senator's constituents and a representative's constituents?
3. Why is knowing your own district the first step to contacting your representative?

RESPONSE CHOICE: answer any question by writing in the Evidence Lab, saying/recording it, or diagramming it.

Enumerated Powers	The powers specifically listed for Congress in the Constitution, such as taxing, borrowing, regulating commerce, and declaring war.
Implied Powers	Powers not listed but reasonably needed to carry out the enumerated powers, justified by the Necessary and Proper Clause.
Necessary & Proper Clause	The 'Elastic Clause' (Art. I, §8) letting Congress make all laws needed to carry out its powers — the basis of implied powers.

Break it into steps:

1) Name one cause or effect. 2) Give one piece of evidence. 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of the powers of congress was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of the powers of congress was Enumerated Powers: The powers specifically listed for Congress in the Constitution, such as taxing, borrowing, regulating commerce, and declaring war.

Guiding questions — answer on the lines below (or in your front notes):

- What is the difference between an enumerated and an implied power of Congress?
- How does the Necessary and Proper Clause create implied powers?
- How did Marshall's opinion in McCulloch v. Maryland expand what Congress can do?

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.15 ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

Congress's powers come in two kinds. Its enumerated powers are the ones the Constitution lists in Article I, Section 8 — to tax and spend (appropriations), to borrow, to regulate commerce, to declare war, to coin money, and to issue patents and copyrights, among others. The Senate also confirms many presidential appointments. But the Framers could not list every power Congress might need, so they added the Necessary and Proper Clause — the 'Elastic Clause' — allowing Congress to make all laws needed to carry out its listed powers. These are its implied powers. In McCulloch v. Maryland (1819), Chief Justice John Marshall upheld this broad reading: 'let the end be legitimate... and all means which are appropriate... are constitutional.' Marshall also warned that 'the power to tax involves the power to destroy,' ruling that a state could not tax the national bank. The case cemented both implied powers and national supremacy.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Enumerated Powers, Implied Powers. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Text-dependent questions (answer in the Evidence Lab below or aloud):

1. What is the difference between an enumerated and an implied power of Congress?
2. How does the Necessary and Proper Clause create implied powers?
3. How did Marshall's opinion in McCulloch v. Maryland expand what Congress can do?

RESPONSE CHOICE: answer any question by writing in the Evidence Lab, saying/recording it, or diagramming it.

The 'Elastic Clause' that stretches Congress's powers is also called the:

- A. Supremacy Clause
- B. Commerce Clause
- C. Necessary and Proper Clause
- D. Due Process Clause

[DOK 3 • item u1-gc15-dok3-tc • pre-field-test]

How did McCulloch v. Maryland (1819) affect the powers of Congress?

- A. It abolished the Necessary and Proper Clause
- B. It limited Congress to only the powers explicitly listed
- C. It gave the states power to tax the federal government
- D. It upheld broad implied powers under the Necessary and Proper Clause

STRETCH — think like a test-writer (open to all)

Write your OWN DOK-3 question for this standard, then a one-sentence answer key. Use the supports below — everyone can do this.

HOW TO WRITE A DOK-3 QUESTION (supports)

DOK-3 = strategic thinking: the reader must analyze, compare, evaluate, or justify using evidence — and there should be more than one defensible answer (not a fact you can just look up).

Sentence starters: “Why did _____ lead to _____?” • “Which mattered more — _____ or _____ — and why?” • “What is the BEST evidence that _____?” • “Evaluate whether _____.” • “Defend or challenge: _____.”

Frame: [Analyze / Evaluate / Justify] + [something from THIS standard] + “using evidence.”

Quick check: does my question make the reader THINK and use evidence? If yes, it's DOK-3.

NOW WRITE YOUR DOK-3 QUESTION HERE

YOUR ANSWER KEY — one clear, defensible sentence

Activity 7 — Constructed Response (CER) — GC.15 ~15 min

BIG-QUESTION ORGANIZER (before you write) — How does Congress represent the people — and where do its powers begin and end?

Plan your argument here, then use it to write your claim, evidence, and reasoning below.

Plan your argument	Your quick notes (from this standard)

Constructed Response — self-grade & supports — GC.15

SELF-GRADE — score your own CER against the rubric below

Reread your response, then circle the level that best fits each part. Being honest here is how you level up.

Level	Claim	Evidence	Reasoning
4 — Strong	Precise, defensible	2+ accurate, specific	Explains HOW evidence proves the claim
3 — Proficient	Clear	2 accurate	Explains the link
2 — Developing	General	1 accurate	Partial link
1 — Beginning	Unclear / missing	Missing / inaccurate	No reasoning

MY SCORE

Claim: ____ / 4 Evidence: ____ / 4 Reasoning: ____ / 4 TOTAL: ____ / 12

SUPPORTS — sentence frames (use if you need them)

Claim: “_____ because _____.”

Evidence: “One example is _____ (from _____). Another is _____.”

Reasoning: “This proves my claim because _____, which shows _____.”

REVISE — make your lowest-scoring part stronger

Pick the part you scored lowest and rewrite it here — better:

Your Tennessee Connection

★ TENNESSEE CONNECTION

One person, one vote started in Tennessee. Charles Baker, a voter from Shelby County (Memphis), sued because the state had not redrawn its legislative districts since 1901 — leaving a Memphis vote worth about one-eighth of a rural vote. In Baker v. Carr (1962) the Supreme Court ruled that federal courts could hear redistricting cases, opening the door to the 'one person, one vote' standard (GC.11).

Reflect (RESPONSE CHOICE): How does a Tennessee connection change the way you understand a national idea? Answer by writing, recording, or diagramming.

Tennessee's own unequal districts sparked a national rule. Investigate your current Tennessee state legislative district or U.S. House district — who represents it, and roughly how many people live there — and record what you find.

Who Gets Represented? Perspectives on Congress

This section examines how representation is built and contested: which places and people a legislature counts, and who draws the lines. It is Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis grounded in this unit's sourced record — not a primary source.

Large vs. Small States

The Great Compromise gave every state two senators but seats the House by population — a bargain carried straight from the Constitutional Convention (connects to GC.10, GC.04).

Urban vs. Rural Voters

For decades Tennessee's unequal districts made a rural vote worth many times an urban one, until Baker v. Carr forced 'one person, one vote' (GC.11).

Majority vs. Minority Power

Senate rules like the filibuster let a minority slow or block the majority; House rules move faster — the same bill can face very different odds (GC.13).

Who Draws the Lines

Whoever controls redistricting can shape outcomes through gerrymandering, changing who wins without changing a single vote (GC.11).

Unit Reflection

Return to the unit's big question: How does Congress represent the people — and where do its powers begin and end? Write a final claim with two pieces of evidence from different standards.
