★ TENNESSEE CONNECTION

Tennessee has sat on the nation's highest bench. John Catron, who had served as Chief Justice of Tennessee's own Supreme Court, was appointed to the U.S. Supreme Court in 1837 and served until his death in Nashville in 1865 — the first Tennessean to help decide what the Constitution means (GC.20).

*One common workbook designed for learner variability.
Every student works toward the same Tennessee standards; supports vary the means, not the goal or the Source integrity. Every primary source in this unit is public-domain and cited to its holding repository (National Archives, Library of Congress). See the Source Library.

Reading provenance (district-clear). Close-Read passages are labeled “Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis” — they build on the standard record and are not presented as primary sources.

Framework stack. This workbook anchors to Tennessee U.S. Government & Civics standards GC.19–GC.22 and the Social Studies Practices (SSP.01–SSP.06), and is designed on CAST UDL 3.0 and an MTSS support model.

Pacing. Each standard is built for one 45-minute class period. Each activity shows a 🕒 ~ minutes estimate at its heading. There is more here than one period holds — your teacher chooses which activities you do in class; the rest may become warm-ups, stations, or homework.

Table of Contents

Tennessee Standards & SSP Crosswalk

Each standard below is taught to the full Course Standard expectation; the Social Studies Practices are embedded in every activity cycle.

Standard	Focus	Student Deck slides
GC.19	Article III & Judicial Power	2-8
GC.20	Selecting & Confirming Justices	2-8
GC.21	Judicial Review & Marbury v. Madison	2-8
GC.22	Deciding What Is Constitutional	2-8

Social Studies Practices (SSP.01-SSP.06)

SSP.01 Gather/evaluate sources · SSP.02 Critically examine a primary source · SSP.03 Synthesize evidence · SSP.04 Construct/communicate argument · SSP.05 Develop historical awareness · SSP.06 Chronological/spatial reasoning. Each Close Read, Primary Source/Data, and CER activity names the practices it builds.

Accessibility, UDL & Accommodations Matrix

One firm learning goal per standard; flexible, universal means. Supports are available by design and never lower the goal. They work alongside — never in place of — required IEP or 504 accommodations.

How to Use This Workbook

Each standard runs the same seven-activity cycle: (1) Vocabulary Word Bank, (2) Vocabulary Studio, (3) Direct-Teaching Cornell Notes with optional Guided and Light Support Backs, (4) Close Read, (5) Primary Source / Data Analysis, (6) Core Application Practice Quiz, (7) Constructed Response (CER). Work the CORE PATH; reach for SUPPORT OPTIONS as needed.

Label legend — these appear throughout every standard cycle

Label	Meaning
CORE PATH	The essential instruction every student completes.
SUPPORT OPTION	An optional scaffold that keeps the goal, not lowers it.
LANGUAGE SUPPORT	Vocabulary, pronunciation, and Spanish cognates for access.
RESPONSE CHOICE	Show learning by writing, saying/recording, or diagramming.
PROGRESS CHECK	A quick DOK-2/3 check that guides reteach or extend.
EXTENSION	A deeper challenge once the goal is met.

Before You Begin — Set a S.M.A.R.T. Goal

Strong learners set goals — but a goal only helps if it is built well. First learn how, then write yours.

WHAT MAKES A GOAL STRONG? Build it S.M.A.R.T.
S — Specific: say exactly what you will be able to do (“explain how a bill becomes law,” not “do well”).
M — Measurable: how will you PROVE it? — a score, a diagram, or teaching a partner.
A — Achievable: a real stretch you can reach with effort — not too easy, not impossible.
R — Relevant: it connects to this unit’s big question.
T — Time-bound: name WHEN — “by the end of this unit.”

SEE THE DIFFERENCE
Weak: “I want to do good in government.” (vague — nothing to measure)
S.M.A.R.T.: “By the end of this unit I can explain how the three branches check each other, and prove it by teaching a partner and scoring 80%+ on the check.”

This unit’s big question: How can unelected judges check the other branches — and what limits their power?

BUILD YOURS — write each piece on the lines, then combine them at the bottom
Fill in each part of your goal. Use the lines.

Part of my goal	Write your piece on the lines
S — Specific: what exactly will I be able to do?
M — Measurable: how will I prove it? (a score, a diagram, teaching a partner)

A — Achievable: what effort will it take to reach it?
R — Relevant: how does it connect to the big question above?
T — Time-bound: by when?
PUT IT TOGETHER — my S.M.A.R.T. goal in one or two sentences:

Standard GC.19 — Article III & Judicial Power

TN Academic Standard GC.19: Analyze Article III of the U.S. Constitution as it relates to judicial power, including the length of terms and the jurisdiction of the U.S. Supreme Court. (—)

LEARNING TARGETS — I can...

- I can analyze Article III — the judicial power, the tenure of judges, and the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court..

Lenses for this standard: Civic Structure

CORE PATH — the same for every student

Every student works this standard at the same rigor: analyze the sources and vocabulary, then show what you learned on the Practice Quiz and the CER. Check yourself against the learning targets on the Cornell Notes page. Supports for each step are on the back of this page.

SET YOUR GOAL (self-direction)

My goal for this standard — what will I be able to do, and how will I show it? (Need help? See the back of this page.)

HOOK — think before you dig in

These nine officials never face an election, can't be fired for their rulings, and keep their jobs for life. Why would a democracy design a branch like that?

ACTIVATE — what do you already know or wonder?

Jot what you already know or want to find out about this standard. You'll come back to it.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — before you dig in (you'll revisit this at the end)

In your own words: what do you think this standard is about, and why might it matter to you or your community? Write 2–3 sentences.

Getting Started — supports for this page — GC.19

WHAT “CORE PATH” MEANS

Everyone learns the same standard at the same level. “Support options” are just extra ways in — sentence starters, an example, a partner, or recording your answer. They help you reach the bar; they never lower it.

SET YOUR GOAL — how to write a strong one

Example goal: “By the end of this standard I can explain ___ and prove it by scoring 80%+ on the quiz.”

How to build it: name what you’ll DO, then how you’ll PROVE it, then WHEN.

Sentence starters: “I want to be able to...” “I’ll show it by...” “By the end of this standard...”

HOOK — sentence starters

“I think the big question is...” “This connects to...” “I wonder why...” “At first I believe...”

ACTIVATE — what it means & how to answer

What it means: “Activate” = wake up what you ALREADY know before you learn more.

Sentence starters: “I already know...” “This reminds me of...” “I want to find out...”

FIRST IMPRESSIONS — what to write

Just your honest first take — there is no wrong answer. Say what you THINK the standard is about and why it might matter to you, your family, or your community. You’ll come back and improve it at the end.

Activity 2 — Vocabulary Studio (Frayer-inspired) — GC.19

 ~7 min

RESPONSE CHOICE — three ways to complete each studio

WRITE: fill in the four boxes below in your own words.

SAY IT: explain the term aloud to a partner or your teacher, or record a short voice note — say the term, its meaning, and one example.

DIAGRAM: sketch or map the term in the Sketch Studio on the back of this page.

PRIORITY TERM 1 Jurisdiction · ES: jurisdicción

Word-bank meaning to build on: The authority of a court to hear and decide a case; the Supreme Court has both original and appellate jurisdiction under Article III.

Definition (in your own words)	Characteristics
Examples	Non-examples

Use it to explain

Write one sentence that uses “Jurisdiction” to explain this standard.

PRIORITY TERM 2 Appellate Jurisdiction · ES: jurisdicción de apelación

Word-bank meaning to build on: The authority of a higher court to review and revise the decision of a lower court; most Supreme Court cases arrive this way.

Definition (in your own words)	Characteristics
Examples	Non-examples

Use it to explain

Write one sentence that uses “Appellate Jurisdiction” to explain this standard.

CONNECT THE TERMS (UDL · build understanding)

How do these priority terms fit together? Write how one leads to or affects another on the lines — or map it in the Sketch Studio on the back.

Activity 2 — Sketch Studio (draw it or say it) — GC.19

SAY IT — pick one way to explain your terms aloud

Explain each priority term to a shoulder partner, then have them explain one back to you.

Or explain a term to your teacher during check-in.

Or record a 20–30 second voice note: say the term, what it means, and one real example.

Or stand and share one term with the class.

DIAGRAM: Jurisdiction

Draw, map, or symbolize this term — a picture, an icon, a quick web, or an example scene. Label your drawing.

DIAGRAM: Appellate Jurisdiction

Draw, map, or symbolize this term — a picture, an icon, a quick web, or an example scene. Label your drawing.

CONNECT THE TERMS — concept map

Put both terms in the box and draw arrows to show how one leads to, needs, or affects the other. Write a few words on each arrow.

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — GC.19

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Jurisdiction	The authority of a court to hear and decide a case; the Supreme Court has both original and appellate jurisdiction under Article III.
Life Tenure (Good Behaviour)	Federal judges hold office 'during good Behaviour' — effectively for life — so they can decide cases free from political pressure.
Appellate Jurisdiction	The authority of a higher court to review and revise the decision of a lower court; most Supreme Court cases arrive this way.

Break it into steps:

- 1) Name one cause or effect.
- 2) Give one piece of evidence.
- 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of article iii & judicial power was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of article iii & judicial power was Jurisdiction: The authority of a court to hear and decide a case; the Supreme Court has both original and appellate jurisdiction under Article III.

Jurisdiction
Life Tenure (Good Behaviour)
Appellate Jurisdiction

Guiding questions — answer on the lines below (or in your front notes):

- What does Article III vest in 'one supreme Court,' and who creates the lower courts?
- How does 'good Behaviour' tenure protect judicial independence?
- What is the difference between original and appellate jurisdiction?

WHICH CUE STILL NEEDS WORK?

Circle the Cornell cue from the front page you still need help with, and tell your teacher so we can go over it.

LIGHT PROCESSING LAB

Answer one guiding question from above in a full sentence, in your own words.

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.19 ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

Article III creates the judicial branch in a single sentence and leaves the rest to Congress: it vests 'the judicial Power' in 'one supreme Court' and lets Congress create the lower federal courts. To protect judicial independence, judges hold their offices 'during good Behaviour' — effectively for life — and their pay cannot be cut, so they can decide cases without fear of politics. Article III also defines the courts' jurisdiction, the authority to hear a case. The Supreme Court has original jurisdiction (a case starts there) in a few situations, but most cases reach it through appellate jurisdiction — an appeal from a lower court. A federal judge is removed only by impeachment, which is rare. The design trades democratic control for independence: judges answer to the Constitution, not to the voters.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Jurisdiction, Life Tenure (Good Behaviour). Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Text-dependent questions (answer in the Evidence Lab below or aloud):

1. What does Article III vest in 'one supreme Court,' and who creates the lower courts?
2. How does 'good Behaviour' tenure protect judicial independence?
3. What is the difference between original and appellate jurisdiction?

RESPONSE CHOICE: answer any question by writing in the Evidence Lab, saying/recording it, or diagramming it.

Activity 5 — Primary Source / Data Analysis — GC.19

 ~15 min

Primary source (document) — analyze it with HIPPO. Builds SSP.01-SSP.02.

Judiciary Act of 1789 • 1st U.S. Congress • 1789

https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:Judiciary_Act_of_1789.jpg

FIRST LOOK — before you analyze

Jot 3-4 things you notice in the source (details, words, people, dates). No wrong answers.

HIPPO — analyze the source (prompt)	Your analysis
H — Historical context: what was happening when this was created?
I — Intended audience: who was meant to see or obey it?
P — Purpose: why was it created?
P — Point of view: whose perspective does it reflect?
O — Outside connection: how does it connect to this standard?

Primary Source Analysis — go deeper — GC.19

SUPPORT OPTION (use if you need it)

Sentence frame: This source shows _____ because it _____, which reveals _____.

SOURCE SYNTHESIS — put it together (SSP.03)

In 2–3 sentences: what does this source reveal about this standard, and how do you know? Cite one specific detail from it.

THINK LIKE A HISTORIAN — corroborate or challenge (SSP.03)

Name ONE other source that could CONFIRM this one, and ONE way it could COMPLICATE or CHALLENGE it — or, whose voice is missing here?

SO WHAT? — why this source still matters today

In 1–2 sentences: why does this source still matter for understanding government today?

CONFIDENCE CHECK-IN

Rate your understanding of this standard (1-4): _____

One thing to revisit: _____

Activity 6 — Core Application: Practice Quiz — GC.19 ~8 min

RESPONSE CHOICE

Commit to an answer by marking it, saying it, or explaining it aloud before checking. Answer key is in the Teacher Guide (kept separate).

[DOK 1 · item u5-gc19-dok1-1 · pre-field-test]

Federal judges can be removed from office only by:

- A. A national election
- B. Impeachment
- C. The President alone
- D. A state legislature

[DOK 2 · item u1-gc19-dok2-tc · pre-field-test]

Why does the Constitution give federal judges their offices 'during good Behaviour' — effectively for life?

- A. So they can decide cases free from political pressure
- B. Because judges cannot be removed for any reason
- C. So the President can replace them every four years
- D. Because judges must also serve in Congress

STRETCH — think like a test-writer (open to all)

Write your OWN DOK-3 question for this standard, then a one-sentence answer key. Use the supports below — everyone can do this.

HOW TO WRITE A DOK-3 QUESTION (supports)

DOK-3 = strategic thinking: the reader must analyze, compare, evaluate, or justify using evidence — and there should be more than one defensible answer (not a fact you can just look up).

Sentence starters: “Why did _____ lead to _____?” ·
 “Which mattered more — _____ or _____ — and why?” ·

“What is the BEST evidence that _____?” · “Evaluate whether _____.” · “Defend or challenge: _____.”

Frame: [Analyze / Evaluate / Justify] + [something from THIS standard] + “using evidence.”

Quick check: does my question make the reader THINK and use evidence? If yes, it’s DOK-3.

NOW WRITE YOUR DOK-3 QUESTION HERE

YOUR ANSWER KEY — one clear, defensible sentence

Activity 7 — Constructed Response (CER)

Level	Claim	Evidence	Reasoning
4 — Strong	Precise, defensible	2+ accurate, specific	Explains HOW evidence proves the claim
3 — Proficient	Clear	2 accurate	Explains the link
2 — Developing	General	1 accurate	Partial link
1 — Beginning	Unclear / missing	Missing / inaccurate	No reasoning

My 12-15 word headline for this standard

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — GC.20

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Nomination	The President's naming of a person to fill a Supreme Court vacancy; the first step in seating a justice.
Confirmation	The Senate's approval of a nominee by majority vote, after a Judiciary Committee hearing — the 'Advice and Consent' required by the Constitution.
Senate Judiciary Committee	The Senate committee that holds hearings and questions a Supreme Court nominee before the full Senate votes.

Break it into steps:

- 1) Name one cause or effect.
- 2) Give one piece of evidence.
- 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of selecting & confirming justices was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of selecting & confirming justices was
Nomination: The President's naming of a person to fill a Supreme Court vacancy; the first step in seating a justice.

Guiding questions — answer on the lines below (or in your front notes):

- What are the two steps to seat a Supreme Court justice, and who controls each?
- What does the Senate Judiciary Committee do before the full Senate votes?
- Why are confirmations so high-stakes, given how long a justice can serve?

WHICH CUE STILL NEEDS WORK?

LIGHT PROCESSING LAB

Answer one guiding question from above in a full sentence, in your own words.

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.20 ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

No one reaches the Supreme Court alone. When a seat opens, the President nominates a candidate — the first step. The nomination then goes to the Senate, which holds the power of 'Advice and Consent.' The Senate Judiciary Committee holds public hearings, questioning the nominee about their record and judicial philosophy, then recommends the nominee to the full Senate, which confirms by a majority vote. Because a justice serves 'during good Behaviour' — often for decades — a single appointment can shape the law long after the President who made it has left office. That high stakes has turned confirmations into some of the most closely watched political contests in Washington. The process is a deliberate check: the President chooses, but only the Senate can seat.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Nomination, Confirmation. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.21 ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

The Constitution never explicitly says the courts can strike down a law — the Supreme Court claimed that power itself, in Marbury v. Madison (1803). In a dispute over a last-minute judicial appointment, Chief Justice John Marshall reasoned that when a law conflicts with the Constitution, the Constitution must win, because it is the supreme law. 'It is emphatically the province and duty of the judicial department to say what the law is,' he wrote, and 'a law repugnant to the constitution is void.' With that, Marshall established judicial review — the power of courts to declare laws and government actions unconstitutional. It made the judiciary a true check on the other branches and set the precedent that still governs how the Court operates. A branch that controls neither the army nor the budget gained the last word on what the Constitution means.

Write one sentence that uses “Judicial Restraint” to explain this standard.

CONNECT THE TERMS (UDL · build understanding)

How do these priority terms fit together? Write how one leads to or affects another on the lines — or map it in the Sketch Studio on the back.

Activity 2 — Sketch Studio (draw it or say it) — GC.22

SAY IT — pick one way to explain your terms aloud

Explain each priority term to a shoulder partner, then have them explain one back to you.

Or explain a term to your teacher during check-in.

Or record a 20–30 second voice note: say the term, what it means, and one real example.

Or stand and share one term with the class.

Summary — In your own words (2-3 sentences)

PROGRESS CHECK · one question

How do judicial activism and judicial restraint differ?

- A. Activism means judges never rule; restraint means they rule on everything
- B. Activism applies only to state courts; restraint only to federal courts

- C. They are two names for the same approach
- D. Activism is a greater willingness to strike down laws or set new policy; restraint defers to the elected branches and precedent

Commit before you move on — mark it, say it, or explain it aloud.

Guided Support for the Cornell Notes — GC.22

These scaffolds support ONLY the Cornell notes — use them to take and process those notes. Optional and easy to set aside; not a separate assignment or a label.

Key vocabulary	What it means
Writ of Certiorari	An order by which the Supreme Court agrees to hear a case; it takes the 'rule of four' — four of the nine justices — to grant it.
Judicial Activism	An approach in which judges are more willing to strike down laws or set new policy, often reading the Constitution as a 'living document.'
Judicial Restraint	An approach in which judges defer to the elected branches and to precedent, interpreting the Constitution narrowly by its 'original intent.'

Break it into steps:

- 1) Name one cause or effect.
- 2) Give one piece of evidence.
- 3) Write one sentence explaining the link.

Sentence frame

One key cause/effect of deciding what is constitutional was _____, shown by _____, which mattered because _____.

Modeled example (one worked note — yours will differ)

A key idea of deciding what is constitutional was Writ of Certiorari: An order by which the Supreme Court agrees to hear a case; it takes the 'rule of four' — four of the nine justices — to grant it.

GUIDED NOTE REHEARSAL LAB — practice ONE note, step by step

Guiding questions — answer on the lines below (or in your front notes):

- How does a case actually reach the Supreme Court (cert and the 'rule of four')?
- Contrast judicial activism and judicial restraint using an example of each.
- How does the Supremacy Clause support the Court's power to strike down conflicting laws?

WHICH CUE STILL NEEDS WORK?

Circle the Cornell cue from the front page you still need help with, and tell your teacher so we can go over it.

LIGHT PROCESSING LAB

Answer one guiding question from above in a full sentence, in your own words.

Activity 4 — Close Read — GC.22 ~15 min

Reading type: Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis. This is not a primary source. Builds SSP.03 (synthesize) and SSP.05 (historical awareness).

CORE PATH

Because Marbury established judicial review, the Supreme Court is the final judge of whether a law or executive act is constitutional. Getting there is selective: after losing in lower courts, a party petitions for a writ of certiorari, and it takes the 'rule of four' — four of the nine justices — for the Court to take the case. When the Court rules, it does not just settle that dispute; it sets precedent for the whole country. How boldly the Court should use this power is contested. Judges who practice judicial activism are more willing to strike down laws or set new policy, often treating the Constitution as a 'living document' that adapts to the times. Judges who practice judicial restraint defer to the elected branches and to precedent, reading the Constitution by its 'original intent.' The Warren, Burger, Rehnquist, and Roberts Courts are often placed along this spectrum. As Marshall put it, 'the constitution controls any legislative act repugnant to it' — but reasonable people still argue over what the Constitution requires.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Key terms to know first: Writ of Certiorari, Judicial Activism. Read once for the gist, then again for evidence.

Text-dependent questions (answer in the Evidence Lab below or aloud):

1. How does a case actually reach the Supreme Court (cert and the 'rule of four')?

2. Contrast judicial activism and judicial restraint using an example of each.
3. How does the Supremacy Clause support the Court's power to strike down conflicting laws?

RESPONSE CHOICE: answer any question by writing in the Evidence Lab, saying/recording it, or diagramming it.

STRETCH — think like a test-writer (open to all)

Write your OWN DOK-3 question for this standard, then a one-sentence answer key. Use the supports below — everyone can do this.

HOW TO WRITE A DOK-3 QUESTION (supports)

DOK-3 = strategic thinking: the reader must analyze, compare, evaluate, or justify using evidence — and there should be more than one defensible answer (not a fact you can just look up).

Sentence starters: “Why did _____ lead to _____?” ·

“Which mattered more — _____ or _____ — and why?” ·

“What is the BEST evidence that _____?” · “Evaluate whether _____.” · “Defend or challenge: _____.”

Frame: [Analyze / Evaluate / Justify] + [something from THIS standard] + “using evidence.”

Quick check: does my question make the reader THINK and use evidence? If yes, it’s DOK-3.

Who Guards the Constitution?

Perspectives on Judicial Power

This section weighs the paradox of an unelected branch with the power to overturn the elected ones: a guardian of rights to some, a check that can overreach to others. It is Government Hack-authored instructional synthesis grounded in this unit's sourced record — not a primary source.

The Guardian of Rights

Because justices are not elected and serve for life, the Court can protect minority rights and the Constitution even when the majority objects (GC.21, GC.22).

The Countermajoritarian Worry

Others argue that letting nine unelected judges overturn laws passed by elected representatives is in tension with democracy (GC.21).

Activism vs. Restraint

Should judges read the Constitution as a 'living document' that adapts, or interpret the 'original intent' of the Framers? The debate shapes every major ruling (GC.22).

The Appointment Fight

Because a justice can serve for decades, the President's nomination and the Senate's confirmation have become high-stakes political battles (GC.20).

Unit Reflection

Return to the unit's big question: How can unelected judges check the other branches — and what limits their power? Write a final claim with two pieces of evidence from different standards.
