Universal Design for Learning • Multi-Tiered System of Supports

EVERY LEARNER • SAME FIRM GOAL

Multiple ways in

Every lesson opens with a real question and a clear “I can” goal, so you know why it matters and where you’re headed.

Multiple ways to see it

Direct instruction, primary sources, maps, and bilingual key vocabulary — the same ideas shown more than one way.

Multiple ways to show it

Model-with-me, sentence frames, and choices in how you respond — you reach the same goal by the route that works for you.

*Your teacher checks your progress along the way and gives you another path if you need one — the goal never lowers.

Words you need before we read

Fascism

En español: Fascismo

WHAT IT MEANS

An authoritarian political ideology that emphasizes extreme nationalism, militarism, totalitarian control, and a dictatorial leader. Suppresses opposition and glorifies the state above individual rights.

Totalitarianism

En español: Totalitarismo

WHAT IT MEANS

A system of government where the state controls every aspect of public and private life, using propaganda, secret police, and terror to eliminate opposition.

Communism

En español: Comunismo

WHAT IT MEANS

A political and economic system in which the state owns property and the means of production in the name of the working class; in the 20th century it took the form of one-party dictatorship under leaders like...

Fascism preached ultranationalism, a single all-powerful dictator (Mussolini's “Il Duce,” Hitler's “Führer”), militarism, and one-party rule — glorifying the nation and blaming scapegoats over individual rights.

KEY POINT

Fascism preached ultranationalism, a single all-powerful dictator (Mussolini's “Il Duce,” Hitler's “Führer”), militarism, and one-party rule — glorifying the nation and blaming scapegoats over individual rights.

Communism saw history as class struggle: a workers' revolution overthrows capitalism, property becomes collectively owned under state control, aiming for a classless society (Marx; Lenin and Stalin's USSR).

KEY POINT

Communism saw history as class struggle: a workers' revolution overthrows capitalism, property becomes collectively owned under state control, aiming for a classless society (Marx; Lenin and Stalin's USSR).

Totalitarian states seized total control of public and private life — Mussolini's Italy, Hitler's Germany, and Stalin's USSR used propaganda, secret police, and terror to crush all opposition.

The Doctrine of Fascism

Benito Mussolini · 1932

"The Fascist State organizes the nation, but leaves a sufficient margin of liberty to the individual; the latter is deprived of all useless and possibly harmful freedom, but retains what is essential; the deciding power in this question cannot be the individual, but the State alone... The Fascist conception of the State is all-embracing; outside of it no human or spiritual values can exist, much less have value."

Check your understanding

How did economic crisis and political instability enable the rise of totalitarian regimes in Italy, Germany, and the Soviet Union?

- A The Great Depression, post-WWI disappointment, and political chaos created conditions where people accepted radical solutions and strong leaders promising stability
- B Economic prosperity led people to seek stronger government control, although this view has been largely discredited by scholars, which does not align with the documented historical record
- C Totalitarian regimes rose during periods of peace and prosperity, despite the fact that multiple sources contradict this view, which does not align with the documented historical record
- D Democratic governments actively promoted totalitarianism, which does not align with the documented historical record, but the historical evidence paints a more nuanced picture
